V. 1790. SIR CLEMENT BRYDGES JACOB, Baronet^(d) [1665], 4th cousin and presumably heir male, being 1st s. and h. of the Rev. Alexander JACOB, Chaplain to the King, by Mary (m. 1756), who was author of Jacob's Peerage (b. 26 Dec. 1731, d. 9 and bur.

James (BRYDGES), 8th BARON CHANDOS OF SUDELEY], which Alexander was s. of Robert JACOB, yr. br. of the 1st Baronet. He was b. 1 Nov. 1758, and, on the death, 4 Nov. 1790, of his distant cousin, the 4th Baronet, assumed the Baronetcy, on the ground, apparently, of being heir male collateral of the grantee. He, who was unm. in 1802, d. s.p.m. 30 March 1804, in his 46th year.

VI. 1804, SIR CHARLES JACOB, Baronet^(d) [1665], only br.

(c) See Betham's Baronetage [1802], vol. ii., p. 367, for an account of the eccentricity of the 4th Baronet, as also of the assumption of that dignity after his death, in 1790, by his cousin.

(d) According to the assumption of the Baronetcy in 1790.

YEAMANS, or YEOMANS:cr. 12 Jan. 1664/5;ex. 19 Feb. 1788.

I. 1665. "JOHN YEOMANS [or YEAMANS], of the city of Bristol, co. Somerset, Esq.," supposed^(a) to have been 1st s. and h. of Robert YEAMANS, Alderman, and sometime, 1642, Sheriff of Bristol (who was executed there, 30 May 1643, by the then Governor, for having planned the delivery of that city to the King's army), by Anne (afterwards, before 1646, wife of Robert SPEED, Quaker), was, probably in reward for that alderman's loyalty, cr. a Baronet, as above, 12 Jan. 1664/5. He afterwards settled in Barbadoes, and finally in South Carolina, where he was Gov. till 1680, having received a grant of four Baronies (±8,000 acres), being at the same time created a Landgrave of that province, 5 April 1671, by John Berkeley, the "Palatinus Carolinæ." He m. firstly, in Barbadoes, (—), da. of (—) LIMP. He m. secondly there, Margaret, da. of the Rev. John FOSTER, of Barbadoes. He d. between 1680 and 1686.

II. 1680? SIR WILLIAM YEAMANS, Baronet [1665], of Barbadoes aforesaid, 1st s. and h., being only s. by the 1st wife; suc. to the Baronetcy on the death of his father. He m., in Barbadoes, Willoughby, da. of Sir James BROWNE. She was living 1676-80.

III. 1685? SIR JOHN YEAMANS, Baronet [1665], of Barbadoes aforesaid, s. and h., suc. to the Baronetcy on the death of his father. He m. Margaret, 3d da. of Philip GIBBES, of St. James', Barbadoes (d. 7 July 1697), by (—), his 1st wife. He d. apparently^(b) before 1691. His widow m. William FOSTER and, subsequently, Major John BUTLER, who was living as her widower in Dec. 1691.

IV. 1690? SIR JOHN YEAMANS, Baronet [1665], of Barbadoes aforesaid, s. and h., b. about 1689, being aged 26 in 1715; suc. to the Baronetcy on the death of his father; was, possibly, the "John Yeamans, Gent.," admitted to Lincoln's Inn, 29 May 1713. He m. in Barbadoes, in or before 1715, Anne, apparently,^(b) widow of Col. Thomas HELMS, da. of (—) SCANTLEBURY, of Barbadoes. He d. before 1740.

V. 1730? SIR JOHN YEAMANS, Baronet [1665], of Barbadoes aforesaid, only s. and h., b. there about 1720; matric. at Oxford (Queen's Coll.), 15 July 1738, aged 18; suc. to the Baronetcy on the death of his father. He m. in or before 1742, (—). He was living in Barbadoes, 1771.

VI. 1780? SIR ROBERT YEAMANS, Baronet [1665], s. and h., b. to about 1742; matric. at Oxford (Merton Coll.), 17 Jan. 1759, aged 1788. 17; B.A., 1763; was in Holy Orders; Vicar of Fittleworth and Incumbent of Cold Waltham, Sussex, 1776-88. He d. s.p., presumably, n.m., 19 Feb. 1788, aged about 46, when the Baronetcy became extinct.

(a) In Le Neve's Baronetage this is put hypothetically, but in V. L. Oliver's Antigua as a certainty. There was, however, a John Yeamans, of St. Mary's Redcliffe, Bristol, Brewer (whose will was dat. 1645) and who not improbably was a brother or near relation of the alderman, and who certainly had three children, all bap. at St. Mary's aforesaid, viz., (1) John, bap. 28 Feb. 1611, possibly the Baronet of the creation of 1666; (2) Robert, bap. 19 April 1617, possibly the Baronet of the creation of 1668, who in his will, dated 1686, mentions the children of his brother John and of his brother Joseph; and (3) Joseph, bap. 27 Sep. 1617, who had three children, John, Robert and George.

(b) "I have some old letters of Chester of Barbadoes which I cannot reconcile with Burke [i.e., Burke's Extinct Baronetage.] They say that Dorothy Chester married in Dec. 1691, Major John Butler, then 35 years old, who was widower of Lady Yeamans, whose son, Sir John Yeamans, Baronet, married the widow of Col. Thomas Helms." [Letter, 15 July 1884, from Edmond Chester Waters].

GERARD :

cr. 17 Nov. 1666 ;

afterwards, 1687, COSIN-GERARD ;

ex. probably about 1730.

I. 1666. "GILBERT GERARD, of Fiskerton, co. Lincoln," as also of Brafferton, co. York, s. and h. of Col. Ratcliffe GERARD, of Halsall, co. Lancaster (will dat. 7 March 1660/1, pr. 29 Jan. 1669/70), by Jennet, da. of Edward BARRETT, of co. Pembroke, was, presumably, M.P. for Northallerton, 1661-81, and was cr. a Baronet, as above, 17 Nov. 1666, with a spec. rem. "entayling the same title upon his issue male, by Mary, his 2d wife, da. to Dr. John COZENS, Lord Bishop of Durham." (a) He was one of the "Benefactors" towards the rebuilding, in 1666, of the College of Arms, and was, presumably, Sheriff of co. Durham, 1672-73 and 1674-75, and admitted to Gray's Inn, 10 March 1673/4. He m. firstly, in 1643 or 1644, Mary, widow of Sir Michael HUTCHINSON (d. March 1642), sister of William, 2d BARON BRERETON OF LEIGHLIN [I.], 1st da. of the Hon. Sir John BRERETON, by Anne, da. of Sir Edward FITTON. By her he had four children, of whom the two sons (b) were passed over in the limitation of the Baronetcy. He m. secondly, before 7 March 1660/1, Mary, 1st da. of John COSYN, D.D., Bishop of Durham, 1660-72, by Frances, da. of Marmaduke BLAKISTON. She was bur. 5 Dec. 1680, at St. Paul's, Covent Garden. Admon. 7 June 1682. He d. "on his travells, at York," and was bur. 24 Sep. 1687, in York Minster. Nunc. will dat. 17, pr. 26 Sep. 1687, at York.

II. 1687, SIR GILBERT COSIN-GERARD, Baronet [1666], of Brafferton to 1730? to son aforesaid, 4th son, being 2d but 1st surv. s.(c) of the 2d wife, was aged 4 at the Visit. of Durham in 1666; suc. to the Baronetcy, according to the spec. rem. in its creation, in Sep. 1687. He took, v.p., the name of Cosin, in addition to that of Gerrard, having probably inherited some of the estates of his mother's family, and was admitted to Gray's Inn, 25 April 1684, as "Gilbert Cossein Gerard." He m. firstly, 2 May 1681, at Westm. Abbey (Lic. Vic. Gen., same date, he above 19 and she about 18), Mary, da. and h. of Charles (BERKELEY), EARL OF FALMOUTH, by Mary, da. of Col. Hervey BAGOT. She, who is said to have been divorced in 1684, d. 18, and was bur. 23 April 1693 at Bexley, Kent, in her 28th year. M.I. He m. secondly, Mary, sometime 4th wife of Sir Samuel MORLAND, otherwise MORLEY, 1st Baronet [1660] (from whom she was divorced, 16 July 1687), da. of (—) AYLIFF, a coachman. (d) He m. thirdly, 6 April 1712, at St. James's, Duke's place,

(a) A warrant, dat. 17 March 1663/4, and a docquet, dat. 31 May 1664, exist among the Calendars of State Papers [E.], 1660-70, for this creation, with the like remainder.

(b) These were (1) Gilbert Gerard, b. 1645; admitted to Lincoln's Inn, 21 March 1670/1; living 6 April 1675; (2) Charles Gerard, living 6 April 1675; d. unm. and v.p. at Newport in Flanders. Admon. 2 Jan. 1679/80 to his father. Their sisters were (1) Anne, 1st wife of William Owen, of Henllys, co. Pembroke, by whom she had a son William, who d. s.p.; (2) Elizabeth, living unm. 6 April 1675. In the will of Vere Gerard, apinster, dat. 6 April 1675, pr. 28 Feb. 1675/6, she being da. of Charles Gerard, br. to the 1st Baronet, by Francis, sister to his 2d wife (see Visit. of Durham, 1666, under the pedigree of "Cosyn"), she mentions as living "my uncle Sir Gilbert Gerard and his wife, my cousin Gilbert Gerard, their son and my cousin Christian Gerard, my cousins Elizabeth Gerard and Mr. Gilbert Gerard, da. and son of the said Sir Gilbert by his first lady," and leaves the residue of her property to her cousin Charles Gerard.

(c) The burial in the Church of St. Paul's, Covent Gardens, 27 June 1661, of "John, son of Sir Gilbert Gerrard," presumably refers to an infant son by the 2d wife.

(d) See Col Chester's note, on p. 20 of his Westm. Abbey Registers.

London, Mary WHEELER, spinster, then aged 26, both being then of St. George's, Southwark (a) He apparently d. s.p.m., when the Baronetcy became extinct, probably about 1730.^(b)

of Sir John SPECKOTT, of Thornborough, Devon, was six months old at the Visit. of Devon in 1620; matric. at Oxford (Exeter Coll.), 2 March

(a) There can be little doubt that the entry there of that date refers to him, viz., "Sir Gilbert Gerard, w., and Mary Wheeler, sp., both of St. George's, Southwark," in which parish the King's Bench prison, of which he not improbably was an inmate, is situated. It is, however to be noticed that the marriage licence of the same date (Bishop of London's office) omits, probably by mistake, the word "Sir."

(b) His brother, Sir Samuel Gerard, aged 2 at the Visit. of Durham in 1666, who was afterwards Knighted, was of Brafferton, co. Durham. He m. twice, but d. s.p., July 1695. BETENSON, or BETTENSON:

cr. 7 Feb. 1666/7;

see 7 June 1663.

- I. 1667. "SIR RICHARD BETTENSON, of Wimbledon, co. Surrey, Knt.," is frequently said to have been cr. a Baronet, as above, 7 Feb. 1666/7, but the true date appears to have been 7 June 1663, under which accordingly it has here been placed. See vol. iii, p. 277.

Warwick, F.R.S., the celebrated Naturalist (author of a book on Ornithology), by Emma (marr. lic. Vic. Gen., 19 Dec. 1667), 2d da. and coheir of Sir Henry BARNARD, or BERNARD, of Stoke and Bridgenorth, Salop, and Aconbury, co. Hereford, Turkey-Merchant, of London, was b. in 1668; suc. his father (who d. at the age of 37), 3 July 1672, and, in consequence, presumably, of his said father's literary attainments, was (when under nine years of age), cr. a Baronet, as above, 7 April 1677, "with [a special] remainder for lack of issue male to Thomas [WILLOUGHBY], his brother, and to the heirs male of his body." He d. unm. Sep. 1688, in his 20th year. Will pr. Dec. 1688.

II. 1688. SIR THOMAS WILLOUGHBY, Baronet [1677], of Wollaton and Middleton aforesaid, only br. and h., was b. about 1670; suc. to the Baronetcy in Sep. 1688, under the spec. rem. in the creation thereof; was Sheriff of Notts, 1695-96; M.P. for that county (five Parls.), 1698-1710, and for Newark, 1710-12. ^(a) Bridget, da. and coheir of Sir Francis Willoughby, of Wollaton and Cossal, Notts, m. Sir Percival Willoughby, of Bore place, Kent, whose only s. and h., Sir Francis Willoughby (d. 1665), was father of Francis Willoughby, the father of Francis Willoughby, the grantee.

WHITE, otherwise VITUS :

cr. 29 June 1677 ;

forfeited 1691.

I. 1677, "IGNATIUS VITUS, alias WHITE,^(a) [COUNT D'ALBI in to the Holy Roman Empire], 2d s.^(b) of Sir Dominick WHITE, of 1691. Limerick, in Ireland," sometime (1636), Mayor of that city, BARON(c) AND COUNT D'ALBI as aforesaid (having been cr. a Count, Aug. 1658, by the Emperor Leopold), by his 1st wife Christina, da. of Thomas BOURKE, of Limerick, of the family of the BARONS CASTLE CONNELL [I.], was b. about 1626; was many years Envoy of Charles II. to Brussels, and subsequently to Madrid; was Col. of a Reg. of Horse in Flanders, and was, in or before 1674, cr. BARON DE VICKE in Holland; was, as "Ignatius Vitus, Baron of Vicque," cr. D.C.L. of Oxford, 27 June 1674, and was cr. a Baronet, as above, 29 June 1677, with a spec. rem. "for want of issue male, to his nephew,^(d) Ignatius Maximilian VITUS and to the heirs male of his body." He was P.C. and Sec. of State [I.], and was cr. 20 Aug. 1677, by the Emperor Leopold, MARQUIS D'ALBEVILLE in the Holy Roman Empire, a creation which, under the Earl Marshal's warrant, 30 Oct. 1686, was registered in the College of Arms, London; together with a recital that Charles II had, by royal signet, 7 April 1679, allowed "the Rt. Hon. Sir Ignatius WHITE alias D'ALBY, Knight Baronet of the Kingdom of England and Baron de Vigue [i.e., Baron de Vicke in Holland], now Marquis D'Albyville, and Knight, Baron, Count and Marquis of the [Holy Roman] Empire, to receive honours from any King at amity with His Majesty." He was appointed,^(a) 1686, Ambassador to the Hague, where he had a medal struck on the birth, 10 June 1688, of the heir apparent to the Crown. He accompanied James II into France, after the battle of the Boyne; was attainted in 1691; and proclaimed an outlaw at Dublin, 11 May in that year, wherby the Baronetcy became forfeited. He was, till his death in 1694, Secretary to the exiled King at St. Germain's. He m. firstly, in or before 1664, Mary, da. of Patrick (FITZMAURICE), BARON KERRY AND LIXNAW [I.], hy Honora, da. of Edmond FITZGERALD. She d. s.p.m. about 1680, at St. Martin's in the Fields, and was bur. "near Covent Garden." Admon. 20 March 1683/4. He m. secondly, 19 May 1681, at S. James', Duke place, London, Mary WHOROW, spinster. He d. 21 and was bur. 22 Aug. 1694, at St. Germain l'Auxerrois, Paris, aged "67-70." His widow was living June 1712, in the service of the Queen of Spain, at Madrid.

(a) See full account of this family in R. G. Maunsell's "History of Maunsell or Mansel," etc. [Cork, 1903], to whom, as also to the Marquis de Ravigny, the Editor is much indebted. The entries relating to this Baronetcy, from the registers of St. Germain's in Paris, have been most kindly supplied by Herbert Vivian.

(b) Of his brothers: (1) Sir Richard White, the eldest son, embarked, 1651-54, with 7,000 men from Ireland to Spain, where, apparently, he was Knighted. He d. s.p. and in the Fleet prison [Le Neve's MS. Baronetage]. His will, as "of London, Knt.," dat. 8 Sep. 1698 and pr. 3 June 1699, leaves his residue "to my nephew and nieces, children of my deceased brother Ignatius, Marquis of Albeville, and Mary, Marchioness of Albeville, his widow." (2) Andrew White, Count D'Albi, the 3d son, Governor of Barbadoes [Le Neve's MS. Baronetage], m. twice, but d. s.p.m., and was bur. at St. Margaret's, Westm., 15 Dec. 1687, as "Sir Andrew White, Count Alvey." (3) Francis White, 4th and yst. son, who m. a Flemish lady and had a son, Ignatius Maximilian Vitus, or White [presumably the nephew in remainder to the Baronetcy in June 1677], who [as stated in Le Neve's MS. Baronetage] "died young."

(c) His ancestor, Dominick White, of Limerick, having distinguished himself in the French wars, was cr. in 1513, by the Emperor Maximilian I, Baron D'Albi, of the Holy Roman Empire. See note "a" above.

(d) This nephew if (as is presumed) identical with Ignatius Maximilian, son of the grantee's brother, Francis White, d. young and in the lifetime of the grantee. See note "b" above.

- II. 1694, SIR JAMES^(a) WHITE, Baronet^(b) [1677], MARQUIS to D'ALBEVILLE, etc., only surv. s. and h. by 2d wife; suc. to 1710. his father's dignities,^(b) 21 Aug. 1694. He was in the French Service, being, apparently,^(c) Lieut. in Galway's Irish Infantry, 1706-09, though sometimes called a Capt. in "the King of England's Reg. of Dragoons." He d. unm., being slain at the battle of Villa Viciosa, in Spain, 10 Dec. 1710 (in which he is said to have twice saved the life of Philip V. King of Spain).^(d) when the Baronetcy became extinct, as did also all the male issue of the grantee and of his brothers.^(e)

(^a) His christian name is somewhat doubtful. He, in the will dated 1698, of his uncle, Sir Richard, (see page 86, note "b"), is, unfortunately, only mentioned as "the son" of testator's deceased brother. One such son, Ignatius, [b. about 1684], had died v p. 3, and was bur. at St. Germain's in Paris 4 Sep. 1690, as "Ignace Dalbeville, agé de 6 ans, fils de Monsieur le Marquis Dalbeville, Anglois de nation." The only son ascribed to the grantee in Le Neve's MS. Baronetage is apparently (for the name has been altered, and, save for the final 'es,' is not quite clear) named James. It is presumed, therefore, that he (whose death is not mentioned by Le Neve) was "the son" who survived his father, as is mentioned in his uncle's will of 1698. The grantee, however, may have had other sons, of whom one (possibly, even, one named Ignatius and born after the death, in Sep. 1690, of his brother of that name) may have been the son who survived him. It is clear, however, that the grantee was succeeded by a son and not by his nephew (Ignatius Maximilian, as to whom see page 86, note "b"), who was in spec. rem. to the Baronetcy, inasmuch as the Marquisate, which undoubtedly was held in 1710 by the grantee's successor, could only have been inherited by his own issue, and would not have passed to a nephew or any collateral. In O'Callaghan's Irish Brigades (p. 279) the father of the Marquis who was killed at Villa Viciosa, 10 Dec. 1710, is expressly stated to have been "King James II's Ambassador in Holland," i.e., the first Baronet.

(^b) Subject to the attainder of 1691.

(^c) In reply to an enquiry sent to the French War Office by the Marquis de Ruigny for information as to "White, Marquis of Albeville, killed at Villa Viciosa," the following answer was given:—"République Française, Ministre de la Guerre, Paris, le 14 Novembre 1903. WHITE (sans autres indications) figure sur controle general de l'infanterie etabli in 1706, comme Lieutenant au regiment de Galway (infanterie Irlandaise).—Remplacé le 20 Juillet 1709." The Marquis adds that the same letter contained also an account of the services of sixteen other Jacobite officers, but that in this case alone no particulars were supplied, while in nearly every other case the full christian name and title, as also the dates and places of birth, were given. He concludes thus, "Indeed there is nothing [in this extract] to shew that it is the Marquis of Albeville, only that it appears to be the only WHITE they can trace."

(^d) Marshal Vendome writes, in his report of the battle, "The Lieut. Col. of the Regiment [Killmallock's Dragoons] received a musket shot through the body while charging the enemy, and the Marquis D'Albeville, one of his brave Captains, sabre in hand, all covered with wounds, lost his life, after having won admiration, by many brave and intrepid actions." See page 86, note "a."

(^e) This appears to be conclusively proved by the following document [ex inform. the Marquis de Ruigny] among the Stuart papers [Warrant Book IV of James III and VIII], dated at St. Germain, June 1712:—"Certificate that all the brothers of the late Sir Ignatius White, an Irishman, a Baronet of England and Marquis D'Albeville of the Holy Roman Empire (formerly Envoy Extraordinary to Holland of the late King, and his Secretary of State for Ireland) have died and that the sole heire of all these brothers are the daughters of the said Marquis D'Albeville, who are at present, with their mother, in the service of the Queen of

It is, however, alleged (see page 86, note "a") that the 2d Baronet and Marquis left a son and h., John White, who followed Prince Charles Edward to England and was slain at Culloden in 1746, leaving a son and h., Thomas White, who was (with his father) at the said battle, but who soon afterwards "made his way to Ireland," leaving a son and h., John White, Barrister [1784] and King's Counsel, who (by Isabella, da. of Capt. Ebenezer Warreu, 62d Foot) left a son and h., Thomas White Warren, Barrister [1821], whose s. and h., John Warren White, 40th Regiment, claimed the Baronetcy in 1880, being then of St. Arnaud, Victoria, Australia. "After making a very exhaustive search, Sir J. He was made Chief Justice of the King's Bench, 29 Sep. 1683; P.C., 4 Oct. 1683; presided at the trials, for high treason, of Algernon Sidney, in Nov. 1683, and of Titus Oates, in May 1685. He m. firstly, 23 May 1667, at Allhallows', Barking,^(d) Sarah, da. of the Rev. She was living when he was cr. 15 May 1685, BARON JEFFREYS OF WEM, co. Salop,^(e) with spec. rem. like to that of his Baronetage, in which peerage this Baronetcy then merged, till both became extinct, by the death, 9 May 1702, of the 2d Baron and Baronet. ^(b) She was da. of his mother by George Stawel, her 1st husband.

^(c) According to Lipscomb's Bucks, he did not purchase the estate of Bulstrode from Sir Roger Hill till 1686, but as that date appears in the parts of the mansion there that was built by him, it is likely that the actual purchase was some years earlier. It was sold by his son-in-law, Charles Dyve, to the Duke of Portland.

^(d) Dict. Nat. Biogr. There is, however, no entry thereof, a hiatus occurring in these registers between the marriages of 19 April 1666 and 10 Dec. 1667.

^(e) He was raised to the peerage about three months after the accession of his patron, James II, to the throne, and "as no Chief Justice had ever been made a Lord of Parliament since the judicial system had been remodelled in the thirteenth century, this was an exceptional mark of Royal approbation" [Dict. Nat. Biogr.]. Some three months after this creation he started for his well known "Bloody circuit" in the West, on his return from which, 20 Sep. 1685, the King, "taking into his Royal consideration the many eminent and faithful services" which he had performed, made him Lord Chancellor, a post he retained till the end of that reign.

DAVERS :

cr. 12 May 1682 ;

ex., or dormant, 4 June 1806.

- I. 1682. "ROBERT DAVERS, of Rougham, co. Suffolk, Esq.," whose parentage is unknown, was, in all probability, the Robert DAVERS, b. about 1620, who as a boy, aged 14, sailed with 78 others in April 1635 for Barbadoes. He, in 1673, was proprietor of 600 acres, being among the "most eminent planters" there,^(f) and having "got an estate of the value of £30,000,"^(g) returned to England about 1680, purchased soon afterwards the estate of Rougham from the family of BURWELL, and was cr. a Baronet, as above, 12 May 1682. He m. in or before 1653, Eleanor, probably sister of George LUKE.^(h) She was living in July 1679, but probably d. in Barbadoes

(a) This Robert was yr. br. of Sir Gerard Napier, of Middlemarsh Hall, Dorset
cr. a Baronet, 25 June 1641, a dignity which became extinct, 25 Jan. 1765.

(b) Le Neve's MS. Baronetage.

(c) Wotton's Baronetage [1741]. The account in Kimber's Baronetage [1771], is much the same, no notice being made of the death of the 2d Baronet, who indeed is there called "the present Baronet" (though his age would have been above 100), and the words "he had issue" being substituted for "he has issue living."

(d) Courthope's Extinct Baronetage.

(e) In the pedigree in Hutchins' Dorset, his eldest son is called "Sir George."

(f) This article is mainly taken from the account of the family in the admirable annotations to the Rushbrook Parish Registers, 1567-1850, by "S.H.A.H.," pub. by Geo. Booth, Church Street, Woodbridge, Suffolk, 1903, 4to, pp. 486.

(g) Le Neve's MS. Baronetage.

(h) The 1st Baronet in his will, dat. 4 July 1679, leaves £500 "to my brother, George Luke."

before him. He was bur. 21 June 1684, at Rougham. Will, as of St. George's in Barbadoes, dat. 4 to 19 July 1679, pr. 29 June 1688.

II. 1684. SIR ROBERT DAVERS, Baronet [1682], of Rougham aforesaid, only s. and h., b. in Barbadoes, 1653; was in England, 1680-82, but, returning to Barbadoes, took his seat in the Council there, 13 June 1682, and was, 30 Nov. 1683, one of the Barons of the Court of Exchequer and of Pleas there; suc. to the Baronetcy in June 1684; was elected Sheriff of Suffolk, Dec. 1684, but did not act, and came over to England finally in 1687; M.P. (in the Tory interest) for Bury St. Edmunds (six Parls.), 1689-1701, and Nov. 1703 to 1705; for Suffolk (six Parls.), 1705, till his death in 1722. He m., 2 Feb. 1681/2, at Rushbrook, Suffolk, Mary, 1st da. and coheir [1703] of Thomas (JERMYN), 2d BARON JERMYN OF ST. EDMUNDSBURY, by Mary, da. of Henry MERRY, 1st s. of Sir Henry MERRY, of Derbyshire. By this marriage he acquired in 1703 one-fifth of the Rushbrook estate, of which he purchased the other parts from his wife's sisters. He sold the estate of Rougham between 1705 and 1710 to his son in law, Clement CORRANCE. He d. 1 and was bur. 7 Oct. 1722, at Rushbrook, aged 69. Will, in which he directs his Barbadoes estate to be sold, dat. 14 March 1714, pr. 13 Dec. 1722. His widow, who was b. in 1663, probably in Jersey, d. four days after him, 11 and was bur. with him 14 Oct. 1722, aged 69. Admon. 13 Dec. 1722 and 18 July 1723.

III. 1722. SIR ROBERT DAVERS, Baronet [1682], of Rushbrook aforesaid, 1st s. and h., b. about 1684 possibly in Barbadoes; matric. at Oxford (Ch. Ch.), 25 Jan. 1702/3, aged 17 [sic]; Auditor of the Excise, 1713; suc. to the Baronetcy, 1 Oct. 1722. He d. unm. 20 and was bur. 23 May 1723, at Rushbrook, aged 39. [sic] M.I. Will dat. 28 Nov. 1722 to 26 Feb. 1722/3, pr. 18 July 1723.

IV. 1723. SIR JERMYN DAVERS, Baronet [1682], of Rushbrook aforesaid, br. and h., b. about 1686 possibly in Barbadoes; matric. at Oxford (Ch. Ch.), 14 March 1703/4, aged 17; was M.P. for Bury St. Edmunds, 1722-27, and for Suffolk (three Parls.), 1727, till death in 1743; suc. to the Baronetcy, 20 May 1723. By the death, 12 Oct. 1726, of Judith, widow of his great uncle, Henry (JERMYN), 3d BARON JERMYN OF ST. EDMUNDSBURY and 1st BARON DOVER, he inherited considerable estates, of which he sold that of Cheveley, in Cambridgeshire, in 1732. He m. 21 Oct. 1729 [Qy. 1728], at Rushbrook, Margaretta, 1st da. and coheir of the Rev. Edward GREEN, Rector of Drinkstone, Suffolk [1692-1740], and Margaret, his wife. He d. 20 and was bur. 27 Feb. 1742/3, at Rushbrook. Will dat. 20 Aug. 1740 to 4 Feb. 1742/3, pr. 31 Oct. 1743. His widow d. at Angel Hill, Bury St. Edmunds, 5 Feb. 1780, aged 85. Will dat. 16 and 17 Aug. 1771, directing her burial to be with her parents at Drinkstone, pr. 17 April 1780 at the Archdeacon's Court at Sudbury.

V. 1743. SIR ROBERT DAVERS, Baronet [1682], of Rushbrook aforesaid, 1st s. and h., b. presumably^(a) about 1730 (i.e., after his parents' marriage in Oct. 1729), admitted to Bury Grammar School, July 1742;

(^a) It is not, however, very clear whether he was not b. (as indicated below) in Jan. 1729/30, some ten months before his parents' marriage, though of course that birth may apply to another child of the same name, who possibly d. in infancy. The following baptisms at St. Margaret's, Westm., illustrate the subject: (1) Jermyn, s. of Jermyn and Margaretta Davers, b. 4 and bap. 10 Dec. 1720; (2) Margaretta Maria, da. of Sir Jermyn Davers and Dame Margaretta, b. 29 Sep. and bap. 5 Oct. 1723; (3) Mary, da. of the same, b. 4 and bap. 5 Aug. 1725; (4) Mary, da. of the same, b. 28 Feb. and bap. 1 March 1726/7; (5) Robert, s. of same, b. 20 and bap. 21 Jan. 1728/9. The burial of the first-named Mary is recorded there, 26 Aug. 1725, as "Mrs Mary Davers, C." Sir Jermyn Davers, in his will dat. 20 Aug. 1740, leaves annuities to his "two natural sons, James and Jermyn Davers," but mentions Robert Davers as his eldest s., whom he places first in the entail of the estate.

suc. to the Baronetcy, 20 Feb. 1742/3. After travelling in 1756 in Italy, he left England for North America in 1761, being presumably in the army, as in May and June 1762, "while at Fort Detroit, an English garrison in North America," he made a will, which he placed in the custody of "Lieut. Leslye, of the 1st battalion of Royal Americans," from whom, "being in garrison at an English fort in North America, called Fort Michilunackinac," in July 1763, it was "taken by the Indians" and "either lost or destroyed." He d. unm., June 1763, being killed (when in a boat) by the Indians near Lake Huron in Canada. Admon. 20 March 1764, in which the fate of his will (as mentioned above) is recited.

VI. 1763, SIR CHARLES DAVERS, Baronet [1682], of Rushbrook to aforesaid, br. and h., b. 4 June 1737; entered in March 1758, the 1806. 48th Foot, then engaged against the French in Canada; Capt., 99th Foot, Jan., and 44th Foot, Oct. 1761, retiring on half pay in 1766, having suc. to the Baronetcy in June 1763. Was M.P. for Weymouth, 1768-74, and for Bury (four Parls.), 1774, till 1802. He d. 4 June 1806, on his birthday of 69, and was bur. at Rushbrook, presumably unm.,^(a) and s.p. legit., when the Baronetcy became extinct, or possibly only dormant.^(b) Will pr. 1806.

JAMES:

cr. 28 June 1682;

ex. 29 Sep. 1741.

I. 1682. "[JAMES] CANE JAMES, of Chrishall [otherwise CRESHALL], co. Essex," formerly JAMES CANE, s. of Adam CANE, Citizen and Vintner of London, by Emlin, da. of Richard and sister of Sir John JAMES, of Creshall aforesaid, was b. about 1656; admitted to Gray's Inn, 1 June 1674; matric. at Oxford (St. John's Coll.), 18 May 1677, aged 19; suc. his said uncle (who d. unm. 17 Feb. 1676, aged 72) in the Creshall estate, and, having taken the surname of James, was cr. a Baronet, as above, 28 June 1682; Sheriff of Essex, 1685-86. He m. firstly (Lic. Fac. 6 July 1680), Susanna (then aged 16), 1st da. of Sir Peter SOAME, 2d Baronet [1685], of Heydon, Essex, by Susanna, da. of Ralph FREEMAN. She d. s.p., 5 months later, 28 Dec. 1680, aged 17, and was bur. at Heydon. M.I. He m. secondly, in or before 1692, Anne, da. and coheir of Francis PHILLIPS, of the Inner Temple, London, and of Kempton park, Midx., by Anne, da. of William JOLLIFFE, of Leak, co. Stafford. He d. 19 May 1736, aged 80, at Bury St. Edmunds, Suffolk. Will pr. 1736. The will of Dame Anne James was pr. 1739.

(a) As to his possible marriage and legit. issue, "S.H.A.H." (see p. 127, note "f") states that "Dr. G. B. Jermyn's MS. book says he married in America the da. of a miller, by whom he had one son, who afterwards served as a private soldier in the American army, who is also reported to have m. and to have had a family. I do not know how much truth there is in this, nor what the consequences would be if a descendant of the supposed family were to turn up. In another place Dr. Jermyn says that the wife of Sir Charles was the da. of an American planter, whose name was Coutts. At any rate no Lady Davers seems ever to have come to England." He had five illegit. sons, hap. at Rushbrook, April 1770 to July 1785, and three daughters, all by Frances Treice. At his death his estates went to his nephew and (apparently) heir at law, Frederick William (Hervey), 5th Earl (and afterwards 1st Marquess) of Bristol, who, three years later, sold them in 1808 to Robert Rushbrooke, who had m., 23 May 1808, at St. James, Westm., Frances, illegit. da. of the 6th and last Baronet.

(b) Of the four brothers he was the only one who d. a natural death. The eldest (the 5th Baronet) was murdered; Henry Davers, the 2d s., admitted to Bury School in 1743, shot himself, on board ship, about 1760, and the Rev. Thomas Davers, M.A., Rector of Stow Langloft and Little Whelnetham, "shot himself in his mother's greenhouse at Bury," 30 June 1766. Of his two surviving sisters and coheirs (1) Mary d. unm., Aug. 1805, at Bury, aged 75, and (2) Elizabeth, hap. at Rushbrook, 1 Feb. 1732/3, m. there, 10 Aug. 1752, Frederick (Hervey), 4th Earl of Bristol, and d. at Ickworth Lodge, July 1803, leaving issue.

- II. 1736, SIR JOHN JAMES, Baronet [1682], of Creshall aforesaid, to s. and h. b. about 1692; matric. at Oxford (St. John's Coll.), 1741. 13 March 1708/9, aged 16; suc. to the Baronetcy, 19 May 1736.
He d. unm. 29 Sep. 1741, aged 47, and was bur. at Creshall, when the Baronetcy became extinct. Will dat. 15 May 1740, pr. 1741.^(a)

This conferring of an English hereditary title on a foreign subject, an infant, whose grandfather's services (for which, apparently, they were granted) were neither in, nor on behalf of, England, seems very unusual. This remark also applies to the Baronetcy promised to the grantee's father, who died aged 26, never, apparently, having had any connection with England.

(^a) The meaning of the words Jonkheer and Jonkvrouwe, as also the position of the Speelman family in their native country, is thus elucidated:—"When, in 1817, a bill had passed for the regulation of the Nobility in the Netherlands, lists of names were published by the Government, including the names of all persons who were incorporated into the Dutch Nobility. Those persons [to] whom were given no special title (Count or Baron) had to bear the predicate Jonkheer, or, for the females, Jonkvrouwe. This predicate is always put before the christian names. It is generally abbreviated and put down thus, Jhr. and Jkvr. In 1817, Cornelis Jacob Speelman established his rights with regard to the Dutch Nobility, and his name was included in the first list of names of Nobles published by the Government; [accordingly] since that time all the descendants bear the predicate of the Dutch Nobility. Thus, since 1817, all the male descendants have before their christian names Jonkheer, or, by abbreviation, Jhr.; and the female descendants Jonkvrouwe, or Jkvr." [G. W. (b) See N. & Q., 4th S., ii, 546.

(c) The title is given as "extinct" in Kimber's Baronetage (1771); as to this fact "E.W." states in N. & Q. (4th S., iii, 383) that "in 1765 the Baronetcy certainly became extinct, the second Baronet's only son (who married the widow of Edward Wadman, Esq.), dying 1754 s.p., and the other sons of the first Baronet having all died s.p. The Extinct Baronetage speaks of the Rev. Sir Robert as 4th Baronet, and descended from a younger son of the 1st Baronet. He may have assumed the title previous to his death in 1781, s.p., but it is certain that the 2d Baronet was the only son of the 1st Baronet who had issue male or ever married, [and] consequently thus, in 1765, the title became extinct."

(d) He accordingly when raised to the peerage, 4 Aug. 1766, was cr. Viscount Pitt of Burton Pynsent, co. Somerset, and Earl of Chatham.

COLT:

cr. 2 March 1693/4.

I. 1694. "HENRY DUTTON COLT, of [St. James', in] the city of Westminster, Esq.," senior,^(a) 4th s. of George COLT, of Grays, otherwise Cotts Hall, in Cavendish, co. Suffolk, and of Clay Hall, in Barking, and Parndon Hall, both in co. Essex, by Elizabeth, da. and coheir of John DUTTON,^(b) of Sherborne, co. Gloucester, which George (bap. 17 Aug. 1614, at Cavendish) was a zealous Royalist, and fled to Holland after the battle of Worcester, being ^(a) So styled in the patent, probably to distinguish him from Henry Colt, s. of his brother Sir William Colt.

^(b) This John Dutton, who was a Cromwellian, is said (in the interesting account of the family contributed by Mary Dutton Colt, a niece of the 1st Baronet to Wotton's Baronetage) to have offered to settle his estates on his son-in-law, George Colt, if he would leave the Royal cause, but, on his refusal, to have entailed them on his own heirs male collateral.

drowned on his passage to Ireland, 20 Jan. 1658,^(a) in his 45th year, and bur. at Girtringdunbark). He was b. about 1646,^(b) was, sometime, Adjutant to Prince Rupert, and, having been a promoter of the Revolution, was cr. a Baronet, as above, 2 March 1693/4, with a spec. rem., failing heirs male of his body, to his eldest brother John Dutton COLT, of Letton, co. Hereford, in like manner, whom failing to the heirs male of the body of his late br., Sir William Dutton COLT, deceased.^(c) He was M.P. for Newport (Isle of Wight), 1695-98, and for Westminster, 1701-02, and 1705-08. He m. Cecilia, widow of William NUTHILL, of Thames Ditton, Surrey, formerly wife of Sir Robert HATTON, of the same (d. 1684), da. of Francis BREWSTER, of Wrentham, co. Suffolk. She d. Oct. 1712. Will pr. Oct. 1712. He d. s.p., 25 April 1731.

II. 1731. SIR JOHN DUTTON COLT, Baronet [1694], of Leominster, co. Hereford, great nephew and h., being only s. and h. of John Dutton COLT, of the same, by Mary, da. of John ARNOLD, of Llanvihangel Crucorney, co. Monmouth, which John (bap. 20 Sep. 1686, at Camberwell, Surrey, and d. 2 Feb. 1729) was 1st s. and h. of John Dutton COLT,^(d) abovementioned (d. 29 April 1722), the eldest br. of the 1st Baronet. He was b. 1725, and suc. to the Baronetcy, 25 April 1731, under the spec. rem. in the creation thereof. He was in Holy Orders, being Rector of Letton, Willersley, and Cold Weston, co. Hereford. He m. 24 June 1747, Margaret, or Mary, da. of John POWELL, of London. He was bur. 4 May 1809, at Leominster, aged 84.^(e)

He m. in 1774, Malet, 1st da. of George LANGLEY, of Goulding Hall, Salop, Capt. in the Royal Marines, by Malet, da. of John (VAUGHAN), 1st VISCOUNT LISBURN [I.]. IV. 1810. SIR JOHN DUTTON COLT, Baronet [1694], 1st s. and h., b. 8 Oct. 1774; suc. to the Baronetcy in June 1810. He d. unm., 10 Jan. 1845, at Hill Court, near Berkeley, in his 73d year. Will pr. March 1845.

V. 1845. SIR EDWARD VAUGHAN COLT, Baronet [1694], of Trawscoed, co. Radnor, only surv. br. and h., b. about 1781; suc. to the Baronetcy, 10 Jan. 1845. (a) See the account of him by his grand-daughter (p. 162, note "b,") where it is also said that at his death "there was found in his pocket a warrant for being an Earl." It is not likely that the date of death (20 Jan. 1658) assigned to him by his grand-daughter is wrong, especially as she mentions that he was then in his 45th year (which accords with his date of baptism, a date which she does not mention), but the date of death assigned to him in J. J. Howard's, Visit. of Suffolk, is 1674, and the birth of Edward, the 6th of his nine sons, was as late as 1663, if the statement of his age as being 35 on 13 Sep. 1698, as given in his allegation for a marriage license (Fac. Office) of that date, is correct.

(b) His eldest br. was 16 years old at his father's death in 1658, and he himself was the fourth of nine sons.

(c) This William was Knighted, 26 Nov. 1684, six days after his marriage, 20 Nov. 1684 (at Westm. Abbey), to Mary Shipman, widow, his 3d wife. He was afterwards Resident at the Court of Hanover, where he died. Will dat. 4 May 1689 to 29 Aug. 1673, pr. 18 Jan. 1693/4.

(d) This John acquired lands in Herefordshire by his 1st wife (the mother of his nine children), Mary, da. and h. of John Booth, of Letton, in that county. His unyielding conduct in refusing the surrender (required by the Crown) of the Charter of Leominster and the suffering that it brought upon him are fully dwelt upon by his daughter (see note "a" above). He sold Colt Hall and other family estates.

(e) Playfair's Baronetage [1811].

From "The Scots in Eastern and Western Prussia," by Th. Fischer [1903] it appears that Brown of Dantzic "was made Burgess and Guild brother of Edinburgh in 1684. He also received a Baronetcy. The patent [sic] is still preserved at Dantzic, and is signed by Sir George Drummond. In 1717 he possessed a fine house on the Langmarkt." The word "patent," as above, must, however, mean "Burgess ticket," as Sir George Drummond was Provost of

(b) In Kimber's Baronetage [1771] "SIR ANTHONY WESCOMBE, son and heir" of the 2d Baronet, is given as "the present Baronet." If he was such son, he must have been by a marriage after that in 1736, for the admon. of Dame Anna Maria Wescombe, proves that she died without issue, though before her husband. In Kensington churchyard is a M.I. to "DAME REBECCA WESCOMBE, widow of SIR WILLIAM WESCOMBE, Baronet, died 3 Jan. 1789, aged 77," which William may possibly have been a yr. br. of the 2d Baronet, who, however, is often called only s. and h. of the 1st Baronet. (d) List of Baronets in Ulster's office.

(e) The description (as well as the dates) of the grantees of these Irish Baronetcies is, in most cases, placed within inverted commas as being taken from the Liber Munerum Publicorum Hiberniæ (see vol. i, p. 223, note "b"). This, however, is not the case in this instance, inasmuch as the creation of "Kennedy" has been omitted in that work,

II. 1668. SIR RICHARD KENNEDY, Baronet [I. 1665], of Mount Kennedy aforesaid, 2d but 1st surv. s. and h.,^(a) by 1st wife; admitted to Lincoln's Inn, London, 25 Aug. 1638, and to the King's Inns, Dublin, 28 Jan. 1656; was M.P. [I.] for Mullingar, 1647-49; Knighted 29 Aug. 1660, being made, 27 Sep. following, Joint Chief Remembrancer of the Exchequer [I.], and 8 Nov. in the same year, Second Baron of the Exchequer [I.], an office he resigned in 1681. He suc. to the Baronetcy^(b) in March 1667/8. He m., about 1650, Anne, da. of Christopher BARKER, by Sarah, da. of Bonham NORTON. He, in 1682, settled Mount Kennedy and his other land in tail male. He d. Jan. 1684/5.^(c) Funeral entry. Will dat. 19 Feb. 1679/80, pr. 8 Sep. 1701, in Prerog. Court [I.]. The will of his widow dat. 10 Jan. 1698/9, pr. there 15 Oct. 1703.

III. 1685. SIR ROBERT KENNEDY, Baronet [I. 1665], of Mount Kennedy aforesaid, 1st s. and h., b. about 1650; entered Trin. Coll., Dublin, as Fellow Commoner, 23 Feb. 1665/6, aged 15; admitted to Lincoln's Inn, London, 9 Feb. 1670/1; suc. to the Baronetcy, Jan. 1684/5; was Sheriff of co. Wicklow, 1686.^(d) He m. (Lic. 20 Oct. 1682) Frances, sister of Robert HOWARD, Bishop of Elphin [1729-40], da. of Ralph HOWARD, of Shelton Abbey, co. Wicklow, by Catherine, da. of Roger SOTHEY. He d. 1688.^(e) Funeral entry.

IV. 1688, SIR RICHARD KENNEDY, Baronet [I. 1665], of Mount Kennedy aforesaid, 1st s. and h.; b. there about 1686; suc. to the Baronetcy in 1688; entered Trin. Coll., Dublin, 22 Jan. 1703/4, aged 16. He, when of full age, suffered a recovery of the entailed estates, thereby vesting them in himself absolutely. He was Sheriff of co. Dublin, 1709. He m. Katharine, da. of Sir Francis BLAKE, of Oxfordshire. He d. s.p.m.,^(e) aged 23, being killed in a duel, by Mr. Dormer in April 1710. Will dat. 22 July 1707, pr. at Dublin 25 Sep. 1710. His widow m. Lord Frederick Henry HOWARD (yr. s. of Henry, DUKE OF NORFOLK), who d. 16 March 1726/7, aged 42. She d. 22 Jan. 1731/2.

V. 1710, SIR WILLIAM KENNEDY, Baronet [1665], uncle to and h. male, being 2d s. of the 2d Baronet; b. 1664; 1730? entered Trin. Coll., Dublin, 19 Jan. 1678/9, aged 14; M.A., 1686. Being an adherent of James II, he was attainted 3 April (1694), 6 and 7 William and Mary, and, consequently, when he became heir to the Baronetcy in April 1710, was not legally entitled thereto. He became a monk in the English Monastery at Paris, and was living in France in 1727. On his death the Baronetcy presumably became extinct.

^(a) His elder br. Silvester Kennedy was admitted to Lincoln's Inn, 8 March 1630/1, by spec. favour. He m. Mary, da. of William Crofton, but d. s.p. and v.p. His widow m. (as his 3d wife) Sir Paul Davys, Sec. of State [I.].

^(b) He is called "Sir R. Kennedy, Bart. [apparently a mistake for 'Knight'], Second Baron," etc., in Royal letters, dated 3 Oct. 1662. [Smyth's Law Officers of Ireland, 1839, p. 154].

^(c) The statement in Notes and Queries [8th S., vi. 15] that the 2d Baronet d. in London, 10 May 1703, and was bur. at St. Margaret's, Westminster, is clearly an error. He is stated in the printed claim of Sir Wm. Dudley to the Kennedy estate to have d. in 1684, and his son, the 3d Baronet, in 1688.

^(d) "If to be judged by his intimates, extremely Whiggish" [D'Alton's "King James' Irish Army List, 1689," where also, among the outlawries of 1691, occurs the name of "William Kennedy, of Mount Kennedy, co. Wicklow, popularly called Lord William Kennedy"].

^(e) Elizabeth, his only da. and h., m. 12 Dec. 1719, Sir William Dudley, 3d Baronet [1660], who d. s.p. 15 June 1764, aged 67, having previously advanced a claim to the Kennedy estates.

DIXON :^(a)

1665? to 1726.

SIR WILLIAM DIXON, of Dublin and of Colverstown, co. Kildare, 1st s. and h. of Sir Robert DIXON, Mayor of Dublin, 1633-34 (bur. 1 Sep. 1654, at St. John's, Dublin), by Mand. da. of [—] BEK, of Dublin, was M.P. [I.] for Donegal Borough, 1639-49, and for Jamestown, 1661, till death in 1666; was Knighted by the Lords Justices [I.], 23 April 1661; Sheriff of co. Dublin, 1665; and was in 1687 (21 years after his death) styled, in error, "Baronet" [QV. I.].^(a) He m. probably about 1640, Margaret, 2d da. of Capt. Erasmus SAUNDERS. She d. 30 April and was bur. 5 May 1662, at St. Werburgh's, Dublin. Funeral entry. He d. 25 Jan. and was bur. there 2 Feb. 1665/6. Funeral entry. Will dat. 28 Oct. 1665, pr. [I.] 1666.

RICHARD DIXON, subsequently, after 1683/4, SIR RICHARD DIXON, of Colverstown aforesaid, 1st s. and h.; admitted to Lincoln's Inn, 26 Oct. 1659; suc. his father, 25 Feb. 1665/6; was Sheriff of co. Kildare, 1667; Knighted by the Lord Deputy [I.], 24 Feb. 1683/4, and was in 1687 (about three years after his death) styled, in error, "Baronet."^(a) He m. at St. Werburgh's aforesaid, 18 Jan. 1662/3 (Lic. 29 Dec. 1662) Mary, niece of Sir Maurice EUSTACE, Lord Chancellor [I.], da. of William EUSTACE, of Blackrath, co. Kildare, by Anne, da. of James NETTERVILLE, of Castletown Kilpatrick, co. Meath. She d. 3 Jan. 1678/9, and was bur. at Kilcullen, co. Kildare. Funeral entry. He d. 19 and was bur. there 22 July 1684. Funeral entry. Will dat. 13 March 1683/4, pr. [I.] 16 Aug. 1684.

ROBERT DIXON, of Colverstown aforesaid, only s. and h., b. 1674, being 10 years old when he suc. his father 19 July 1684, and being in an inquisition at Kilmainham, 13 Oct. 1687, styled, in error, "Baronet."^(a) This title, however, he never assumed. He was M.P. [I.] for Randalstown, 1692-93, and for Harristown, 1703-13, being Sheriff of co. Kildare 1709. He d. unm. in Jervis street, Dublin,^(b) and was bur. (as "Colonel Dixon") at Kilcullen, 9 March 1725/6. Funeral entry.

(^a) No such Baronetcy as this ever existed or even was ever claimed or assumed. Its suggested existence is founded solely on error as below. "A Jury of good and lawful men of the county of Dublin on an inquisition at Kilmainham, 13 Oct. 1687, found upon their oaths that William Dixon, Baronet, was seized of the town and lands of Barrettstown, and died 25 Jan. 1665; that Richard Dixon, Baronet, was his son and heir, and died 19 July 1684, and that Robert Dixon, Baronet, was his son and heir. Now none of these persons were Baronets. Possibly from three Dixons, in succession, being Knights, the Jurors may have imagined they possessed an hereditary title. Yet this seems strange, as an interval of 17 years elapsed between the death of Sir William Dixon and the Knighting of his son, Sir Richard, who enjoyed his title only five months. Sir Richard's son, Robert, was never known as Sir. The inquisition is in print (Inquisitionum Cancellariæ Hiberniæ Repertorium, vol. i). I have examined the original, and there is no doubt about the description of Baronet." [G. D. Burtchaell (see p. 196, note "a") by whom also the pedigree of the Dixon family is kindly supplied.

(^b) He had six sisters and coheirs, viz —(1) Mary; (2) Margaret, who m. (Lic. 17 Dec. 1681) Robert Johnson, a Baron of the Exchequer [I.] 1703-13, and had issue; (3) Charity, m. John O'Neill, of Shane's Castle, co. Antrim, and had issue; (4) Anne; (5) Elizabeth, m. Sir Kildare Borrowes, 3d Baronet [I. 1646]; (6) Catherine.

SIR STANDISH HARTSTONGE, Baronet [I. 1681], of Bruff aforesaid, grandson and h., being s. and h. of Francis HARTSTONGE, by his 1st wife, Mary, da. and coheir of Richard BRETTRIDGE, of Castle Brettridge, co. Cork, which Francis (who was b. 1651, and entered Trin. Coll., Dublin, 1668), was s. and h. ap. of the late Baronet, but d. v.p. between 29 May 1683 and 9 Nov. 1688.^(c) He was b. about 1673, and "did in his grandfather's time behave himself disobediently,"^(d) but suc. to the Baronetcy on his death. He was M.P. [I.] for Kilmallock, 1695-99; for Ratoath, 1703-13; and for St. Canice, 1713-14, and 1715-27. He m. in or before 1689 (—), da. of (—) PRICE? He d. "at a very advanced age," 20 July 1751, and was bur. at St. Anne's, Dublin. Will dat. 24 April 1748, pr. [I.] 8 Aug. 1751.

III. 1751, SIR HENRY HARTSTONGE, Baronet [I. 1681], of Bruff to aforesaid, grandson and h., being s. and h. of Price HARTSTONGE, 1797. M.P. [I.] for Charleville, 1727, till his death, by Alice, da. and h. of Henry WIDENHAM, of Court, co. Limerick, which Price, who was s. and h. ap. of the late Baronet, d. v.p. 3 Feb. 1743/4, aged 54, and was bur. at St. Anne's, Dublin. He was b. probably about 1725; suc. to the Baronetcy, 20 July 1751; was M.P. [I.] for co. Limerick, 1783-89. He m. 23 Dec. 1751, Lucy, sister of Edmond Sexton (PERY), Viscount PERY of NEWTOWN PERY (many years Speaker of the Irish House of Commons), 5th da. of the Rev. Stackpole PERY, of Stackpole Court, co. Clare, by Jane, da. of the Rev. William TWIGGE, Archdeacon of Limerick. She d. 20 March 1793. He d. s.p. in 1797, when the Baronetcy became extinct.^(e) Will dat. 2 June 1796, pr. [I.] 28 March 1797.

(a) By patent at Dublin 16 Feb., 5 William and Mary [1692/3], "Sir Henry Echlin, Baronet," was made Baron of the Exchequer [I.], vice "Hartstonge deceased." [C. J. Smyth's Law Officers of Ireland]. The word "deceased" is, however, undoubtedly a mistake. Luttrell, in his Diary, under 1 June 1695, writes that "the Lord Chief Justice Reynolds and Baron Hartstonge are displaced, Sir Richard Pine succeeds the former, and Mr. Donnelland the latter."

(b) At that date his grandson and future successor was returned to Parl. as "Esq." Another Standish Hartstonge, viz., the 2d s. of the 1st Baronet, was also M.P. in the same Parl., and as, on 25 Aug. 1697, "Mr. Hartstonge" appears as a Teller in the Commons Journal without any distinction (as "Senr" or "Junior") the inference is that there was then but one Mr. Hartstonge in the house, and that the other had become "Sir." It seems not improbable that the first Baronet d. at Hereford, as he is described thereof in the entry of his son Gwynne Hartstonge to the Middle Temple in 1699.

(c) The respective dates of the making and proving of his will.

(d) Will of his uncle Standish Hartstonge, Recorder of Kilkenny, dat. 9 June 1704, who accordingly leaves him nothing.

(e) C. M. Tenison writes (from Hobart, Tasmania): "I have heard that a man named Hartstonge, who was a small jeweller and silversmith in Dublin, in the early part of the nineteenth century, was supposed to have a claim to this Baronetcy."

"SIR WILLIAM FRANCKLIN, Baronet [I. ?] of Belfast," is said to have been attainted by James II^(a) [probably by the Irish Parl. in 1689], and, if rightly described, must presumably have possessed a Baronetcy created before the reign of that King. Nothing further is known of him.

O'SHAUGNESSY, or SHAGNESSY:

1686? to 1690.

"SIR ROGER O'SHAGNESSY, of Gortinhegouragh, co. Galway," is described as "Baronet" in Archdall's edit. of Lodge's Irish Peerage [1789, vol. ii, p. 35] in the account of Connor (O'BRIEN), 2d VISCOUNT CLARE [I.], whose da., Ellen, he married. This description of him is, however, a mistake, for (though his father, grandfather and great great grandfather were Knights) he (himself) was neither Knight nor Baronet. He fought as Capt. in "Clare's Dragoons" (the regiment of his said father-in-law), for the cause of James II, at the battle of the Boyne, 1 July 1690, and d. ten days afterwards at his castle of Gort, and was attainted as an "Esquire" (only) in 1697, his estates being granted to Thomas Prendergast, who was cr. a Baronet [I.] by William III.

^(a) According to the assumption of that dignity.

^(b) In a pedigree furnished by C. M. Tenison he is made grandson and heir, viz., s. and h. of Richard Trant, stated to have been 1st s. and h. ap. of the grantee. The 1st Baronet had a br. Richard, who was Governor of Barbadoes, and who left a son, James, and a da., Margaret, wife of Richard (Lambart), 4th Earl of Cavan [I.].

^(c) Top. and Gen., vol. iii, p. 41, and Luttrell's Diary. His antagonist was "one Mr. Weedon" (with whom he had "quarrelled at play"), who escaped.

CHAMBERS.

1686? or, not improbably 1663, to 1694.

"SIR RICHARD CHAMBERS, Baronet" [Qy. I.] is referred to as "deceased" in an inquisition^(a) taken at Dublin, 31 Oct. 1694, on his widow, "Donna Mariana CHAMBERS," a foreigner born at Xeres in Spain and never naturalised. The mention of his interest in the estate of "the late Earl of Limerick" makes it probable that (like that Earl) he was an adherent of and obtained his title from James II,^(b) but it is not improbable that it was given in 1663, and that he is the person indicated, 24 Oct. 1663, in the warrant for creating [—] CHAMBERS, a Baronet. [Calendar of State Papers. Entry Book, 15.]

DOWDALL :

1688 ?^(b) to 1691 ;assumed till 1742.

I. 1688 ? SIR LUKE DOWDALL, of Athlumney, co. Meath, Knight, s. and h. of Lawrence DOWDALL, of the same, Sheriff of that county 1641 (admon. [I.] 18 April 1660), by Joan, da. of Luke (PLUNKETT), 1st EARL OF FINGALL, was Knighted about 1665, and is said^(c) to have been cr. a Baronet [I.]
by James II, probably about 1688 or 1689,^(b) and though no patent or Privy Seal exists, was described as a Baronet in the act of attainder,^(c) 6 April 1691.

^(a) The estates devolved on his nephew, Charles Pocklington, only s. of his sister Elizabeth (m. 29 Sep. 1722), by Admiral Christopher Pocklington. He accordingly took the name of Domville only, and d. April 1810, leaving a son and h., who was cr. a Baronet, 22 May 1815.

^(b) The grantee "is described as Baronet in a grant (as printed) under the Act of Settlement, 27 June 1677, but in a subsequent grant, 22 July 1678, as a Knight. He also appears as a Knight (only) in Chancery Bill, 14 May 1687.
The first description as Baronet is clearly an error. Betham says he was made a Baronet by James II, so I think he should appear as a creation of his under 1688 or 1689. The title was fully acknowledged, as he was attainted as a Baronet, 6 April 1691, and he is so described in the petition of his widow to the trustees of Forfeited estates." [G. D. Burtchaell].

Nunc. will of same date, pr [I.] 17 Feb. 1689/90. He was attainted for high treason (about a year after his death), 6 April 1691, whereby the Baronetcy was forfeited. His widow petitioned the trustees of forfeited estates.

- II. 1689, SIR LAURENCE DOWDALL, Baronet [I. 1688?], 1st s. to and h., suc. to the Baronetcy, 31 Aug. 1689, which, however, by 1691. the above recited attsinder, became forfeited 6 April 1691. He
d. under age and unm. before 22 July 1700.

The title was, however, assumed, notwithstanding the attainder, as under :—

- III. 1700? SIR DANIEL DOWDALL, Baronet [I. 1688?],^(b) br.

EDGORTH :

alleged to have been cr. by William III ;assumed from about 1800 to 1818.

ESSEX WHYTE EDGORTH, of Pallasnore, co. Longford, living at Bath, 18 Feb. 1809, styled himself a Baronet,^(b) on the ground that his great [should, however, be "great-great"] grandfather, Sir John EDGORTH, Capt. of the Guards in Ireland to Charles II, (who was Knighted at Whitehall 21 July 1672) had been cr. a Baronet [I.] by William III. This Sir John (whose will dat. 15 Feb. 1692/3, was pr. [I.] in 1727), he states to have d. soon after the battle (1 July 1690) of the Boyne. There is, however, no trace of his having ever been cr. a Baronet, and, even if he had been, his eldest son Francis EDGORTH, of Edgorth's Town, co. Longford (who d. 1722), and his 2d son, Robert EDGORTH, of Longwood, co. Meath (who d. 1730), both left male issue, who would be entitled to that dignity in preference to the issue of the 3d son, Henry EDGORTH, of Lisard, co. Longford (who d. 1725), of whom the claimant, through a 2d son (the elder son Henry EDGORTH, of Lisard, having also left male issue), was great grandson. Essex EDGORTH, of Pallasnore, co. Longford, 2d son of the said Henry, d. Oct.

(a) During the interregnum, 12 Dec. 1688 to 12 Feb. 1688/9, no creations were made.

(b) Sir Arthur Vicars, Ulster, kindly supplies from "the Betham correspondence," now in his possession, the following letter, endorsed "Essex Edgorth, Esq., soi disant Baronet":—

"Bath, 18th Febr., 1809.

"Sir,—I received your letter informing me you are about publishing a History of the Irish Baronets, and that you cannot find any traces of my family, which I suppose must be owing to some neglect in the Irish Registry or perhaps on account of the title lying so long dormant, since the death of Sir John Edgorth, my great grandfather, which happened soon after the Battle of the Boyne. He received that honor from King William, for his distinguished services, and at the same time was honored with the Command of the 18th Regiment or Royal Irish, as you may see by referring to the succession of Colonels in the Army List. The deeds and grants (sic) made to him by King William of the different lands in the Counties of Longford, Leitrim and Cavan give me a right to the title as well as the estates I now hold under said deeds, as already appeared on the documents being laid before Council previous to my being presented in December 1796, as may be seen in the Gazette and newspapers. When I go to Ireland shall be happy to give you any further information in my power, and have "The honor to be, Sir, your hble. servant,

"E. W. Edgorth."

Among the same correspondence is a letter, dated 16 March 1809, from "C. L. T." (the Hon. Charles Ludlow Tonson, an accomplished Genealogist) in which the writer states "The assumption of the Baronetage in [the cases of] Crofton and Giffard is not so extraordinary as in [those of] Sheridan and Edgworth, and it is possible that it might have been assumed under a mistaken impression of right, but in the latter instances there must have been wilful imposture in the assumer."

1764, being suc. by his son Francis Whyte EDGORTH, who m. in May 1768, Susanna, da. of the Rev. Richard HANDCOCK, Dean of Achonry, and d. in or shortly before 1799 (never having styled himself a Baronet), leaving seven sons, of whom the said Essex Whyte EDGORTH, who styled himself "Baronet" (as abovementioned) was the eldest. His will dat. 30 June 1807, was proved as that of a Baronet, 27 July 1810, but after his death nothing more is known of this assumption.

MEADE :

cr. 29 May 1703 ;

I. 1703. "SIR JOHN MEADE, Knt., of Ballintobera, co. Cork," 1st s. and h. of Lt.-Col. William MEADE, of Ballintubber, co. Cork, a freeman (29 May 1660) of that city, by Elizabeth, da. of Sir Robert TRAVERS, is called "a poor thieving cottager under Mr. Moore, condemned to be hanged for stealing cows." It is there observed that the name is "plentiful amongst the lower orders" in co. Tipperary. The 1st Baronet in his will, dat. 15 Sep. 1705, leaves an annuity of £14 to his father, which seems to indicate that the family was in a somewhat humble position.

X. 1856. SIR RALPH HAWTREY COX, Baronet [I. 1706], of Borrisokane, co. Tipperary, nephew and h. male, being 1st s. and h. of the Rev. Richard Cox, Rector of Cahirculish, co. Limerick, by Sarah, da. of the Rev. Ralph HAWTREY, which Richard (b. 20 Sep. 1771, and d. 1834), was next yr. br. of the late Baronet. XII. 1872, SIR FRANCIS HAWTREY COX, Baronet [I. 1706], br. and June, h., b. about 1816; suc. to the Baronetcy, 15 June 1872,^(b) He m. to 6 March 1853, Emma Catherine, yst da. of Duncan McKELLAR. 1873. He d. s.p., 17 Oct. 1873, at Brecart Lodge, co. Antrim, aged 57, when the Baronetcy became extinct.^(c) His widow m., 26 Feb. 1876, at Trinity Church, Clapham, Surrey, Rev. The Baronetcy was assumed by two parties, as below.

XIII. 1873. SIR EDMUND COX, Baronet [I. 1706],^(d) of Endiang Kingsey, in the Dominion of Canada, retired Col. in the Canadian service, and formerly Capt. in the 87th (Royal Irish Fusiliers) Regt. (having served in the first Burmese War), assumed the Baronetcy 17 Aug. 1876, stating that it had devolved on him, on the death, without issue, in 1873, of "Sir William Saurin Cox,"^(e) as "being in direct descent

(a) The estate of Castletown devolved on his nephew, H. J. R. Villiers-Stuart, s. and h. of his sister Catherine (m. 1833), by Lieut. Col. William Villiers-Stuart (d. 1873), 2d s. of Lord Henry Stuart, 5th s. of the 1st Marquess of Bute.

(b) Of these twelve Baronets, only two (viz., the 2d Baronet in 1766, and the 3d Baronet in 1772) were succeeded by a son, and in no case was any one of them succeeded by the eldest son.

(c) The 12th Baronet had a br. [but query if not older than himself] William Saurin Cox, who m. Mary, da. of Major Miller, of co. Derry, and d. s.p.s., apparently in the lifetime of the eldest br., the 10th Baronet. He, however, is sometimes said to have suc. to the Baronetcy on the death of the said 12th Baronet, 17 Oct. 1873, and to have d. s.p. within three months of such succession.

(d) According to the assumption in 1873 of that dignity.

from William, the youngest son of Sir Richard Cox, who was cr. a Baronet [I.] in 1706.^(a) He was 2d s.^(b) of William Nicholas Cox, Col. R.A., by Jane, da. of James WALKER, of Quebec, which William (who d. 1811, aged 46, at the Cape of Good Hope) was 1st s. of Nicholas Cox, Major in the army (bur. 11 Jan 1794 at Quebec), who was only s. of William Cox (by Frances, da. of Richard WINSLOW), which William is alleged to have been yst. s. of the grantee.^(c) He, who was b. 1797, was (besides his military appointments abovenamed) sometime Registrar of co. Drummond, in Canada. He m. in 1832, his cousin, Anne Eleanor Mary, da. of Col. Edmund FAUNCE, by Brydges, da. of Major Nicholas Cox, abovenamed. He d. s.p.m.s., 26 Aug. 1877, at Endiang Kingsey aforesaid, aged 80.

XIV. 1877. SIR GEORGE WILLIAM COX, Baronet [I. 1706].^(d) nephew and h. male, being 1st s. and h. of George Hamilton Cox, Capt. in the Bengal Native Infantry, by Eliza Kearston, da. of John HORNE, of St. Vincent, a West Indian planter, which George (b. in Newfoundland 1800, and d. in India 1841), was next hr. to the late Baronet.^(e) He was b. at Benares, East India, in 1827; ed. at Rugby; matric. at Oxford (Trin. Coll.), 19 May 1845, aged 18; S.C.L. and 2d Class Classics, 1849; B.A. and M.A., 1859; in Holy Orders; sometime (1860-61) one of the Masters at Cheltenham College; suc. to the Baronetcy,^(d) 26 Aug. 1877; Rector of Scrayingham, co. York, 1881-97, being presented thereto, "under the title of Baronet," by Queen Victoria "under the great seal in the Court of Chancery."^(e) He m. 1850, Emily Maria, da. of Lt.-Col. William STIRLING, of the 17th Bombay infantry. She d. 1898. He d. 9 Feb. 1902, aged 75, at Ivy House, Walmer, the residence of Dr. Sidney Hulke.^(f)

(a) The following is a copy of an advertisement inserted in The Times for 27 Sep. 1876 (page 1, column 2):—"I, Edmund Cox, of Endiang, Kingsey, in the Dominion of Canada, retired Colonel in the Canadian Militia and formerly Captain in the 87th Regiment (Royal Irish Fusileers), hereby give notice that being in direct descent from William, the youngest son of Sir Richard Cox, Lord Chancellor of Ireland, who was created a Baronet in 1706, I have ASSUMED the TITLE which devolved upon me by the death, without issue, of Sir William Saurin Cox in the year 1873 and that I shall henceforth be known as SIR EDMUND COX, BART. [Signed] Ed. Cox. Augnst 17th, 1876."

(b) His elder br., William Cox, d. unm., being drowned in the St. Laurence river 1816, aged 21.

(c) Sir Richard Cox in his autobiography (see p. 237, note "c") writes, under Aug. 1706, "I paid £40 to bind William Cox apprentice to Mr. Minchen, Chyrurgeon." There is, however, nothing to shew that this William was his child, indeed the natural inference would be that he was not. He had a son William, b. 1686, who d. Aug. 1693, and it is conjectured that another William (i.e. the apprentice) was b. subsequently in that same year, but as a son Robert was b. 30 Dec. 1692, the birth could hardly have been till after Oct. 1693, making the child but twelve at the date of the apprenticeship. Moreover, the William Cox, who was ancestor to "Sir Edmund," m. Frances Winslow (whose grandmother was a Downing), and is described in a pedigree of the Downing family, as "William Cox, Rector," at the time of his marriage, whereas William, the apprentice, would presumably have become a surgeon, and anyhow there is no identity between them.

(e) "Copy of Declaration of Sir George W. Cox, Baronet," made at York, 9 Oct. 1888 (pp. 14, 4to.), printed circa 1889.

(f) He was author of various educational works, as also of the "Life of Bishop Colenso of Natal," and is said to have been himself nominated, in 1886, Bishop of Natal, such election, however, not being confirmed by the Crown.

XV. 1902. SIR EDMUND CHARLES Cox, Baronet [I. 1706],^(a)
 2d but 1st surv. s. and h., b. 1856; ed. at Marlborough School and at Trin. Coll., Cambridge; Assistant Inspector General of Police at Bombay; suc. to the Baronetcy,^(a) 9 Feb. 1902. He m. in 1891, Ella Marion, da. of George William BORRADALE, C.B., Col. in the Royal Artillery, by (—), da. of Surgeon Gen. Charles Doyle STRAKER.

The second of the two parties who assumed the Baronetcy in 1873, was as under.

XIII. bis, 1873. SIR JOHN HAMILTON Cox, Baronet [I. 1706],^(a) Major-Gen. in the Gordon Highlanders and C.B. (having served with distinction in the Indian Mutiny), assumed the Baronetcy on the death, 17 Oct. 1873, of his maternal cousin, the 12th Baronet, as the heir male of the body of the grantee. He was s. and h. of William Cox, General in the Rifle Brigade and 1st Royal Dragoons, K.H., by his 1st wife, Catherine (sister of Sarah, mother of the 10th, 11th and 12th Baronets), da. of the Rev. Ralph HAWTREY, which William (b. 16 March 1790, and d. 1857), was s. of John Cox. of Carrick on Suir (by Mary, da. of [—] RIX, of Kilkenny), which John (b. 1724, d. 25 June 1795), was stated (no parentage being named) to have been a nephew of Archbishop Cox, and, consequently, a grandson of the 1st Baronet.^(b) He was b.
 30 Aug. 1817. He m. 1860, Mary Hall, 2d da. of John ANDREWS, of Rathenny park, King's County, by Elizabeth, da. of Robert HALL, of Merton Hall, co. Tipperary. He d. 10 March 1887, at 37 Sterndale road, West Kensington, and was bur. at Cheltenham, in his 70th year.

XIV. bis, 1887. SIR JOHN HAWTREY REGINALD Cox, Baronet
 [I. 1706],^(a) 1st s. and h., b. 23 April 1861; ed. at Dulwich;
 Capt. 6th Inniskilling Dragoons, and Major in the Antrim Artillery; served in Zululand, 1884 and 1888, and in the Bechuanaland Expedition, 1884-85;
suc. to the Baronetcy,^(a) 10 March 1887. He m. 14 July 1902, at St. Paul's, Knightsbridge, Margaret Rodger, yst. da. of George THOMSON, of Dalling Mohr, co. Argyll, and of Glasgow.

(*) See p. 239, note "d."

(b) The affiliation of this John was, subsequently, attributed to the Archbishop himself, of whom he was conjectured to be a son by his 1st wife, Anne, da. of Toby Purcell, though b. (1725) twelve years after their marriage, 22 May 1712. In that case, however, William, s. and h. of the said John, ought to have
suc. to the Baronetcy 28 Jan. 1838, in lieu of the 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th Baronets, whose right thereto was never disputed by the said Gen. William Cox, or by his son, who only assumed it after the death of the 12th Baronet in 1873. The will of this John Cox, dat. 7 March 1795, was pr. 14 Aug.
 following by Michael Cox, of Castletown (b. 1768), called by testator his "trusty friend," to whom he (if a son of the Archbishop by his 1st wife) would have been uncle of the half blood and between forty and fifty years his senior.
 The date of the birth of this John (1724) makes it impossible for him to be a grandson of the Archbishop, who was b. in 1691, and did not marry till 1712.

It is stated that she, who is called a West Indian heiress, married in London about 1826 (before 1829), and was living 1839. Of this marriage the said James Gilmour, born 29 Jan. 1840, who was placed under that name in the Glasgow hospital, alleges himself to be the surviving son and heir, and consequently entitled, on his father's death, to the Baronetcy. The date of the death of his father (said to have been aged about 18 on the death of his father in 1825), is, however, never given. It will be noticed that the 6th Baronet, whom he claims as his father, married [as stated in the text] some ten years previously (16 Sep. 1819) Eliza Mary Farquhar, by whom he had a son (born in 1826) who did (de facto) succeed to the Baronetcy in 1836. This difficulty is, however, disposed of by saying that Miss Farquhar's husband, though (by means of foreclosing the mortgage of £25,000 made by the 5th Baronet to her father, Robert Farquhar) he obtained possession of the Greenock estates, was not, in reality, the son of the 5th Baronet but assumed the Baronetcy, which rightfully belonged to James Gilmour's father, like whom (who, it is stated, was such son), he styled himself "SIR MICHAEL SHAW STEWART, [6th] Baronet," so that from and after 1825 till the death of one of the said parties, there were two contemporary persons thus designated. The marriage with Miss Murdoch is there stated to be mentioned in Lodge's Peerage for 1834, as also in Oliver and Boyd's Almanack for 1837.

(b) See N. & Q., 3d S., x, p. 64, where (inter alia) it is stated that the warrant was dated at Whitehall on the last of Feb. 1668, inferring that the creation was not recorded on the Great Seal Register [S.], but in Milne's List there is no mark to denote that it had not been so registered.

(c) See N. & Q., 3d S., x., pp. 81-83, for very full particulars as to this unhappy marriage, and of the two comedies (The Coquette and In Foro) of which she was the author. In Jones's Biographia Dramatica she is [erroneously] said to have died 30 July 1780. At that date there certainly does occur the death, at Bath, of "Hon. II. 1694? SIR ROBERT BARCLAY, Baronet [S. 1666], of Pierston

 "Dame Martha [sic] BAIRD, relict of Sir Robert BARCLAY, of Pierston," was bur.
 21 Jan. 1731, in the High churchyard, Glasgow.

(a) In Douglas' Baronage [S.] it is stated that "the Baronetship went to his cousin and heir male, Sir Alexander Bruce (second son of [his paternal uncle, Thomas Bruce] the 4th Baron of Blairhall), who, dying unmarried, these honours became extinct." There is, however, nothing to support this statement, and the entail of all his lands by the 1st Baronet on his daughter's children (failing those of his son) seems against it. If, however, it be correct, one must suppose that the patent was to heirs male whatsoever, in which case the title would not be extinct, the male descendants of the grantee's great grandfather (Sir Edward Bruce, of Blairhall) represented by the Earl of Elgin [S.] being numerous.

(b) Masterton papers [Scottish History Society Miscellany, pp. 473, 483, 484].

The entry runs thus: "William, 1st son, b. 22 May 1748, and bap. the same day at St. John's, Westm., d. unm. in the East Indies, aged 21." If, however, he was born 1748 and was aged twenty-one when he died, he must have been entitled to the Baronetcy for thirteen years.

I. 1670. "SIR THOMAS WALLACE, of Craigie," otherwise Craigie-Wallace, as also of Newton, both in co. Ayr, 1st s. of William WALLACE, of Failford, in that county, by Agnes, da. of Sir Thomas BOYD, of ^(a) Playfair's Baronetage, 1811.

^(b) 1839, Jan. 18. Died "in Montagu place, at the residence of her daughter, the Countess of Montara, Lady Nisbett, relict of Sir J. Nisbett, Bart." [Annual Reg. 1839].

William WALLACE, Minister of Failford (a yr. br. of Sir John WALLACE, of Craigie Wallace aforesaid), was admitted an Advocate, 4 July 1661, and having suc. to the estate of Craigie-Wallace, by the death of his 2d cousin, Sir Hugh WALLACE,^(a) of the same (grandson of Sir John WALLACE abovenamed), was Knighted before 1665; was M.P. [S.] for Ayrshire, 1665 and 1667, and was cr. a Baronet, as above, 8 March 1669/70, with rem. to heirs male of the body, the patent stating that the said Sir Hugh had "disponed his estates and the title of Knight Baronet to him."^(b) He was appointed a Senator of the Court of Justice, 28 June 1671, and Lord Justice Clerk, 9 July 1675. In 1678 he bought the estate of Ellerslie, co. Renfrew, and settled it on his 2d son, Thomas. He m., probably about 1660, Eupheme, da. and h. of William GEMMELL, of Templeland and Garrive, co. II. 1680. SIR WILLIAM WALLACE, Baronet [S. 1670], of Craigie

Wallace aforesaid, 1st s. and h., suc. to the Baronetcy, 26 March, and was served, 27 Aug. 1680, heir to very extensive estates united with the Barony of Craigie. He was Col. of Horse (under "Claverhouse") at Killiecrankie; served in Ireland in 1690, and was in France 1695. He m. firstly, in 1682, Eupheme (tocher 20,000 merks), da. of William FULLARTON, of Fullarton, co. Ayr. She d. s.p. He m. secondly, Jean, da. of William MENZIES, of Pitfodells, co. Kincardine. WALLACE, 31 Jan. 1737, and heir gen. to his grandfather, 8 Nov. 1743. He m. in 1725, Eleanor, sister and h. (Feb. 1736) of Thomas AGNEW, of Lochryan, co. Wigtoun, da. of Col. AGNEW, of the same. She d. 19 and was bur. 21 Aug. 1761, in Glasgow Cathedral, aged 55. He d. s.p.m.s.^(d) 18 Aug. 1770, in his 69th year, when the Baronetcy became extinct.

(a) This Sir Hugh Wallace is often considered to have been himself a Baronet [S.], and is said [Playfair's Baronetage] to have been so cr. in 1669, though there is no record of such creation and, apparently, no recognition of it, save as in the allusion in note "b" below. He m. Esther, da. of [—] Ker, of Littleden, and had one son, Hugh, who was "fatuns," and who d. unm. and probably v.p.

(b) Milne (in his List) observes, "He seems to have a former patent disponed to him by the last Sir Hewgh Wallace, which is ratyfyed 8 March 1670, bot maketh him not to take place conforme to date of the said patent."

(c) Of his two daughters and coheirs, (1) Margaret, d. unm. at Niddrie, 19 March 1712, and (2) Jane, m. 20 April 1710, James Wauchope, Merchant of Edinburgh, and d. 5 Dec. 1715, leaving issue (the Wauchope family of Niddrie), among whom (and not among the issue of his younger brother, the 3rd Baronet), the heir general of the Baronetcy is to be found.

(d) His only son, a Capt. in the Guards, d. unm. and v.p. 9 Oct. 1755, aged 26.

The Baronetcy was, however, assumed as below.

V. 1771. SIR THOMAS DUNLOP-WALLACE, Baronet [S. 1670],^(a) of Craigie and Lochryan aforesaid, grandson and heir of line to the 3d (but not to the 1st or 2d) Baronet, being s. and h. of John DUNLOP, of Dunlop, by Frances Anne, (b. 16 April 1730), da. and h. of the late Baronet. He was served, 22 Feb. 1771, heir of provision general to his said maternal grandfather, the 3d Baronet, when he (unwarrantably) assumed the Baronetcy, and obtained a royal warrant, 23 July 1773, for supporters under the name of "SIR THOMAS WALLACE, of Craigie, Baronet." This, however, was cancelled on the explanation of Lyon King of Arms that "Mr. Dunlop" had no right to the title of Baronet, which title, however, he continued to use. His affairs having fallen into disorder, he sold, in 1776, the estate of Failford, and, in 1784, the ancestral estate of Craigie. From 1800 to 1814 he was one of the Englishmen detained as prisoners in France. He m. firstly, in Sep. 1772, Eglantine, da. of William MAXWELL, 3d Baronet [S. 1661], of Monreith, by Magdalen, d. of William BLAIR, of Blair. She, however, was divorced.^(b) He m. secondly, 1783, in London, Elizabeth BRUNSDON, a native of Scotland. Her he deserted, and she brought an action of divorce against him in 1789, in Scotland, which was dismissed on final appeal for want of jurisdiction. He d. 1835.^(c)

VI. 1835. SIR JOHN ALEXANDER DUNLOP-AGNEW-WALLACE, Baronet [S. 1670],^(a) of Lochryan aforesaid, K.C.B. [1833], only s. and h. by 1st wife, b. 1774; entered the Army, 1787, becoming eventually Lieut. Gen. in 1837, and General, 11 Nov. 1851; served against Tippoo-Sahib, 1791-92, and at the siege of Seringapatam, was at the capture of Minorca, 15 Nov. 1798; in the Egyptian Campaign, 1801, and in the Peninsular War (at Busaco, 1810, where he distinguished himself, Fuentes de Onoro and Salamanca), 1809-12, and was in command of a Brigade in the Army of Occupation of France, 1815; C.B., 4 June 1815; was Col. of the 88th Foot, 1831 till death in 1857; K.C.B., 16 Sep. 1833, and suc. to the Baronetcy^(a) soon afterwards, 1835. He m., in or before 1830, Janet, da. of William RODGER, of Glasgow, Timber Merchant. He d. 10 Feb. 1857, aged 83, at Lochryan House. His widow d. there 16 Aug. 1862, aged 99.

VII. 1857, SIR WILLIAM THOMAS FRANCIS AGNEW DUNLOP-to AGNEW-WALLACE, Baronet [S. 1670],^(a) of Lochryan afore-1892. said, 1st s. and h., b. 27 May 1830; entered the Army, becoming finally Lieut. Col. Grenadier Guards in 1859, but retiring in 1860. He suc. to the Baronetcy,^(a) 10 Feb. 1857. He d. n.m. in London, 28 Jan. 1892, aged 61, when the assumption of this Baronetcy ceased.^(d)

(a) According to the assumption of the Baronetcy in and after 1771.

(b) She, who, notwithstanding, continued to style herself "Lady Wallace," was a person of talent though of great eccentricity, as was her sister Jane, Duchess of Gordon [S.]. She was arrested in Paris in 1789; was knocked down and bruised at Margate in 1794, being taken for a person of bad character. She (or, perhaps, her successor) is possibly "The Dowager Lady Wallace, relict [sic] of Sir Thomas, Bart.," who died 17 Oct. 1791. At all events her will was pr. in 1803.

(c) This date of death is given in various accounts of his son.

(d) His nephew and h., John Alexander Dunlop-Agnew-Wallace decided not to continue the assumption of the title.

He (being then styled "Knight and Baronet") was M.P. [S.] for Kincardineshire, 1678.

II. 1700? SIR ALEXANDER FALCONER, Baronet [S. 1670], of Glenfarquhar aforesaid, only s. and h., suc. to the Baronetcy on the death of his father. The designation of "younger," however, if it exists in the original, seems somewhat to imply that the Baronetcy was granted to the Alexander here made the 2d Baronet in his father's lifetime, and not to Alexander Falconer, the father. The grantee's cousin, however, Alexander Falconer, afterwards (1 Oct. 1671), 2d Lord Falconer, of Halkertoun [S.], may have been the "Senior," to whom the grantee was "Junior."

^(c) On this same date, according to Wood's Douglas Peerage of Scotland [vol. ii, p. 72], the Hon. Charles Maitland, of Hatton [i.e., Halcoun], co. Edinburgh, yst s. of the 1st Earl of Lauderdale [S.], is said to have been cr. a Baronet [S.]. This, however, seems to be a confusion with the creation as in the text, the grantee of which was, however, no near relative of this Charles. This Charles succeeded, 24 Aug. 1682, as (3d) Earl of Lauderdale [S.], and had four sons, of whom John Maitland, the 2d son, was cr. a Baronet [S.] 18 Nov. 1680 (a fact omitted in the said peerage), and succeeded, 18 Sep. 1734, as (5th) Earl of Lauderdale [S.], in which peerage that Baronetcy then became merged and still so continues. The Baronetcy [S.] therefore enjoyed by these Earls is apparently one of the date of 18 Nov. 1680, and not (as stated in the said peerage) one of 12 March 1671/2.

ex. 10 May 1729.

I. 1673. ALEXANDER FRASER, of Dores,^(c) co. Kincardine,^(c) only s. of Adam FRASER, by (—), da. of (—) DUFF, of Drummure, which Adam was 2d s. of Thomas FRASER, of Dores aforesaid (by Helen, da. of James GORDON, of Abergeldie), was b. about 1607; ed. at the Univ. of Aberdeen and of Leyden; M.D. of Montpellier, 1 Oct. 1635, being incorporated at Cambridge, 9 March 1637; Candidate of the Coll. of Physicians, 30 March 1640; Fellow, 23 Nov. 1641; "Elect," 26 July 1666. He was made Court Physician in Ordinary (to Charles I) in 1645,^(d) continuing as such (till death) to Charles II, both during his exile, his visit to Scotland in 1650, and afterwards at his Restoration. He was one of the Founders of the Royal Society, of which, in 1663, he was a Fellow. He re-purchased his grandfather's estate of Dores, which had been alienated by his cousin, had a Crown charter thereof in 1665, and was cr. a Baronet [S.], as above, 2 Aug. 1673, "provydit to whatsoever of his sons succeeds him in the Barony of Doores and the aires male [of his (said son's) body]."^(e)

^(a) See a good account of the family of Murray of Dollerie in The Genealogist, Orig. Series, vol. vii, pp. 15-19.

^(b) Much of the information contained in this article has been kindly supplied by James R. Anderson, of Glasgow, who possesses a copy of the sermon preached by John MENZIES (of Aberdeen), at the funeral of "Sir Alexander Fraiser, of Doores," printed at Edinburgh, 1681, in which various particulars of his career are given. Selections therefrom and other particulars relating to the Baronet are in a work called "Scotish Elegiac Verses," 1629-1729, Edinburgh 1842, 8vo.

^(c) See an account of the family of Fraser, "of the House of Dores," co. Kincardine, in Macfarlane's Genealogical Collections (vol. ii, pp. 316-331), pub. by the Scottish History Society (vol. xxxiv.) in 1900, as also in Stodart's Scottish Arms, vol. ii, p. 257.

He d. at Whitehall, in his 75th year, 28 April, and was bur. 20 July 1681, at Dores aforesaid.^(b) Will dat. 9 Oct. 1679, pr. 7 July 1681 and 12 Dec. 1720. He m., probably about 1700, Anne, sister and coheir of Henry HERON, of Cressy Hall, in Surfleet, co. Lincoln (who d. s.p.s. 10 Sep. 1730, aged 56), da. of Sir Edward HERON, K.B., by Dorothy, da. of Sir James LONG, 2d Baronet [1662], of Draycot. He d. s.p. 10 May 1729, when the

He in his father's will dat. 9 Oct. 1679, is called "eldest son," and receives £50 only, testator "having been very hountiful to him heretofore." (2) "Charles Fraser, Esq., a learned and ingenious gentleman as any in his time. He translated some of Plutarch's Lives, and was generally supposed the author of The Turkish Spy. He died unm." He is not mentioned in his father's will, but was apparently the "Charles Fraiser, M.D., ed. at Westm. School and at Trin. Coll., Cambridge, of which he was afterwards Fellow; B.A., 1670; M.A., 1674; M.D. by Royal mandate, 1678; Physician in Ord. to Charles II, and, as such, admitted Fellow of the College of Physicians, 1684. Of him Peter Le Neve, in his Memoranda, after mentioning "Lady Frazier's" burial at Fulham, 22 Dec. 1695, speaks in a subsequent addition to that note "Dr. Frazier, her son [but should be "step son"], mad 1698." She m. secondly James Graham, "Privy Purse to the late King James VII" [S.], br. to Richard, 1st Viscount Preston [S.].

(^b) He was a great favourite with the King, and was much employed in Court affairs. "Dr. Pierce" told Pepys (Diary 19 Sep. 1664) that Fraser's influence was owing to his being "so great with all the Ladies of the Court in helping them to slip their calves when there is occasion, and with the great men in curing them." In the Dict. Nat. Biogr. this Pierce is spoken of as "a groom of the Privy Chamber, who repeated "backstairs' gossip," it being there, also, stated that Sir John Denham's "attacks" on Fraser are "founded on personal enmity."

(^c) In the funeral sermon (see p. 293, note "b") it is said that the 1st Baronet, "having provided his other worthy and well deserving children of riper years, hath transmitted this old heretage of his Progenitors [i.e., the estate of Dores] with all its dignities to his hopeful son here present, who by the mother is descended of the honourable name of Caries in England. . . . This, his youngest son, he sent hither to be educated." In a pedigree of Carey, entered at the Heralds' College, in which the 1st Baronet's second marriage with Mary Carey is set out, and which is signed by himself on 1 Aug. 1677, he mentions three children by that wife, viz., "Peter Fraser, Esq., only son, 1677; Caria, 1677, (and) Catherina, 1677." As to the "exceeding fine parts" of this Sir Peter, see Macfarlane, as on p. 293, note "c."

Baronetcy became extinct.^(a) His widow, who was bap. 11 Nov. 1677, at Surfleet, and who enjoyed the estate of Dores for her life,^(b) d. at Cressy Hall, 25 Aug. 1769, in her 92d year, and was bur. at Surfleet. M.I.

CUNINGHAM:

cr. 3 Aug. 1673;

ex. in or before Aug. 1674.

- I. 1673. "ROBERT CUNINGHAM, of Auchenharvie," in the parish of Stewarton, co. Ayr, 2d s. of the Rev. John CUNINGHAM,^(c) of Raidland, in Dalry, co. Ayr, Minister of Dalry (1604), by his 2d wife, Jean, da. of Robert KERR, of Trearne, co. Ayr, fought on the King's side at the battle of Worcester; was Physician for Scotland to Charles II; had a Crown charter of Auchenharvie, 20 March 1667, ratified 1669, and, having probably been Knighted, was cr. a Baronet [S.], as above, 3 Aug. 1673, the limitation of the dignity being unknown, as no record of such creation exists in the Great Seal Register, nor is it in Milne's List. He, however, registered his arms as a Baronet, 10 Sep. 1673, in the Lyon office. He m. firstly, before 1653, Elizabeth, da. of [—] DUNDAS, by (—) BUSBY, of Addington. He m. secondly, before 1661, Elizabeth, da. of Sir John HENDERSON, of Fordell, co. Fife, by Margaret MONTEITH, heiress of Randifoord. He d. late in Feb. and was bur. 4 March 1673/4 in Greyfriars, Edinburgh.^(d)
- II. 1674, SIR ROBERT CUNINGHAM, Baronet [S. 1673], of Auchenharvie aforesaid, only s. and h. by 2d marriage; bap. 7 Aug. 1662; suc. to the Baronetcy in Feb. 1673/4. He d. s.p. a few months later, before 29 Aug. 1674, when the Baronetcy is presumed to have become extinct.^(e)

(a) Index to service of heirs. The date is usually given as 23 May. Of his two sisters of the whole blood and coheirs, (1) Carey, maid of honour to the Queen Consort Catharine, m. as his 1st wife, shortly after 1677, the well-known Charles (Mordaunt), Earl of Peterborough and Monmouth, who d. 25 Oct. 1735, aged about 77. She d. 13 and was bur. 16 May 1709, at Turvey, Beds. (2) Catharine m., after 1677, Charles Scarburgh, Clerk of the Green Cloth, and d. s.p.m.

(b) The estate of Dores, or Durris, then devolved on Charles (Mordaunt), 4th Earl of Peterborough, grandson of the 3d Earl by his 1st wife, Carey, sister of Sir Peter Fraser abovenamed. It was sold in 1826 by Alexander (Gordon), 4th Duke of Gordon [S.], who in 1819 had become heir to the Mordaunt family in right of his grandmother, Henrietta, Duchess of Gordon [S.], da. of Charles (Mordaunt), Earl of Peterborough and Monmouth, by Carey, (see note "a" above), da. of Sir Alexander Fraser, 1st Baronet [S. 1673], of Dores aforesaid.

(c) This John was s. of Robert Cuninghame, of Raidland aforesaid (living 1567), who was 3rd son of William Cuninghame, of Craighends, co. Renfrew, whose relationship to Sir David Cuninghame, 1st Baronet [S.], of Auchenharvie (so cr. 23 Dec. 1633) is unknown. See (inter alia) "General Account of Ayrshire Families," by Geo. Robertson, 1833, vol. i, p. 274.

(d) In Robert Law's Memorials [Edin. 1818, p. 62] is this note:—"Feb. 1674, the end of it, dyed Sir Robert Cuninghame, Doctor of Medicine, in a day's sickness, of an iliac passion; a worthy man and very usefull in his tyme."

(e) Anne, his only sister and h. of the whole blood, d. unm. 1677, when her uncle Robert Cuninghame, of Edinburgh, apothecary, (who was served her heir of entail), succeeded to Auchenharvie. He, however, nearly ruined himself by speculative improvements, and having m. Anne Purves, d. 10 July 1715, being suc. by his son and heir, James Cuninghame, who m. Marion, da. of (—) Fullarton, of Fullarton, and d. Dec. 1728, leaving an only s. and h., Robert Cuninghame, who d. under age and unm., in Dec. 1733. KENNEDY:

cr. 4 Aug. 1673;ex., apparently, June 1740.

I. 1673. "John Kennedy, of Girvanmains," in Girvan, co. Ayr (who appears to have been a grandson of Gilbert KENNEDY, of the same, living 1662), reg. arms in the Lyon office, 1672,^(a) and was cr. a Baronet [S.], as above, 4 Aug. 1673, with rem. to heirs male of the body; was admitted a Burgess of Ayr, 1674. On 22 Aug. 1678 he was served heir of conquest to his uncle, John KENNEDY, in the Barony of Dalwinton, co. Ayr. He, who appears to have been ruined, sold his estates to Sir Thomas KENNEDY, of Kirkhill, Provost of Edinburgh, etc., who was thence, sometimes, styled "of Girvanmains."^(b)

II. 1700? SIR GILBERT KENNEDY, Baronet [S. 1673], of Girvanto mains aforesaid [Qy. his relationship to the above?]; presumably 1740. suc. to the Baronetcy. He was Falconer to the King in Scotland at a salary of £50. He m. Jean, da. of Sir Archibald KENNEDY, 1st Baronet [S. 1682], of Culzean, by Elizabeth, da. of David (LESLIE), 1st Lord
NEWARK [S.]. He d. June 1740, when the Baronetcy became apparently extinct.

MACKENZIE:

cr. 16 Oct. 1673;^(c)forfeited 13 Nov. 1715;but assumed since about 1720.

I. 1673. KENNETH^(d) MACKENZIE, of Coul, in the parish of Contin, co. Ross, 2d s. of Alexander MACKENZIE, of Coul aforesaid, being 1st s. by 2d wife^(e) Christian (m. in or before 1617), da. of Hector MONRO, of Assynt, which Alexander (who d. 1650, at a great age) was illegit. s. of Colin MACKENZIE, of Kintail,^(f) by Mary (sometimes called his 2d wife), da. of Roderick MACKENZIE, of Davochmaluach, was b. probably about 1620; suc. to the estate of Coul on the death of his father, and was cr. a Baronet [S.], as above, 16 Oct. 1673, with rem. to the heirs male of his body, such creation however, not being recorded in the Great Seal Register. He was Sheriff of the united counties of Ross and Inverness. He m. firstly, Jean, 1st da. of Alexander CHISHOLM, of Comar. He m. secondly (—), da. of Thomas MACKENZIE, of Inverlast. He d. in or before 1681.

Baronetcy to which, if the limitation was to heirs male whatsoever, they would have been entitled, though the first one (the harbour builder) is in some notices (though never in any service) styled "Sir Robert." Auchenhavrie passed to Anne, sister of the last named Robert, who m. in 1737, John Reid, and had issue Robert Reid-Cunningham, of Auchinhavrie.

^(a) These were: "Arg. on a chevron, gu., between 3 cross-crosslets, sa., a boar's head, of the 1st; in middle chief a man's heart, of the 2nd." Now, as the boar's head, apparently, indicates the mother (GORDON) of the first Kennedy of Girvanmains, it has been suggested that the man's heart might indicate that a DOUGLAS was the mother of the grantee.

^(b) The following almost inexplicable entry may possibly refer to some member of this family:—"Sir John Ven Kennedy, Baronet, and Elizabeth Charlton, widow, both of St. Martin's in the Fields," were m. 19 Feb. 1726/7, at St. Bennet's, Paul's wharf, London.

^(c) In Beatson's List given as 1679.

^(d) The grantee is (erroneously) called "Alexander," both in Milne's and in Beatson's List.

^(e) His elder br. of the half-blood, Roderick (who d. v.p.), was ancestor of the family of Mackenzie, of Applecross.

^(f) See tabular pedigree under "Mackenzie, of Scatwell," cr. 1703.

II. 1680? SIR ALEXANDER MACKENZIE, Baronet [S. 1673], of Coul aforesaid, 1st s. and h. by 1st wife; suc. to the Baronetcy in or before 1681, when his lands were erected into a free Barony, which, in 1702, he entailed on the heirs male of his body. He was M.P. [S.] for Ross-shire, 1692 till death in 1702. He m. firstly, before 1673, Jean (b. 3 Jan. 1636, in Salisbury), 4th da. of Sir Robert GORDON, 1st Baronet [S. 1625], of Gordonstoun, by Louisa, da. and h. of John GORDON, of Glenluce, Dean of Salisbury. He m. secondly, Janet JOHNSTONE, of Warriston. He d. 1702.

III. 1702, SIR JOHN MACKENZIE, Baronet [S. 1673], of Coul aforesaid, 1st s. and h. by 1st wife, b. in or before 1673; suc. to the Baronetcy in 1702; joined in the rising of 1715, and, not having rendered himself up to justice before 30 June 1716, was attainted, under the Act, 13 Nov. 1715. He m. firstly, Margaret, da. of Hugh ROSE, of Kilravock. He m. secondly, in 1703, Helen (b. 27 Feb. 1683), 4th da. of Patrick (MURRAY), 3d Lord ELIANK [S.], by Anne, da. of Alexander BURNET, Archbishop of St. Andrew's. He d. s.p.m. soon after 1715, the Baronetcy, by his above-mentioned attainder in that year, having previously become forfeited.^(a)

The Baronetcy, notwithstanding the forfeiture,^(a) was assumed as below.

IV. 1720? SIR COLIN MACKENZIE, Baronet [S. 1673],^(b) of Coul aforesaid, br. of the whole blood and h. male; b. 1674; admitted as Advocate [S.], 8 Feb. 1701; Clerk to the Pipe in the Exchequer [S.] till death; suc. under the entail of 1702 to the family estate on the death of his brother, when he assumed the Baronetcy^(b) also. He m., June 1705, Henrietta, widow of Andrew BROWN, of Braid, da. of Sir Patrick Houstox, 1st Baronet [S. 1668], by Anne, da. of John (HAMILTON), 1st Lord BARGENY [S.]. He d. Oct. 1740, in his 67th year.

V. 1740. SIR ALEXANDER MACKENZIE, Baronet [S. 1673],^(b) of Coul aforesaid, 1st s. and h.; suc. to the Baronetcy^(b) in Oct. 1740, and had a charter under the Great Seal of the whole estate of Coul in 1743, as heir to his grandfather. He m. Janet, da. of Sir James MACDONALD, 6th Baronet [S. 1625], by his 1st wife, Janet, da. of Alexander MACLEOD, of Grishernish. He d. 1792.

^(a) In Douglas's Baronage [S.], after mentioning that the 3d Baronet "was attainted for high treason," it is added (without comment) that "he was succeeded in his estate and titles by his brother, Sir Colin Mackenzie, 4th Baronet, of Coul." In Playfair's Baronetage [S.] it is stated (apparently without any foundation) that "the Act of attainder for high treason [whereby he, together with George, Earl Marischall [S.], William, Earl of Seaforth [S.], and others, was attainted], not extending in its purview to the other branches of his family, both the estate and the title devolved to his brother, Sir Colin Mackenzie, who was 4th Baronet, of Coul." It is remarked thereon (by J. Anderson, Writer to the Signet) that "This reasoning is inconclusive. There is no resignation of the title of Baronet, so that the limitation of the Patent (Paper Register, lib. 21), 16 Oct. 1673, to Kenneth Mackenzie and the heirs male of his body fell, with the attainder of Sir John Mackenzie of Coul, in 1715, and though his brother (as heir male to Sir Alexander), under the entail of 1701, might be entitled to the estate, he could have no right to the title of Baronet, as established by the Act of Queen Anne regulating the treason laws of Scotland and England."

^(b) Presuming (though there appears to be no good reason for such presumption) that the forfeiture of 1715 became void after the death s.p.m. of the attainted Baronet.

VI. 1792. SIR ALEXANDER MACKENZIE, Baronet [S. 1673],^(a) of Coul aforesaid, 1st s. and h., was in the East India Company's service, becoming finally Major General, and being Provincial Commander in Chief at Bengal, 1790-92; suc. to the Baronetcy^(a) in 1792. He m. at Leith, 30 April 1778, Katharine, da. of Robert RAMSAY, of Camro. He d. 14 Sep. 1796.

VII. 1796. SIR GEORGE STEUART MACKENZIE, Baronet [S. 1673],^(a) of Coul aforesaid, only s. and h., b. 22 June 1780; suc. to the Baronetcy^(a) in 1796; was Ensign General in the Royal Scottish Archers; F.R.S. and Vice-President of the Royal Society of Edinburgh.^(b) He m. firstly, 8 June 1802, Mary, 5th da. of Donald MACLEOD, of Geanies, co. Ross. She d. 18 Jan. 1835. He m. secondly, 27 Oct. 1836, Catharine, widow of John STREET, Capt. R.A., 2d da. of Sir Henry JARDINE, of Harwood, aged 68. He d. Oct. 1848. His widow d. 2 Aug. 1857.

Bengal Native Infantry, 1825; was at the siege and capture of Bhurtpore, 1825-26, and at the battle of Maharajpore (where his horse was killed under him), 29 Dec. 1843; served, as Dep. Judge Gen., with the Army at Gwalior; was in the first campaign (1845-46) on the Sutlej, retiring in 1851. He, who suc. to the Baronetcy^(a) in Oct. 1848, obtained in 1855 the local rank of Major in the East Indies. He d. unm. 3 Jan. 1856, aged nearly 57, at Coul.

IX. 1856. SIR WILLIAM MACKENZIE, Baronet [S. 1673],^(a) of Coul aforesaid, br. of the full blood and h., b. 20 May 1806, at Coul; ed. at the High School and Univ. of Edinburgh; entered the Maritime Service of the East India Company in 1826, serving subsequently in the Bombay and China country Service; resided some time in New South Wales; suc. to the Baronetcy^(a) 3 Jan. 1856. He m. 16 Aug. 1858, at Dublin, Agnes, 2d da. of Ross Thompson SMYTH, of Ardmore, co. Londonderry. He d. s.p. 21 Dec. 1868, at Coul house, aged 62. His widow m. Sep. 1881, BARON DI SAN FELICE, of Naples, and was living at Rome, 1904.

X. 1868. SIR ROBERT RAMSAY MACKENZIE, Baronet [S. 1673],^(a) of Coul aforesaid, br. of the full blood and h.; b. 21 July 1811; was sometime Treasurer and Premier of the Executive Council of the Colony of Queensland; suc. to the Baronetcy^(a) 21 Dec. 1868. EARLS OF DUNDONALD [S.].

- I. 1673. THE HON. SIR JOHN COCHRANE, of Ochiltree, 2d s. of William (COCHRANE), 1st EARL OF DUNDONALD [S.], by Eupheme, da. of Sir William SCOR, of Address, M.P. [S.] for Ayrshire, 1667, 1669-74, 1678 till void, and 1681-82, is said, but apparently in error, to have been cr. a Baronet [S.] in 1673.^(a) He was implicated in the rebellion of 1683, was "forfeited" 22 May 1685 (the forfeiture being subsequently remitted), and was living 1693, being suc. by the 1st s. None of these persons, however, appear to have assumed the title of Baronet, and the title, if ever promised, was apparently never confirmed. ^(a) No mention of such creation is made in Milne's List, but in Beatson's List that of "COCHRANE OF OCHILTREE, now Earl of Dundonald," occurs under "1673."

^(b) The devolution of this dignity on the brother of the grantee implies the remainder to have been to heirs male whatsoever.

^(c) The creation is also omitted in Milne's List.

^(d) No mention of it is made in Playfair's Baronetage of 1811, when probably it was considered as extinct.

The right to the title, according to the service of a Scotch Jury in 1816, was as under—

III. 1701. SIR ROBERT HAMILTON, Baronet [S. 1673],^(a) of Airdrie, cousin and h. male, being s. and h. of Gavin HAMILTON, of the same, by Jane, da. of Robert MONTGOMERY, of Hazlehead, which Gavin (who d. 29 Dec. 1681), was s. of John HAMILTON, of Airdrie (b. 1569), s. of Gavin HAMILTON, of the same (d. 1591), s. of John HAMILTON, also of Airdrie (slain at Flodden, 9 Sep. 1513), who was yr. hr. of Robert HAMILTON, of Preston (both being sons of Sir Robert HAMILTON, of Preston, living 1516), which Robert was father of Robert, the father of Sir David, father of George (d. 1608), all of Preston aforesaid, the said George having for his 3d s. Robert HAMILTON, of Newhaven, whose son, Sir Thomas HAMILTON, succeeded to the estates of Preston and Fingalton, and was father of the 1st Baronet. ERSKINE :

cr. 3 July 1674 ;

*but the patent never passed,
nor was the title ever assumed.*

I. 1674. JOHN ERSKINE, of Balgonie, had the royal warrant dat. 3 July 1674, at Hampton Court, to be cr. a Baronet [S.] with rem. to heirs male of the body, but the patent never passed the Great Seal, nor was the title ever assumed.^(c)

SINCLAIR, or ST. CLAIR :^(d) an alleged creation, probably about 1675 ;^(e) existing about 1780.

I. 1675 ? JAMES SINCLAIR, or ST. CLAIR,^(f) of Kinnaird, co. Fife (an estate which he purchased of the Balfour family, 5 Sep. 1675), and of Auldhar, co. Forfar (which he purchased about 1650, and sold, in portions, between 1670 and 1678), is said to have been cr. a Baronet [S.] probably about 1675.^(e) He m. Isabel BALFOUR, possibly a da. of Sir James BALFOUR, 1st Baronet [S. 1633], Lyon King of Arms, by his 3d wife, Margaret, da. of Sir James ARNOT. He d. in or shortly before 1702.

^(a) According to the service in Edinburgh, 1816.

^(b) His yr. br. Thomas Hamilton, an officer in the Army, was author of Annals of the Peninsular Campaign, and other works. He d. s.p. 27 Aug. 1875.

^(c) "I have seen the authentic registration of a signature under the hand of Charles II, 'given at His Majesties honour at Hampton Court,' the 3d of July 1674, and countersigned by the Duke of Lauderdale, the Sec. of State, for a patent of the dignity of a Knight Baronet to John Erskine, of Balgonie, and the heirs male of his body. It did not pass the Great Seal, and the donee therefore did not take the dignity. In 1689 and 1690 (Acts of Parl., vol. ix, pp. 29-140) he still figures as 'John Erskine, of Balgonie,' nor can the Baronetcy be proved to have vested in his family, who continued at least till 1764." [Riddell's Law in Scottish Peerages, 1842, vol. i, pp. 66-67].

^(d) The information in this article is chiefly from the late R. R. Stodart, Lyon Clerk Depute, 1863-86.

^(e) Not only is the date of creation unknown, but the actual existence of this Baronetcy is very doubtful.

^(f) There is no certainty as to his parentage, but in all probability he was one of the three children (under age at their mother's death, 19 July 1645) of James Sinclair (2d s. of Sir John Sinclair, 1st Baronet [S. 1636] of Stevenson), by Jean, da. of Sir James Durham, of Pitkerro, co. Forfar, afterwards 2d wife to Sir James Balfour, Lyon King of Arms.

II. 1702? SIR GEORGE SINCLAIR, or ST. CLAIR, Baronet [S. 1675?], of Kinnaird aforesaid, s. and h., suc. to the Baronetcy, on the death of his father, to whom he was served heir, 22 Sep. 1702, in the Barony of Kinnaird. This he sold, 24 Jan. 1726. He m. Margaret CRAWFORD. He d. 1726.

III. 1726. SIR JOHN SINCLAIR, or ST. CLAIR, Baronet [S. 1675?], s. and h., suc. to the Baronetcy, on the death of his father, to whom he was served heir general, 10 Nov. 1726; entered the army, serving on the continent and in Minorea; Major, 7 Oct. 1754; Quarter-Master Gen. in America, with local rank of Lieut.-Col. He m., 17 March 1762, at Burlington, Elizabeth, da. of John MOLAND, or MORDAN, an eminent lawyer, at Philadelphia. He d. at Bolvier, 26 Nov. or 25 Dec. 1767, and was bur. in St. John's Church, Elizabethtown. Will pr. 1769. His widow m. 14 March 1769, Lieut.-Col. Dudley TEMPLER, 25th Foot, and d. in London, 29 Oct. 1783.

IV. 1767. SIR JOHN SINCLAIR, or ST. CLAIR, Baronet [S. 1675?], s. and h., b. 1763; and suc. to the Baronetcy, when an infant, in Nov. or Dec. 1767. He m. [—],^(a) da. of Sir William ERSKINE, 1st Baronet [1791], of Torry, by Frances, da. of James MORAY, of Abercairny. Nothing further is known of him or of his successors, if any.

HOME, or HUME:^(b)

cr. between 1672 and 1678;

ex. (apparently) 1 Jan. 1788.

I. 1672-78. SIR ALEXANDER HOME, or HUME, Knt., of Renton, in the parish of Coldingham, co. Berwick, 1st s. and h.^(c) of Sir John HOME, or HUME, of the same, sometime (1663-71) a Lord of Session and Lord Justice Clerk, by Margaret, da. of (whose issue became heir to) the Hon. John STEWART, Commendator of Coldingham (2d s. of Francis, 1st Earl of BOTHWELL [S.]), suc. his father in 1671, to whom, being then a Knight, he was served heir special in Northfields and Fewlls, and was cr. a Baronet [S.], as above, between 1672 and 1678, there being, however, no record of such creation in the Great Seal Register, and no date being assigned to it in Milne's List, where, however, it is noted that he "gets his arms as Barronet out of the Lyon office." He was served, 2 June 1690, heir. gen. of his father, and heir spec. in the Barony of Renton, the office of Forester, etc. He was, however, nearly ruined by his yr. br., Sir Patrick HOME, 1st Baronet [S. 1697], of Lumsden, who (wrongfully) held from him the estate of Renton, and whom, in 1685, he accused of forgery. He m. Agnes, or Margaret, da. of Sir William SCOT, of Clerkington, from whom he was afterwards separated. He d. 28 May 1698.

II. 1698. SIR ROBERT HOME, or HUME, Baronet [S. 1672-78], s. and h., suc. to the Baronetcy, 28 May 1698, and was, on 14 July following, served heir male and of provision general. He m. Jean, da. of William DALMAHOY, of Ravelrig. He was living 1716, but d. before March 1733.

^(a) Probably Magdalen, yst da., b. 24 Feb. 1787. See Wood's Douglas' Peerage [S.], vol. i, p. 274, where she is the only da. whose marriage or death is not given.

^(b) Much of the information in this article was supplied by the late R. R. Stodart, Lyon Clerk Depnte, 1863-86.

^(c) The 2d son, Sir Patrick Home, or Hume, was cr. a Baronet [S.], 31 Dec. 1697, as of Lumsden.

III. 1730? SIR ALEXANDER HOME, or HUME, Baronet [S. 1672-78], s. and h., suc. to the Baronetcy, on the death of his father, to whom he had service as heir gen., 9 March 1733. He d. s.p. in Edinburgh, 17 Feb. 1737, and was bur. at Coldingham.

IV. 1737, SIR JOHN HOME, or HUME, Baronet [S. 1672-78], of to Renton aforesaid, br. and h., suc. to the Baronetcy, 17 Feb. 1737, 1788. and was served heir gen. of his br., 28 Nov. 1738, and heir male of provision gen. to his father, 3 Nov. 1739. He was an unsuccessful claimant for the Earldom of Dunbar [S.], cr. 1605. He d. s.p. 1 Jan. 1788, when the Baronetcy became (apparently) extinct.^(a)

CARMICHAEL :^(b)

cr., apparently, about 1676 ;^(c)

afterwards, 1727-38, CARMICHAEL-BAILLIE ;

ex. or dormant, July 1738.

I. 1676? THE HON. SIR JAMES CARMICHAEL, of Bonington, co. Lanark, 5th and yst. s. of James (CARMICHAEL), 1st LORD CARMICHAEL [S.], by Agnes, da. of William WILKIE, of Foulton, was Knighted at Oatlands, Surrey, 2 July 1632; was executor to his yr. br., Capt. the Hon. John CARMICHAEL, in 1644; was a Col. in the Army of Charles II at Dunbar, in 1650, and having purchased probably about 1676,^(d) a blank warrant for a Baronetcy, for £100,^(e) was apparently "at once recognised as a Baronet,"^(f) as, undoubtedly, his son was, though there is no record of such creation in the Great Seal Register or apparently elsewhere, and neither pedigree nor arms are recorded. He m. Margaret, da. of Sir John GRIERSON, of Lag. She d. before 27 July 1665.^(g) He d. in or shortly before 1681.

^(a) The Coldingham estate devolved on his cousin, Sir Alexander Stirling, 4th Baronet [S. 1666], of Glorat, s. and h. of John Stirling, by Elizabeth, only da. of Sir Alexander Home, or Hume, the 1st Baronet.

^(b) The information in this article is chiefly from the late R. R. Stodart, Lyon Clerk Depute, 1863-86.

^(c) The date of 4 Dec. 1632 is sometimes (though on what ground is unknown) given as that of this creation, but is probably erroneous. See note "d" below.

^(d) See note "c" above. The seven sons of the Duchess of Hamilton (who obtained this warrant for their tutor, [see note "e" below]), were born between 1658 and 1673.

^(e) "Mr. John Bannatine, Minister of Lanark, having taken charge of the sons of the Duchess of Hamilton, her Grace procured for him a warrant of this nature [i.e., a blank warrant, to be sold by the recipient, for nominating the purchaser a Baronet], which he sold for £100 to his parishioner, CARMICHAEL of BONINGTON, who was at once recognised as a Baronet. The title was held without dispute by his descendants till they became extinct in the male line on the death of Sir William Carmichael-Baillie, of Lamington and Bonington, in July 1738." [Notes on the traffic in Baronetcies, by "S" (i.e., R. R. Stodart), see note "h" above]. Genealogist, Orig. Series, vol. iii, p. 66.

^(f) See note "e" above, but the writer thereof subsequently conjectured that the warrant "acquired validity by Crown ratification or recognition in the person of the son of the purchaser, who himself is always styled a Knight." Such designation, however, is frequently at this period applied to a Baronet. The date of the evolution of the warrant into a recognised Baronetcy is not clear, but the fact is certain. See vol. ii, p. 452, notes "a" and "b" (under "Turing") for some similar cases.

^(g) At that date her eldest son, James Carmichael (who d. v.p. and s.p.) was (in her right) served heir to her aunt Jane, da. of Sir John Grierson.

II. 1681? SIR JOHN CARMICHAEL, Baronet [S. 1676?], of Bonington aforesaid, 2d but 1st surv. s. and h.; suc. to the Baronetcy (which, however, he may possibly not have assumed till a somewhat later date) on the death of his father, to whom he was served heir general, 5 Nov. 1681. He m. 15 May 1684, at Edinburgh, Henrietta, 3d da. of James (JOHNSTONE), 1st EARL OF ANNANDALE [S.], by Henrietta, da. of William (DOUGLAS), 1st MARQUESS OF DOUGLAS [S.]. She was bur. 29 Nov. 1689, at Carmichael. He was bur. there 28 Jan. 1691, being styled "Baronet" in his funeral entry at the Lyon office and having the badge thereof in his arms.

III. 1691. SIR WILLIAM CARMICHAEL, Baronet [S. 1676?], of Jan. Bonington aforesaid, 1st s. and h., b. about 1686; suc. to the Baronetcy in Jan. 1691; d. unm. 5 June following, five months after his father.

IV. 1691. SIR JAMES CARMICHAEL, Baronet [S. 1676?], of Bonington, br. and h., b. about 1690; suc. to the Baronetcy, on the death of his brother, and was, 20 June 1691, served heir gen. of his father, Sir John CARMICHAEL, "Baronet," and of his grandfather, Sir James CARMICHAEL, "Knight,"^(a) being served heir special of his father, 12 April 1692, in the Barony of Thankerton, co. Lanark. He was M.P. for Linlithgow burghs, 1713-15, and for Linlithgowshire, till unseated on petition, 8 April 1714. He m. (contract 7 Jan. 1715) Margaret, 1st of the two daughters and coheirs of William MAXWELL, otherwise BAILLIE, of Lamington, co. Lanark, by his 2d wife, Henrietta, da. of William (LINDSAY), EARL OF CRAWFORD AND LINDSAY [S.]. She, who was b. 1696, suc. her father in all his lands, 27 Dec. 1725, and took the name of BAILLIE. He d. in Edinburgh, 16 July 1727, aged 37, and was bur. at Lamington. His widow (Lady Carmichael-Baillie, the heiress of Lamington) d. 14 Sep. 1759, aged 63, at Edinburgh.

V. 1727, SIR WILLIAM CARMICHAEL-BAILLIE, Baronet [S. 1676?], to of Bonington aforesaid, only s. and h.; suc. to the Baronetcy, 1738. 16 July 1727; was served heir special of his father, 7 Feb. 1732, and again 15 Feb. 1733, in the Baronies of Thankerton above-named, Blackburn, co. Linlithgow, Craigend, co. Fife, etc. He appears to have assumed his mother's surname in expectation of inheriting the Baillie estates.
He d., however, in her lifetime, unm., July 1738, when the Baronetcy became extinct or dormant.^(b)

^(a) See p. 303, note "f."

^(b) Henrietta, his sister and heir, m. 17 Oct. 1741, as his 1st wife, Robert Dundas, of Arniston, Lord President of the Court of Session, and d. in her mother's lifetime, 13 May 1755, leaving issue one son William, who took the name of Baillie in lieu of Dundas on succeeding to the estate of Lamington, on his grandmother's death in Sep. 1759. He d. unm. and a minor soon afterwards 17 June 1760, and was suc. in his estates by Elizabeth, his elder sister, who m. 6 Sep. 1762, Admiral Sir John Lockhart-Ross, 6th Baronet [S. 1672], whose granddaughter, Matilda (1st da. but not coheir of the 7th Baronet), m. 6 Jan. 1812, Admiral Sir Thomas John Cochrane, G.C.B., and took the name of Wishart. She d. 4 Sep. 1819, leaving a son and heir Alexander Dundas Ross Cochrane-Wishart-Baillie (b. 24 Nov. 1816), who, having inherited the Lamington estate, was cr. 3 May 1880, Baron Lamington.

(b) Her eldest sister, Harriet Anne, d. unm. and v.p. 18 Oct. 1841, aged 52.

(c) Sir William Fraser printed 50 copies of a statement of this right with the opinions of Counsel annexed. The following remarks on this succession were made by the late R. R. Stodart, Lyon Clerk Depute, 1863-86:—

"He was never served and never matriculated here [i.e., at the Lyon office] as a Baronet, though he spoke and wrote about the step.

John [Maxwell] of Pollock was cr. a Baronet by patent dat. at Whitehall, 12 April 1682, with rem. to the heirs male of his body (Great Seal Reg.). Sir John, having no child and no brother, obtained upon his own resignation a renewed patent extending the limitation, failing heirs male of his body, to other heirs of entail whomsoever. (Kensington, 27 March 1707, Great Seal Reg.). The late Sir John [i.e., the 8th Baronet], who died in 1865, was his heir male and heir under the deed of entail, 1 August 1718, which calls the eldest heir female to the succession, with a stringent clause as to the surname and arms of Maxwell, to be the principal name and [the] arms [to be] in the first quarter. So far, so good, [and] under this Mr. Stirling's right to the Baronetcy would be indisput-he assumed the name of Maxwell in lieu of that of Stirling. He was Rector of the University of Edinburgh, 1872-74; LL.D. (Glasgow), 1873; Hon. LL.D. (Cambridge), 1874; Chancellor of the University of Glasgow, 1875-78; Hon. D.C.L. (Oxford), 1876; K.T., 9 Dec. 1876^(a); well known as an author of historical and other works,^(b) and as a collector of sixteenth century engravings. He m. firstly, 26 April 1865, at Paris, Anna Maria, 2d da. of David (LESLIE-MELVILLE), EARL OF LEVEN AND MELVILLE, [S.], by Elizabeth Anne, da. of Sir Archibald CAMPBELL, 2d Baronet [1808], of Succoth. She, who was b. Dec. 1826, d. 8 Dec. 1874 (from the effects of a burn on 21 Nov. previous), at Keir. He m. secondly, 1 March 1877 (by spec. lic., the bride being too ill to leave her bed), Caroline Elizabeth Sarah, widow of the Hon. George Chapple NORTON, Recorder of Guildford, 2d da. of Thomas SHERIDAN^(c), by Caroline Henrietta, da. of James CALLANDER, of Craigforth, afterwards James CAMPBELL, of Ardinglass. She, who was b. at 11, South Audley street, in 1808, d. 15 June 1877, at 10 Upper Grosvenor street (about three months after her marriage), and was bur. at Keir, aged about 69.^(d) He d. (seven months later) at Venice, of typhoid fever, 15 Jan. 1878, in his 60th year, and was bur. in Lecropt church.

X. 1878. SIR JOHN MAXWELL STIRLING-MAXWELL, Baronet
[S. 1682], of Pollok aforesaid, 1st s. and h., by 1st wife, b. 6 June 1866; suc. to the Baronetcy, 15 Jan. 1878; ed. at Eton and at Trin. Coll., Cambridge; B.A., 1894; sometime Assistant Private Secretary to the Secretary of State for the Colonies; a Scottish University Commissioner, 1892; M.P. for Glasgow, 1895-1900; Hon. Col. 3d Lanarkshire Rifle Volunteers. He m. 12 Nov. 1901, Ann Christian, 1st da. of the Rt. Hon. Sir Herbert Eustace MAXWELL, 7th Baronet [S. 1681], of Moureith, by Mary, da. of Henry FLETCHER-CAMPBELL, of BOQUHAN, co. Stirling. She was b. 5 Sep. 1871.

Family Estates.—These, in 1883, as held by the [then] late Baronet, consisted of 8,863 acres in co. Perth (worth £5,731 a year), 5,691 in co. Lanark (worth £8,741 a year), 4,773 in co. Renfrew (worth £13,012 a year), and 1,487 in co.

able, but Sir John Maxwell [the 8th Baronet] either did break this entail or tried to do so, or thought he had done so, for on 23 July 1863 he executed a new entail, as if he had been owner in fee of the entire estate, in favour of 'William Stirling, Esq., of Keir, my nephew, who as my heir at law (!) shall also have right to the Baronetcy held by me.' [The said] heir 'to bear use and retain surname of Maxwell, as last or only surname, and the arms and designation of Maxwell of Pollock.' Keir and Pollock never to be held by the same person. The deed is one of the longest and most involved I ever toiled through, and contains many provisions and burdens the estate to an extent quite incompatible with the maintenance of the 1718 entail. I leave you to draw your own conclusion. An absurd state of things might arise under the 1863 entail if the eldest son chooses Keir and Cadder of course retaining the Baronetcy [and] the second is [i.e., should remain]—Mr. Maxwell of Pollock."

^(a) He was the only Commoner who was a Knight of the Thistle since the revival of that Order by James II. in 1687.

^(d) She was one of three sisters noted for their beauty and cleverness, of whom the yst. was Jane Georgiana, Duchess of Somerset, who, as Lady Seymour, was the Queen of Beauty at the Eglinton tournament in 1839. The eldest, Helen Selina, Baroness Dufferin and Claneboye [I.] was perhaps the most clever and witty of the three, but the "Hon. Caroline Norton" (by which designation she was generally known), was a poetess of no mean power, and the authoress of Stuart of Dunleath and other works. She was separated from her first husband in 1840, who had failed in an action for crim. con., tried 23 June 1836, against her and Viscount Melbourne.

Stirling (worth £2,370 a year). Total.—20,814 acres, worth £29,854 a year; exclusive of £4,389 for quarries and minerals. "These estates are to be divided between the present [i.e., the 10th] Baronet and his younger brothers, both minors" [Bateman's Great Landowners, edit. 1883]. The yr. br. Archibald, b. 14 Sep. 1867, relinquished the name of Maxwell, on coming of age, and took that of Stirling only, on inheriting Keir and other estates of the Stirling family.

STEWART :

cr. 2 June 1683^(d) ;

sometime, 1827-90, DRUMMOND-STEWART ;

ex. 20 Sep. 1890.

- I. 1683. "THOMAS STEWART, of Blair" as also of Balcaskie, co.
Fife, 1st s. of Henry STEWART, Advocate, by Mary, da. of Colin CAMPBELL, of Abernchill (which Henry was 4th and yst. s. of Sir William STEWART, of Grandtully and Murtly, co. Perth), acquired the lands of Balcaskie

^(a) There appears to be no record of this marriage. It may, however, be inferred by the following extracts from the Episcopal Register of St. Andrews:—1771 Aug. 20. "Alexander Sharp, son to Sir William Sharp, was baptized. Mr. Bethune of Blebo, the mother's father, and my Lady Sharp, the father's mother, were sponsors." Again, 1772 Nov. 17, "At Rungally, Charles, lawful son to the Rev. Mr. James Antchinson, was baptized. Mr. John Drummond, of Drumachie, Mr. Robert Bell, merchant in Cupar, and my Lady Sharp, Blebo's daughter, were sponsors." Notwithstanding the above evidence, there seems some doubt as to the legitimacy of the Alexander Sharp born in 1771, and possibly the marriage of his parents (though thus recognised) was invalid. The Baronet may, possibly, have had a previous wife still alive. There is a blank in the register of Alexander's baptism before the word "son," as though the Clerk was doubtful whether the word "lawful" (as in the entry of 1772) should or should not be inserted. Again, the non assumption of the Baronetcy at his father's death, in Feb. 1780, and above all the contesting of his right (see note "c" below) to the Blebo estate by his mother's younger sister, Janet Bethune (when the succession thereto opened 25 Feb. 1807), tend to create a doubt as to his being the legitimate son (and consequently heir) of his parents.

^(b) The death, 8 Oct. 1780, "at Bletchingley, Surrey," of "Sir William Sharp, aged 97," is recorded in the Scot's Mag. He appears to have left £2,000 to build almshouses there, and his will is proved in 1781. Whoever he was, he was certainly not identical with the Baronet of the same name, who died eight months before him, on whose death, however, it is not impossible that he may have assumed the Baronetcy. There appears to be no record of his having been made a Knight, nor, on the other hand, is there any known place for him in the Baronet's pedigree.

^(c) The right to the Blebo estate was contested in 1807 by Janet Bethune, younger sister of Margaret, Lady Sharp, as against Alexander Sharp, afterwards Bethune, the son of the said Margaret, who in 1782 was the heiress thereof. It was, however, then in the hands of creditors, from whom in 1815 it was redeemed by the said Alexander. See p. 321, note "b" and note "a" above.

He m. 22 Sep. 1773, Elizabeth, da. of Nicol GRAHAM, of Gartmore, by Margaret, da. of William (CUNNINGHAM), 12th EARL OF GLENCAIRN [S.]. He d. 10 Oct. 1791. His widow, by whom he had eleven children, d. at Edinburgh, 31 July 1825.

V. 1791. SIR JAMES DALYELL, or DALZIELL, Baronet [S. 1685],^(a) of Binns aforesaid, 1st s. and h., b. 7 July 1774; suc. to the Baronetcy,^(a) 10 Oct. 1791; was an officer in the army, and served in Flanders, 1793. He d. unm. 1 Feb. 1841.

VI. 1841. SIR JOHN GRAHAM DALYELL, or DALZIELL, Baronet [S. 1685],^(a) of Binns aforesaid,^(c) br. and h., b. about 1778; was admitted as Advocate 1797; author of several scientific and historical works; V.P. of the Soc. of Antiquaries [S.], etc.; was Knighted 1836; suc. to the Baronetcy,^(a) 1 Feb. 1841. He d. unm. 7 June 1851, at Edinburgh, in his 74th year. Will pr. Nov. 1851.

VII. 1851. SIR WILLIAM CUNNINGHAM DALYELL, or DALZIELL, Baronet [S. 1685],^(a) of Binns aforesaid,^(c) br. and h., being 5th and yst. s. of the 4th Baronet, b. 27 April 1784; was an officer in the Navy, 1792, receiving no less than sixteen wounds in various actions, and being many years a prisoner in France; becoming finally Capt. R.N. and commander of Greenwich Hospital. He suc. to the Baronetcy,^(a) 7 June 1851. He m. in 1820, Maria, sister of Anthony SAMPAYO, French Minister at Hesse, da. of Anthony Teixiera SAMPAYO, of Peterborough House, Fulham, Midx. He d. 16 Feb. 1865, at his residence in Greenwich Hospital, in his 81st year. His widow d. 20 Oct. 1871 aged 72, at 120 Belgrave road, Pimlico.

^(a) According to the assumption of that dignity, 1723-28.

^(b) He executed an entail of the Auldcathy estate in 1723 as "James Dalzell of Binns," but on 29 Dec. 1728 he is styled "Sir James Dalzell" in a service to his cousin, James Menteth, of Miln Hall, as heir male. [Ex inform. R. R. Stedart, late (1863-86) Lyon Clerk Depute.] There can be no question that he was not the heir male of entail to the Baronetcy—and, indeed, no deed of entail thereof was apparently ever made.

^(c) "It is understood that the estate of Binns, referred to in the remainder [of the Baronetcy] passed from the family in 1841" [Foster's Baronetage, 1883]. This, however, seems apparently not to have been the case.

VIII. 1865, SIR ROBERT ALEXANDER OSBORNE DALYELL, or to DALZIELL, Baronet [S. 1685],^(a) of Binns aforesaid,^(b) 1st 1886. but only surv. s. and h., b. 1821; ed. at Trin. ^(g) It is presumed from her age that this lady was the widow of the first Baronet, but it is possible she was a 1st wife of the 2d Baronet. The extract, as below, calls her wife (not widow) of Sir Thomas, but that is a very frequent confusion. "Dame Mary Hope, da. of Sir Thomas Hope, of Kerse, widow of Sir John Young, of Leny, and wife of Sir Thomas Moncrieff, of Moncrieff, buried at Cramond 24 Nov. 1723, aged 84 years" [Wood's Cramond, p. 20].

NICOLSON :

cr., as (erroneously ?) alleged, 1686.^(a)

"JOHN NICOLSON, of Tulliecultrie" [i.e. Tillicoultrie] is stated to have been cr. a Baronet [S.], though no date of such creation is given in Milne's List, where it is added "no document, bot is so designed in papers." The date of 1686 is however, frequently assigned,^(a) though in all probability, if such creation was ever made, it was in or before 1683, as the person indicated must be SIR JOHN NICOLSON, of Tillicoultrie, who d. 1683, and whose s. and h., Thomas, suc., 9 June 1686, to the Baronetcy [S.] conferred 16 Jan. 1636/7 on Thomas NICOLSON, of Carnock, co. Stirling. See vol. ii, pp. 424-426, for that Baronetcy, in which this creation, if it ever existed, must be merged.

BROUN :^(b)

cr. 16 Feb. 1685/6.

- I. 1686. "PATRICK BROUN, of Coulstoun," co. Haddington, 2d s. of James BROUN, of the same (d. 1669), by Anna (m. 1625), da. and h. of Robert HERIOT, of Trabroun, was b. probably about 1630; was served heir male, 6 May 1658, to his elder br. George BROUN, of Coulstoun aforesaid (who d. s.p.m. (c) 1657), and was cr. a Baronet [S.], as above, 16 Feb. 1685/6, with rem. to heirs male for ever.^(d) He m. firstly, Alison, da. of James SINCLAIR. He m. secondly, Jean, widow of the Rev. Robert KER, Minister of Haddington, da. of John RAMSAY, of Edington. He d. 1688.

(a) Beatson's List ("Nicholson, of Tillicoultry: extinct") as also other various authorities. The following remarks are made by James R. Anderson (see p. 242, note "a"), "This creation is given without date by Milne, Chamberlayne, and Miede. The year 1686 is assigned to a Nicolson creation by various authorities, [e.g.] Dod (1864, 1891), Lodge (1858), Debrett (1808, p. 1063), and a number of other lists such as in the early edition of Oliver and Boyd, etc. In all the above lists, however, the Baronet mentioned belongs to the 1636/7 creation, but there never was a Sir John in that line. Possibly 1686 is a mistake for 1636, and does not refer to the Tillicoultry creation. In the Scottish Antiquary (vol. iii, pp. 56 and 145) the Nicolson Baronets are treated, but no mention is made of this creation."

(b) An elaborate account of this family is given in "The Baronetage for 1844, by Sir Richard Broun, Bq. Aur., K.J.J., Hon. Secretary of the Committee of the Baronetage for privileges," the author being s. and h. ap. of "the Hon. Sir James, 7th Bt. and present chief of the name in Scotland." In it it is stated that "This very ancient and noble family claims descent from and bears the arms of the Royal House of France." The red ground and the chevron between the three fleur-de-lis, as borne by the Broun family [Burke's Baronetage, 1902], however, militate against this statement.

(c) Lillas, the da. and h. of this George, did not however inherit the Coulstoun estate. She m. James Bannatyne, of Newhall.

(d) Equivalent, doubtless, to heirs male whatsoever.

II. 1688. SIR GEORGE BROWN, Baronet [S. 1686], of Coulston aforesaid, s. and h. by (—) wife, suc. to the Baronetcy in 1688. He m. Elizabeth, 2d da. of George (MACKENZIE), 1st EARL OF CROMARTY [S.], by his 1st wife, Anne, da. of Sir James SINCLAIR, 1st Baronet [S. 1631], of Mey. He d. s.p. 1718,^(a) when the issue male of the grantee became extinct. His wife survived him.^(b)

III. 1718 SIR GEORGE BROWN, Baronet [S. 1686], of Thornydikes, co. Berwick, cousin and, presumably, heir male,^(c) being s. of Alexander BROWN, of Bassendean, in that county, by his 1st wife Catharine, da. of Sir Alexander SWINTON, of Swinton, which Alexander BROWN was s. and h. of George BROWN, of Thornydikes, yr. br. of James BROWN, of Colstoun, father of the 1st Baronet, both being sons of George BROWN, of Colstoun. He, on the ground of being heir male, suc. to the Baronetcy(c) in 1718. He m. Janet, da. of Alexander SPOTTISWOODE, of Warristoun, by his 2d wife Helen, da. of John TROTTER, of Mortonhall. He d. s.p., 16 Feb. or 15 Aug. 1734.

IV. 1734. SIR ALEXANDER BROWN, Baronet [S. 1686], of Bassendean, co. Berwick, hr. and h., suc. to the Baronetcy in 1734. He m. Beatrix, da. of Alexander SWINTON, of Mersington, a Lord of Session [S.]. He d. 1750.

(a) The estate of Colstoun devolved on his niece, Jean, 1st da. and heir of line of his brother, Robert BROWN, who (with his two sons) was drowned 31 May 1703. She m. Charles BROWN, of Cleghornie, and their son George BROWN, of Colstoun, was a Lord of Session [S.] under the style of "Lord Colstoun," being father of Charles BROWN, of Colstoun, whose da. and h., Christian, m. 14 May 1805, George (Ramsay), 9th Earl of Dalhousie [S.], and is ancestress of the present [1904] Earl, the now owner thereof.

(b) She is the heroine of a romantic story, which has been versified under the name of "The charmed Cornac of Colstoun," by Edward Mackenzie Mackenzie, Baronet." The story states that, by recklessly biting (or dreaming that she had eaten) this magic pear (or cornac) which had been some three centuries in the family of her husband, she brought misfortune thereon, he, himself, dying without issue, his only brother (with two sons) having previously died leaving no male issue. [See note "a" above.] This pear is said to have been presented by Hugh Gifford, of Yester (who d. s.p.m. about 1409, being great grandson of another Hugh Gifford, of Yester, the wizard, who d. 1267, by whom perhaps it had been bewitched), to his da. Joan, on her marriage about 1400 to Sir William Hay, with the prophecy that so long as it was preserved unharmed, her race would flourish. It continued in the family of Hay, of Yester, till about 1550, when it formed part of the marriage dower of Jean, da. of John (Hay), 3d Lord Hay of Yester [S.], with George BROWN, of Colstoun, whence it acquired the name of the charmed Cornac of Colstoun. Their descendant the 2d Baronet inherited it in 1688 "unharmed" but at his death in 1718 it passed, with the estate of Colstoun (see p. 338, note "c") to the heir female. In BROWN's Baronetage, 1844, it is thus spoken of—"This pear, now nearly six [sic] centuries old is still [1844] preserved at Colstoun House . . . and . . . is perhaps the most singular vegetable curiosity in the Kingdom." See N. & Q., 3d S., 111, 466.

(c) In a pedigree drawn up from the MS. notes of Sir Richard BROWN, who d. 1781, by Edward M. Mackenzie (see note "b" above), it is stated that this Sir George had an elder br. Archibald BROWN, who, in 1715, raised a troop of Horse for the Chevalier in the Jacobite rising. He, who probably was attainted, is said to have m. a da. of (—) Trotter, and to have left a son [Qy. if legitimate?] who was a Physician in Charlestown, in America, who left a son, Archibald, who d. unm. The first named Archibald may, however, possibly have died before the 2d Baronet, but if he left legitimate male issue, such issue would precede this Sir George in the right to the Baronetcy. Moreover this George is not called a Baronet in the pedigree of Spottiswoode (his wife's family), given in Douglas's Baronage [S.].

- V. 1750, SIR ALEXANDER BROWN, Baronet [S. 1686], of Bridge-to ness, only s. and h.; suc. to the Baronetcy in 1750. He m. in 1755, 1776. Mally, da. of Adam COLQUHOUN, of Glins, an officer of the Salt Duty at Borrowstonness. She was living 1766. He d. s.p.m.^(a) 1776, when the Baronetcy became dormant and so remained for fifty years^(b).

* * * * *

- VI. 1776. THE REV. RICHARD BROWN, Minister of the Gospel, at Lochmaben, co. Dumfries, was, according to a service, 12 Jan.
 1826 (see below), entitled to the Baronetcy in 1776 as heir male, he being 1st s. of James BROWN, tenant of Hume Castle, in the parish of Stichill, co. Berwick, by Alison, da. of William BRODIE, which James was 1st s. of George BROWN,^(c) 1st s. of Alexander BROWN, both in Hume aforesaid, which Alexander was 1st s. of George BROWN, yr. br. of Alexander BROWN (father of the 3d and 4th and grandfather of the 5th Baronet) both being sons of George BROWN, of Thornydyke.^(d)
 He, who was sometime Minister of Bute, Kingarth, and (finally) of Lochmaben, entered his pedigree at the Lyon office, but never assumed the Baronetcy. He m.
 in 1765, Robina, da. of Col. Hugh MACBRIDE, of Beadland, co. Ayr. He d. 13 Dec.
 1781. His widow d. 5 Feb. 1819.

- VII. 1781, SIR JAMES BROWN, Baronet [S. 1686],^(e) of Mayfield in or Lochmaben, co. Dumfries (the name of which he changed to 1826. "Coulston Park") 1st s. and h., b. 12 March 1768; was an officer in the 30th Foot, serving ten years in the West Indies, during the Carib insurrection; suc. to the Baronetcy,^(c) 13 Dec. 1781, but did not assume the title till 19 March 1826, after having been (in compliance with his claim^(f))
 "served lawful heir male in general to Sir Alexander Brown, Baronet," by a Jury at Lochmaben, 12 Jan. previous. He in 1799 had raised a troop called the Lockerie Volunteers. He m. firstly, 31 July 1798, Marion, sister of John Irvine HENDERSON, 1st da. of Robert HENDERSON, of Clengheads and Whitecroft, by Janet, da. and h. of F. CARRITHERS, of Whitecroft. She d. suddenly, 20 Aug.
 1825. He m. secondly, 29 April 1835, Janet, 1st da. of Robert WATSON, of Edinburgh. He d. 30 Nov. 1844, at Moffat, co. Dumfries, aged 76. His widow
d. 17 June 1868, at Seafeld, near Leith, aged 84.

(a) He had two daughters and coheirs, Agnes and Beatrix, of whom the former was living unm. at Edinburgh in Jan. 1826, aged 60 and upwards, when she gave important evidence in favour of the claim to the Baronetcy then before the Jury.

(b) No notice of this Baronetcy is given in Playfair's Baronetage [S.], 1811, it being then, doubtless, considered to be extinct.

(c) This George is generally omitted, but is included in the statement of the claimant in 1826, to whom, if this George were omitted, "George Brown, first of Thornydyke" would not be (as affirmed) "great great great grandfather."

(d) See note "f" below as to his son's claim to the Baronetcy.

(e) According to the service of the Scotch Jury, 12 Jan. 1826.

(f) The statement in the "Claim for Capt. James Brown to be served nearest and lawful heir male in general to Sir Alexander Brown, Baronet," was as follows:—"Honourable persons and good men of inquest, I, Captain James BROWN, of Mayfield, in the parish of Lochmaben and county of Dumfries say unto your Wisdoms that I am eldest lawful son of the late Rev. Richard BROWN, Minister of the Gospel in the parish of Lochmaben, who was eldest lawful son of James BROWN in Hume Castle, near Kelso, who was eldest lawful son of George BROWN in Hume, who was eldest lawful son of Alexander BROWN in Hume, who was eldest lawful son of George BROWN, who was third son of George BROWN, first of Thornydyke, my great, great, great, great grandfather [who was] great grandfather to the late Sir Alexander Brown, of Bassendean, Baronet, my cousin. And that the said deceased Sir Alexander Brown, Baronet, died at [Qy. in] the faith and peace of our Sovereign Lord the King and that I am the nearest and lawful heir male in general to the said Sir Alexander Brown, Baronet, my cousin." This

VIII. 1844. SIR RICHARD BROWN, Baronet [S. 1686],^(a) of Coulston Park aforesaid, 1st s. and h., by 1st wife, was b. 22 April 1801, at Lochmaben. "Previous to succeeding his father, he demanded inauguration as a Knight, in the capacity of a Baronet's eldest son, but the Lord Chancellor having refused to present him to the Queen for this purpose, he assumed the title of Sir and the addition of Equus auratus in June 1842,"^(b) and styled himself (when heir ap. to the Baronetcy of Brown) in the Baronetage (1844), edited by himself, "Sir Richard BROWN, Equus auratus, Hon. Sec. to the Committee of the Baronetage for privileges, a Knight Commander of the Sovereign Order of St. John of Jerusalem, and Grand Sec. of the Langue of England." He suc. to the Baronetcy,^(a) 30 Nov. 1844, and describes himself in 1856 as "fendal Baron of Colstoun, Haddingtonshire, and chief of his race in North Britain."^(c) He was for many years Sec. to the Central Agricultural Society, was a great promoter of extra-mural burial and was, in 1849, the projector of "the London Necropolis" at Woking. He d. unm. 10 Dec. 1858, at Sphinx Lodge, Chelsea, Midx., in his 58th year.

IX. 1858. SIR WILLIAM BROWN, Baronet [S. 1686],^(a) of Dumfries, br. of the whole blood, and h., b. July 1804, at Lochmaben; was a Solicitor at Dumfries; suc. to the Baronetcy,^(a) 10 Dec. 1858. He m., at Dumfries, 18 July 1843, Elizabeth, 2d da. of John SMITH, of Drongan, co. Ayr. He d. 10 June 1882, at 7 Irving street, Dumfries, in his 78th year, and was bur. at Lochmaben. His widow d. 19 Aug. 1899, at "Glenshee," Cambridge Park, Twickenham, Midx., aged 80, and was bur. at Lochmaben.

X. 1882. SIR WILLIAM BROWN, Baronet [S. 1686],^(a) of Somerton, in New South Wales, 2d but 1st surv. s. and h.,^(d) b. 18 Dec. 1848, at Dumfries; suc. to the Baronetcy,^(a) 10 June 1882. He m. 12 April 1871, at Sydney, in New South Wales, Alice Jane, 2d da. of James Cornelius PETERS, of Manley Beach, Sydney, New South Wales, Under Treasurer of that Colony, by Elizabeth, da. of James CHAMBERS, of Edinburgh.

was accompanied by a tabular pedigree beginning with "George, 1st of Thorn-dike, brother [sic] of Sir Patrick Brown, of Colstoun, Baronet." This George is also stated to have been "brother german of Sir Patrick Brown, of Colstoun, Baronet," in the "genealogical account" of the family by his great grandson Sir Alexander Brown, Baronet, compiled June 1763 at Bridgeness. George, however, appears to have been uncle (not brother) of the 1st Baronet, but the service of 1826 was as heir male to Sir Alexander, the 5th Baronet (who d. in 1776) whose right to the title was not questioned, so that the claimant's relationship to the first Baronet (a collateral relative) was not set forth. See, however, p. 339, note "c." "The claim of Sir Richard and his father Sir James to be Baronets of Nova Scotia will be found discussed in a work of W. B. D. D. Turnbull, entitled 'British American Association and Nova Scotia Baronets,' report of the action of damages for alleged libel, Brown (soi-disant) Sir Richard, against the Globe newspaper; with introductory remarks relative to the above scheme and the illustrious order connected with it.' 1846, 8vo." [N. & Q., 7th S., iv, p. 191.] See also Her. and Gen., vol. ii, p. 176, where it is mentioned that shortly after Turnbull's publication "the service of heirs was placed on its present greatly improved footing by the Act 10 and 11 Vict., c. 47." (a) Milne's List ; the date in the Lists of Chamberlayne and Miede is 6 March 1686, and that in the Scottish Antiquary (iv, 141) is 29 March 1686.

(b) In "the Masterton papers" [Scot. Hist. Soc. Miscellany] mention is made [p. 472] of the death of "Sir Hugh Paterson" in Oct. 1696, as also [p. 476] of the death of the "Laird of Bannockburn" on 21 Dec. 1701. Presumably the same person is indicated, but possibly the latter may have been the successor of the former.

(c) Anderson's Scottish Nation, in which, however, Lady Jean Erskine, is called, "mother" (not "wife") of Sir Hugh. It is there added that "Sir Hugh's granddaughter is said to have been privately m. to the Prince, but she released him to promote the Stuart cause."

In Burke's Baronetage for 1841 mention is made of "Sir John Milne, of Barnton, co. Dumfries," and it is stated that he "is [but Qy. if it should not read was, some fifty years before that date] the representative" of the 1st Baronet.

To save the estate, however, he had made it over to his half br., Capt. (^a) The marriage, April 1730, of James Kinloch, eldest s. of Sir Francis Kinloch, of Gilmerton, with Margaret, 2d da. of William Foulis, of Woodhall, is recorded in the "Foulis of Ravelston account book," [Scott. Hist. Soc., p. lxx.]

(^b) See "Descendants of Sir James Kinloch, [the 4th] Baronet, by Henry Wagner, F.S.A. [Genealogist, N.S., vol. xiv, pp. 200-203].

(^c) Presuming that James Kinloch, yst. and only surv. s. of James, the 4th Baronet (by Anne Marguerite Wild), was not entitled to succeed to his father's dignity. He was bap. 29 Jan. 1748/9, at Yverdon, was a Burgess of Cronay and Giez; m., 28 Dec. 1791, Marianne Esther, da. of (—) Berdez (who d. his widow 13 June 1812), and d. s.p., being bur. 22 Oct. 1802 at Yverdon. His non-assumption of the Baronetcy certainly throws some doubt on the validity of his mother's marriage, but the issue thereof was recognised by the parents of the father, whose mother, "Noble Marie Kinloch, née de Rocheda," was, in 1732, sponsor to the 1st child, and whose father (the 4th Baronet) was sponsor, in 1733, to the 2d child," etc. (See note "b" above.) The explanation for this non-succession given in Playfair's Baronetage [S.] is hardly satisfactory, viz., "The children not being naturalised in Great Britain were incapable of succession," for, even allowing this statement to be true, such incapacity would not entitle the next heir to inherit the Baronetcy.

(^d) She "was considered for mind, manners, and personal beauty as unequalled in her time. On this lady's death an elegant tribute was paid to her memory which we cannot omit inserting." Here follows 132 lines of verse (Playfair's Baronetage, 1811.)

(^e) He is said to have been shot by his brother and successor, Archibald, who was tried for the murder in 1795, but acquitted as insane. See p. 242, note "c."

(^f) See note "c" above, but on the death s.p. in Oct. 1802, of James Kinloch, there would be no doubt of the right of this Alexander to the Baronetcy, as heir male of the body of the grantee.

LAUDER:

cr. 17 July and sealed 10 Aug. 1688;

cancelled 19 Feb. 1692.^(c)

I. 1688, "JOHN LAUDER [called 'late Baillie in Edinburgh'],^(d) to of Idington," co. Berwick, but better known as of Fountainhall, 1692. co. Haddington, having purchased the estate of Idington from the impoverished father of his 3d wife, Margaret (m. 15 Feb.
 1670), da. of George RAMSAY, of Idington aforesaid, settled the same on his issue by that wife, and was cr. a Baronet [S.], 17 July 1688, with a spec. rem. (to the exclusion of his issue male by his former wives) to his son George RAMSAY and other the heirs male of his body by this marriage.^(e) His eldest son, however, Sir John LAUDER (a Lord of Session [1689] under the style of Lord Fountain- hall), considering such limitation to be unjust, obtained a new creation, dated 25 Jan. 1690, whereby (his father) the said grantee (then designated as "of Fountainhall") was cr. a Baronet [S.] with rem. to the heirs male of his body.
 The creation of 17 July 1688 was annulled by decree of Privy Council, 19 Feb.
 1692, and the sons therein indicated were forbidden to assume the title

^(a) See p. 356, note "c."

^(b) By the same act the Earldoms of Wemyss, Airlie and Carnwath and the Barony of Duffus [S.], which were under similar attainder, were restored.

^(c) Ex inform. R. R. Stodart, late (1863-86) Lyon Clerk Depute, who also supplied many other particulars of this family.

^(d) Milne's List.

^(e) He "with a view of gratifying his [3d] wife's vanity and ambition obtained in 1688 the honour of a Baronetcy, but, not satisfied with this distinction she succeeded in having the destination of the grant appropriated to his son [by the 3d marriage] George or [other] the heirs male of [the grantee's body by] Margaret Ramsay, his present spouse. [Sir John Lauder, styled] Lord Fountain-hall [his eldest son], conceiving that such a destination, passing over himself and his brothers of the 2d marriage, was unjust, obtained on 16 May an order of Privy Council that the patent should remain in the Clerk's hands until it was rectified. Although this was done with her husband's sanction, she nevertheless contrived, by misrepresenting his eldest son, Sir John, as disaffected to the late Government, to have the patent [in favour] of her son George passed under the Great Seal on the 17th of July 1688. Having brought an action of reduction of this patent, a new charter conferring on John Lauder, Senior, of Fountainhall, whom failing to his eldest son, the title and dignity of a Knight Baronet was obtained 25 Jan. 1690." [Lord Fountainhall's Historical Notices of Scottish Affairs, Bannatyne Club, 1848 (Preface), edited by David Laing].

The Baronetcy was, however, assumed, as below, under the limitation of the patent of 17 July 1688, notwithstanding its having been annulled on 19 Feb. 1692.

II. 1692, SIR GEORGE LAUDER, Baronet [S. 1688], of to Idington aforesaid, younger s. of the grantee,^(b) being 1st s.
1700? by his 3d wife, b. 31 May 1673; assumed the Baronetcy (notwithstanding the creation thereof had been annulled) in April 1692, on the death of his father, under the annulled patent of 17 July 1688, and was styled "Baronet" in certain acts of Parl. 1696.^(c) He inherited the estate of Idington under his father's settlement. He d. s.p. in or before 1700, when the assumption of the Baronetcy ceased.^(d)

HAMILTON :

ex. presumably 1726.

to seems to be known, but whose father was "a lawful son of the probably da. of Sir Andrew BALFOUR, M.D. He, "before his death, which happened 26 Oct. 1726, was a common beggar in the streets of Edinburgh."^(c) It is presumed that he d. s.p.m., and that the Baronetcy on his death became extinct. "After his death, his Lady, who was as proud as Lucifer himself, and a great phanatick, turned Papist for bread."^(d)

(a) He was author of the Wolf of Badenoch, and other historical romances. He claimed to be descended from the family of Lauder of Bass, but utterly failed to prove such descent. Thereupon he put up a monument to the Lauder family in the Greyfriars Churchyard, Edinburgh, stating thereon the pedigree as he wished it to be. See p. 242, note "c."

(b) A most favourable character of him is given in Anderson's Scottish Nation.

III. 1775, SIR ALEXANDER CUMMING, Baronet [S. 1695], only s. to and h., b. about 1737; was a Capt. in the Army, being in 1779 1793? on half pay at the rate of more than £20 a year; suc. to the Baronetcy, 23 Aug. 1775. Was nominated a Pensioner of the Charter House 1779 and 1789, but refused each time on ground of his half pay. He, subsequently, became deranged, and d. nrm. in a state of great indigence, near Red Lion street, Whitechapel, when the Baronetcy became dormant or extinct.

The Baronetcy, however, was assumed possibly soon after 1793, but more probably some eighty years afterwards, as under.

IV. 1793. ROBERT CUMMING of Airdrie, stated^(c) to have been s. of Robert CUMMING of Allathen, by Anna (m. 1730), da. of Alexander LESLIE, of Pitcaple, which Robert last named is stated^(c) to have been br. of the 2d and yr. s. of the 1st Baronet^(d); suc. to the

(a) His yr. br. (of the half blood) presumably his only yr. br., James Cumming, inherited the estate of Breda House, near Alford, co. Aberdeen, which, however, he sold. He m. twice, and left but one son, who d. s.p. before 15 June 1790.

(b) See p. 370, note "d."

(c) The affiliation and other particulars of this Robert are taken from a letter, dated 4 March 1867, written by "K. W. Cumming" (who by deed poll, 28 Nov. 1877, assumed the Baronetcy) which is printed in Tomkins's article. See p. 370, note "a." It is, however, shewn in that article that it "is impossible" for the claimant "to establish the most important points" in the pedigree, viz., "that his great grandfather married a Miss Leslie and was the younger son of the Sir Alexander Cumming mentioned in the advertisement."

(d) See, however, note "a" above, as to James Cumming being, presumably, the only yr. son of the 1st Baronet.

Baronetcy(a) on the death of his cousin about 1793 and "because his Uncle's [Qy. Grandfather's] executors had sold Culter and his father [had] disposed of the lands of Allathen would not assume the title." (b) He m., in or before 1775, Grace, da. of John STALKER, of Foxmore.

V. 1799? SIR KENNETH CUMMING, Baronet [S. 1695], (a) 1st s. and h., suc. to the Baronetcy(a) on the death of his father and is stated (c) to have "been in possession thereof for forty years." (a) He was M.D. in the Royal Artillery. He m. Marion, da. of David JONES, of Giveldon, co. Pembroke. He d. abroad s.p.m. 1838 or 1839, leaving two daughters.

VI. 1839? ROBERT STEWART CUMMING, of Cummingswood, in Prince Edward's Island, North America (which he was granted for his services at the siege of Copenhagen, 1807) only br. and h. male; b. 1777; was M.D. in the Royal Artillery and 7th Hussars; suc. to the Baronetcy(a) in 1838 or 1839, but never assumed the title. He m. firstly, Jane KAY, who d. 1826. He m. secondly, in or before 1837, Jean, da. of William AITCHISON, of Sprouston. He d. in Edinburgh, 1847, aged about 70. His widow d. 1865.

VII. 1847. SIR KENNETH WILLIAM CUMMING, Baronet [S. 1695], (a) only s. and h., b. 1837; suc. to the Baronetcy(a) in 1847, and signified his assumption thereof by deed poll, 28 Nov. 1877(a); ed. at Edinburgh University; M.D. 1861; entered Army Medical Service, 1862; sometime, 1864-73 in the Royal Artillery; Surgeon-Major, 1876; was in medical charge of the garrison at Exeter, 1876-78; Hon. Brig.-Surgeon (retired) 1882.

(a) According to the deed poll of 28 Nov. 1877 (advertised in the Times of 2 March 1878) as under.

"Notice is hereby given that I, KENNETH WILLIAM CUMMING hitherto known as Kenneth William Cumming, M.D., Surgeon-Major in Her Majesty's Army (Medical Service) have by deed poll under my hand and seal, dated the 23rd day of November 1877, ASSUMED as my lawful right, to myself and the heirs male lawfully begotten of my body THE NAME, rank, style and title of SIR KENNETH WILLIAM CUMMING, of Culter in the County of Aberdeen, BARONET, which rank and style were conferred upon my great great grandfather Sir Alexander Cumming, of Culter aforesaid, M.P., and the heirs male lawfully begotten of his body, by their late Majesties King William and Queen Mary, by letters patent dated the 28th day of February 1695, and the said Baronetcy having regularly descended to my late uncle SIR KENNETH CUMMING, of Culter aforesaid, who, after having been in possession thereof for 40 years, died in or about the year 1839 without any heir male lawfully begotten of his body, leaving my father ROBERT STEWART CUMMING, of Cummingswood in Prince Edward's Island in North America, M.D., his only brother and heir at law, who died in the year 1847, without having assumed the title and leaving me his only son and heir at law. The aforesaid deed poll was executed by me in lieu of recording my pedigree in one of the Colleges of Arms and obtaining a certificate therefrom, as required by the order of his late Majesty, King George III, dated the 6th day of December 1782, such order having been subsequently revoked by his said Majesty, so far as it related to Baronetries created by letters patent prior to 1783. Dated 28th February 1878. Kenneth William Cumming.

"Witness—Wm. F. Geare, 57 Lincoln's-inn-fields, Solicitor."

(b) See p. 371, note "c."

(c) This statement, if it implies that during that period he styled himself "Baronet," seems doubtful. His nephew (see p. 371, note "c.") calls him "19th of the line and last actual Baronet," and adds, "See Peerages, etc., about 1800 up till 1838."

cr. 30 May 1699;

LIVINGSTON, and grand daughter and heir (8 July 1630) of Robert LIVINGSTON, of Westquarter aforesaid, suc. his elder br., Sir William LIVINGSTON, in the estate of Westquarter as heir male and was cr. a Baronet [S.], as above, by royal warrant, dat. at Kensington 30 May 1699, with rem. "to his eldest son and his aires male successive."^(b) He m. (contract 28 June 1690) Mary, widow of Alexander (LIVINGSTON), 2d EARL OF CALEDAR [S.], 3d da. of William (HAMILTON), 2d DUKE OF HAMILTON, by Elizabeth, da. and coheir of James (MAXWELL), 1st EARL OF DIRLETOUN [S.]. He d. s.p., at Edinburgh, 27 Nov.
1701,^(c) when the Baronetcy became dormant for about 70 years.^(d) He left the estate of Westquarter to his widow, who m. (as her 3d husband and his 2d wife) before Aug., having entailed it on her said 2d husband for life, and, after his death, on the relatives of her 1st husband, as below.

* * * * *

- II. 1701. ALEXANDER LIVINGSTON, of Bedlormie, co. Linlithgow, and afterwards (1711) of Westquarter aforesaid, 1st cousin twice removed and h. male, being s. and h. of Sir Alexander LIVINGSTON, of Craigengall, by Susanna, 1st da. and coheir of Patrick WALKER, of Bedlormie aforesaid, which Alexander (who d. May 1690), was s. and h. of William LIVINGSTON, of Craigengall and Ogilface, co. Linlithgow (d. 1649), s. and h. of the Hon. Sir George LIVING-STON,^(e) of Ogilface aforesaid (one of the adventurers of the forfeited estates in Ireland, where he died), next elder br. to the father of the 1st Baronet, both being yr. brs. of Alexander, 1st EARL OF LINLITHGOW [S.], and sons of William, 6th LORD LIVINGSTON [S.] abovenamed. He suc. to the Bedlormie estate on the death of his father in 1690, and to the Baronetcy (as heir male) on the death of his cousin abovenamed, 27 Nov. 1701, but did not assume the title. In 1711 he suc. to the estate of Westquarter, as abovementioned. He m. (contract Feb. and June 1683) Henrietta, da. of Alexander SCOTT, Goldsmith, Burgess of Edinburgh, and by her had seven sons. He d. 13 Nov. 1720.^(f)

- III. 1720. GEORGE LIVINGSTON, of Bedlormie aforesaid, 1st s. and h., suc. to the Baronetcy (though not, apparently, to the West-quarter estate) on the death of his father in 1720, but did not assume the title.
He had general service to his father, 21 Feb. 1722. He m. in 1722, Frances,

(d) Helen, his niece and heir (who, however, did not inherit the Westquarter estate), m. before 1702, Sir Richard Newton, Baronet [S. 1697], who d. s.p. before 27 June 1727.

(e) It is stated (Playfair's Baronetage, 1811, and elsewhere) that "Ogilface"
[i.e., this George] was cr. a Baronet [S.] in 1625. This, however, is a mistake.
The creation of 30 May 1625 (sealed 20 Aug. following) was that of Sir David Livingston, of Dunipace, and became dormant at his death, 1631-34.

(f) The will, proved Dec. 1718, of Sir Alexander Livingston, Baronet, who died in Holland, refers to the 3d and last Baronet [S. 1627], of Newbigging.

da. (but possibly illegit., though called "lawful" da. in her marr. contract, 21 April 1722. See Reg. Mag. Sig. 26 July 1722) of Lord John KERR, yr. s. of Robert, 1st MARQUESS OF LOTHIAN [S.]. He d. s.p., 1729.

IV. 1729. ALEXANDER LIVINGSTON, of Bedlormie aforesaid, next br. and h., suc. to the Baronetcy in 1729 but did not assume the title. He had general service to his brother, 13 Nov. 1729. He was a surgeon at Dalkeith. He m. firstly, Christian, da. of John HAY, Collector of Customs. He m. secondly, Margaret, da. of John MURRAY, of Muirlawpen, co. Fife. He d. s.p., 1766.

V. 1766. WILLIAM LIVINGSTON, of Westquarter and Bedlormie aforesaid, next surv. br. and h., being 4th s. of his father; was a Capt. in the army. He was, 4 Feb. 1756, served heir of tailzie and provision general of Mary, COUNTESS OF FINDLATER [S.], relict of the 1st Baronet, and on 4 March 1765 recovered the estate of Westquarter, which had been possessed and illegally sold by his next eldest br., James LIVINGSTON, who d. s.p. in 1740.^(a) He suc. to the Baronetcy in 1766, but did not assume the title. He m. Helen, da. of John PARKER, of London. He d. s.p., 22 Feb. 1769.

VI. 1769. SIR ALEXANDER LIVINGSTON, Baronet [S. 1699], of Westquarter and Bedlormie aforesaid, nephew and h., being s. and h. of Robert LIVINGSTON, by Isabella, da. of Thomas BAILLIE, of Polkemmet, co. Linlithgow, which Robert, who was an officer in the army, and who lost his right arm in battle against the Jacobite insurgents in 1745, d. in 1759. He suc. to the Baronetcy in 1769, but did not, apparently, assume the (long since dormant) title till some few years later, but, apparently, before 1778.^(b) He, on 18 Aug. 1769, had spec. service to his uncle, George LIVINGSTON, in Bedlormie, part of Ogilface, etc., and, on 1 Jan. 1770, as heir male of entail and provision general to his uncle, William LIVINGSTON, in Westquarter.^(c) In 1784 he claimed the EARLDOM OF CALLENDAR [S.]. He m. firstly, Ann, da. of John ATKINSON, of London, and by her had seven sons. She d. 27 Dec. 1778. He m. secondly, in 1782, Jane, only child of Capt. the Hon. William Henry CRANSTOUN (yr. s. of William, 5th LORD CRANSTOUN [S.], by Anne, sister of Sir David MURRAY, 4th Baronet [S. 1664], of Stanhope.^(d) He d. 8 April 1795. His widow, who was b. 19 Feb. 1745, and by whom he had two more sons, had a pension of £100 a year, and d. at the Spittal, near Hexham, 7 July 1830, aged 84.

VII. 1795, SIR THOMAS LIVINGSTONE, Baronet [S. 1699], of West-quarter and Bedlormie aforesaid, 3d but 1st surv. s. and h.^(e) by 1853. 1st wife; was b. 20 Nov. 1769; entered the navy in Sep. 1782; was at the attack on Martinique, 1793; assisted to convey the Russian contingent to England, 1799; in command of the "Diadem," was in the

^(a) The Westquarter estate must apparently have been entailed on the 2d s. of this line, probably to keep it distinct from that of Bedlormie.

^(b) The death of his wife, as "Lady Livingston, of Westquarter," is announced as on 27 Dec. 1778 [Scot's Mag.].

^(c) An absurd story was current about his recovering the estate of Westquarter by accidentally finding the title deeds at an inn. That estate, however, had been long before recovered by his uncle, the legal proceedings forming one of the leading cases in the law of Scotland. Moreover, the original deed of entail would not have been necessary, as it had been registered 10 Dec. 1719.

^(d) See Wood's Douglas's Peerage [S.], under "Cranstoun."

^(e) Alexander Small Livingston, the 1st s., d. v.p. and nm., 1790. The other son, Thurstan Livingston, though married, d. s.p. legit.

expedition against Quiberon and Belleisle, in 1800; captured the "Vigilante" sloop of war (18 guns) on the coast of Egypt in 1806; becoming Vics-Admiral, 1838, and Admiral of the White in 1851. He suc. to the Baronetcy (a) in April 1795, and, subsequently, had spec. service to his father in the Barony of Bedlormie. In 1803 he had a grant for life of the custody of the palace of Linlithgow and the castle of Blackness, offices formerly held by his cousins, the Earle of Linlithgow [S.]. In 1821, he was served heir male general to James (LIVINGSTON), EARL OF CALLENDAR [S.], and accordingly laid claim to that Earldom. He, who considered himself the last heir male of the Livingston family, entailed his estates, shortly before his death, on the issue of his sister. He m. 24 Aug. 1809, Janet, da. of Sir James STIRLING, 1st Baronet [1792], sometime Lord Provost of Edinburgh, by Alison, da. of James MANSFIELD, of Edinburgh, Banker. She d. at Ardrossan, 1831. He d. s.p., at Westquarter, 1 April 1853, aged about 83, when the Baronetcy became dormant or extinct. Will pr. Aug. 1853.(b)

The Baronetcy was, however, assumed as under.

VIII. 1853, SIR ALEXANDER LIVINGSTON, Baronet S. 1699, to alleging himself to be nephew and h. male, as s. (alleging 1859. himself to be legit. s.) of Thurstan LIVINGSTON, of Rotherhithe, Surrey, Turner (formerly a seaman), by Catherine Anne (the validity of whose marriage, 7 Aug. 1808, was disputed), relict of John TICEHURST, da. of John DUPUIS, of Spitalfields, weaver, and sister of Susanna, 1st wife of the said Thurstan LIVINGSTON,(d) which Thurstan (who d. Dec. 1839), was yr. br. of the whole blood to the late Baronet. He, who was b. 13 June 1809, assumed the Baronetcy in April 1853, and claimed the estate of Bedlormie as heir of entail, which claim the Court of Session, in 1856, decided in his favour, but, however, in 1859, the House of Lords, though they held him to be legitimate in England, remitted to the Scotch Court the point of his status in Scotland, and finally the judgment was against him. He d. in poverty at Edinburgh, 20 Jan. 1859, in his 50th year.

(a) In Dod's Baronetage (1853) and elsewhere he is spoken of as the "10th Baronet," and his creation is given as "1625." This is on the [erroneous] supposition that his ancestor, Sir George Livingston, of Ogleface (see p. 384, note "e"), was made a Baronet, in which case the 1st Baronet of the creation of 1699 would have been the 4th of the [imaginary] creation of 1625, and this (the 7th), consequently, the 10th.

(b) The estates were inherited by his great nephew, Thomas Livingston Fenton, afterwards Fenton-Livingston, of Westquarter and Bedlormie, which latter estate he sold in 1873. He was only s. and h. of the Rev. John Fenton, Rector of Onshy and Vicar of Tarpenhoe, co. Cumberland, by Anne, 1st sister (only sister of the whole blood) of the late Baronet. The other sister, Elizabeth (only sister of the half blood), m. 26 July 1809, James Kirsopp, of the Spittal, co. Northumberland, and had issue.

(c) According to the assumption of the Baronetcy in 1853.

(d) It was on the ground of her being such sister that the validity of the marriage was disputed. In England the marriage with a deceased wife's sister, would (under the Act of Parl., 1835) have been valid, unless (before that date) it had been set aside during the lifetime of both parties. In Scotland, however, it was held that the law forbidding such marriages was (notwithstanding the Act of 1835), still in force.

ANSTRUTHER:

cr. 6 Jan. 1700 ;^(a)

sometime, 1799-1808, ANSTRUTHER-PATERSON ;

afterwards, since 1817, CARMICHAEL-ANSTRUTHER.

I. 1700. JOHN ANSTRUTHER, the younger, of Anstruther and of Elie House, co. Fife, s. and h. ap. of Sir William ANSTRUTHER, of the same, sometime (1707) a Lord of Justiciary (d. 24 Jan. 1711), by Helen, da. of John (HAMILTON), 4th EARL OF HADDINGTON [S.], was b. 1678, and was v.p. cr. a Baronet [S.], as above, by royal warrant dat. at Kensington, 6 Jan. 1700, but no patent is recorded in the Great Seal Register. He was M.P. [S.] for Anstruther Easter Burghs, 1702-07, and M.P. [G.B.] for same, 1708-10, 1710 till unseated in 1711, and 1713-15, as also for Fifeshire, 1715-41. He suc. his father in the family estates, 24 Jan. 1711; was Master of the Works [S.], 16 July 1717. He m. 24 Jan. 1716/7, at Edinburgh, Margaret, 1st da. (whose issue became heir) of James (CARMICHAEL), 2d EARL OF HYNDFORD [S.], by Elizabeth, da. of John (MAITLAND), 5th EARL OF LAUDERDALE [S.]. She d. 6 Nov. 1721, and was bur. at Elie Church. He d. at Elie House, 21 Sep. 1753, aged 75, and was bur. with her. Will dat. 18 Aug. 1746, pr. 28 Aug. 1754.

II. 1753. SIR JOHN ANSTRUTHER, Baronet [S. 1700], of Anstruther and Elie House aforesaid, 1st but only surv. s. and h., b. 27 Dec. 1718, at Edinburgh; suc. to the Baronetcy, 21 Sep. 1753; was M.P. for Anstruther Easter Burghs (three Parls.), 1766, till he resigned in 1782; and again 1790, till he resigned in 1793. He entailed all his estates, 18 Feb. 1778. He m. 4 Oct. 1750, at Edinburgh, Janet, da. of James FALL, of Dunbar, Merchant, sometime Provost and M.P. for that town, by Jean, da. of Patrick MURRAY, of Pennyland, in Caithness. III. 1799. SIR PHILIP ANSTRUTHER-PATERSON, Baronet [S. 1700], of Anstruther and Elie House aforesaid, formerly Philip ANSTRUTHER, 1st s. and h., b. 13 Jan. 1752, at Edinburgh; sometime Lieutenant

(a) Sir J. Balfour Paul, Lyon, writes, 8 April 1901, "Mr. Maitland Thomson, the Curator of the Historical Department, has just shown me the original warrant by William III for a patent of Baronetcy to be made out in favour of John Anstruther, the younger, of Anstruther, and his heirs male for ever. The warrant is dated at Kensington, 6 Jan. 1700. The patent has never been put on record in the Register of the Great Seal. It is curious how neither Milne, in his List of Baronets, nor Nisbet, in his Heraldry, have got hold of this title, though they both wrote shortly after the date mentioned." From the number of Knights in this family, the father of the 1st Baronet being one of five brothers who were Knighted (see p. , note " "), and from the consecutive succession of Knights in four successive generations (the father, grandfather, great grandfather, and great great grandfather of the 1st Baronet having all been Knighted), it has often been supposed that the Baronetcy [S.] was one of the earliest date, indeed, Sibbald, in his History of Fife, states that Sir Robert Anstruther, great grandfather of the 1st Baronet, was himself, in his commission, dated 12 April 1627, as Ambassador to the Emperor of Germany, styled "Knight and Baronet." His son, Sir Philip (who d. 1702), who about 1672 registered arms as a Knight, is, in a pedigree, registered 17 June 1730 [erroneously] styled "Baronet," though no clue as to the creation of such Baronetcy is there given.

(b) "She is described by the Rev. Dr. Carlyle as a coquette and a beauty and elsewhere as a lady of great ability." Walter Simson, in the History of the Gypsies, mentions that she "was saluted by a rabble crowd at a contested election with the song of The Gypsy Laddie, a taunt which could only be apposite from her supposed [gypsy] descent." See account of the family of FALL, in the Scottish Antiquary, vol. xvi, pp. 127-132.

1st Dragoon Guards; M.P. for Anstruther Easter burghs, 1774, till he resigned in 1777; took the name of PATERSON after that of ANSTRUTHER about 1782, in consequence of his marriage; suc. to the Baronetcy, 4 July 1799. He m. 19 Feb. 1778, at Eccles, co. Berwick, Anne, da. and h. of Sir John PATERSON, 3d Baronet [S. 1687], of Eccles aforesaid, by Anne, de jure (10 Jan. 1794), suo jure BARONESS POLWARTH [S.], 1st da. and heir of line of Hugh (HUME-CAMPBELL), 3d EARL of MARCHMONT and LORD POLWARTH [S.]. He d. s.p., 5 Jan. 1808, aged about 56, the estate of Eccles having already been sold. His widow, who in 1818, claimed the Barony of Polwarth [S.], d. s.p. 11 March 1822. Will pr. 1822.

IV. and I. 1808. SIR JOHN ANSTRUTHER, Baronet [S. 1700 and G.B. 1798], of Anstruther and Elie House aforesaid, br. and h., b. at Elie House, 27 March 1753; admitted to Lincoln's Inn, 12 Feb. 1774; Advocate, 30 July 1774; Barrister (Lincoln's Inn), 1779; M.P. for Anstruther Easter Burghs (two Parls.), 1783-90; for Cockermouth, 1790-96, and for Anstruther Easter Burghs (again), 1796-97, and 1806 till death, taking a leading part in the impeachment of Warren Hastings; was Chief Justice of the Supreme Court at Bengal, 1796-1806; Knighted, 4 Oct. 1797, and was cr. a Baronet [G.B.], 18 May 1798, as "of Fort William, Bengal"; P.C., 19 Nov. 1806; suc. to the Baronetcy [S. 1700], 5 Jan. 1808, and was, 14 March 1808, served heir of entail to his br., the late Baronet. He was cr. D.C.L. of the Univ. of Oxford, 3 July 1810. He m. in or before 1784, Maria Isabella, 1st da. of Edward BRICE, of Berners street, Marylebone. By the death, 18 April 1817, of his cousin, Andrew (CARMICHAEL), 6th and last EARL of HYNDFOURD [S.], he inherited the estates of Carmichael and Westraw, co. Lanark, and took the name of CARMICHAEL before that of ANSTRUTHER. He m. 11 Jan. 1817, Jessie, da. of Major-Gen. David DEWAR, of Gilston House, co. Fife. He d. 28 Jan. 1818, aged 52. Admon. June 1821. His widow m. 27 March 1828, at Edinburgh, the Rev. Robert Bullock MARSHAM, D.C.L., of Caversfield, Oxon, Warden of Merton College, Oxford, 1826-80, who d. 27 Dec. 1880, aged 94. She d. 10 Nov. 1881, at Caversfield, aged 86.

"He was not long in possession before he became inextricably involved, and at length, after many years, succeeded in breaking the entail of his Anstruther estates, and sold them in 1856, together with the mansion of Elie House, to the brothers Baird [for £145,000, but he] still possessed the great Carmichael estates in Lanarkshire, which are in value equal to those he alienated."^(a) He m. firstly in 1824, Meredith Maria, 2d da. of Charles WETHERELL. She d. 10 April 1841, at Brighton, aged 37. (c) The information supplied by R. R. Stodart (see p. 242, note "a") ends at the date of 1799. There is, however, a pedigree (compiled for his own use) by Francis Townsend, Windsor Herald, 1784-1818 (now remaining in the College of Arms, London, and marked "F.T.," vol. xxiii, p. 429), in which the birth of the 5th Baronet's son is mentioned, he being therein called "Sir Joseph," a designation which implies that his father was dead. There is also a mem. therein that "Lady Nicolson" was living at 31 Charlotte street, Somers Town. There is no account of this Baronetcy (or indeed of any Baronetcy of the name of Nicolson) in Playfair's Baronetage, 1811, but Burke's Baronetage, for 1841, gives "Sir James Nicolson, of Glenbervie, co. Kincardine" (no date of creation and no affiliation being stated) as "the present Baronet."

alleged creation, 1701 ;

assumed, 1904.

In Debrett's Baronetage for 1904 is a statement that a Baronetcy is "claimed and assumed by George CROUCH, of Wynnstay and Annandale, Melbourne, Australia, claiming to be 5th Baronet under a Nova Scotia patent of creation said to have issued in 1701, but of which there is no record whatever at the Lyon office," nor indeed, apparently, anywhere else. No further light can be thrown on this extraordinary statement, save that the address should, presumably, be "Wynstay Road, Armadale, Melbourne."

His profound knowledge of the rules affecting the descent of Scotch peerages is shewn in The additional case of Elizabeth, claiming the title of Countess of Sutherland [S.], 1770, to which, in all probability, that Lady owed the decision in her favour, as against the heir male of that Earldom.

living 1757, but who d. s.p. before 1785.

He is also said to have m. Alice, da. of John MOORE, of Tullyhelen.^(a) He^(b) d. s.p.m.s.^(c) 10 April 1803, at Whitefoord house, Canongate, Edinburgh, when the Baronetcy became dormant,^(d) and his five daughters were, on 23 Nov. 1803, served heirs general portioners to their father.^(e) Will pr. 1803.

CUNYNGHAME, or CUNNINGHAM:

cr. 3 Feb. 1701/2.^(e)

I. 1702. "DAVID CUNNINGHAM [or CUNYNGHAME], of Milncraig," in the parish of Coylton, co. Ayr, s. and h. of David CUNYNGHAME, of the same, by Margaret, da. of John MASOUN, of Rosebank, Town Clerk of Ayr, suc. his father, Dec. 1659; was admitted Advocate, 2 Jan. 1673, in which profession he became eminently successful, and was cr. a Baronet [S.], as above, 3 Feb. 1701/2, with rem. "to heirs male in perpetuum."^(e) He was M.P. [S.] for Lauder, 1702-07. Besides several estates in Ayrshire, he acquired that of Livingstone, co. Linlithgow. He m. firstly, Isabella (b. 30 Jan. 1659), 4th and yst. da. of James (DALRYMPLE), 1st VISCOUNT STAIR [S.], by Margaret, da. of James ROSS, of Balnial. He m. secondly, 16 March 1698, Elizabeth, da. of Sir Robert BAIRD, 1st Baronet [S. 1695], of Saughton Hall, by Elizabeth, da. of Michael FLEMING. He d. 28 Jan. 1708.

II. 1708. SIR JAMES CUNYNGHAME, Baronet [S. 1702], of Milncraig and Livingstone aforesaid, 1st s. and h., suc. to the Baronetcy, 28 Jan. 1708, and had general service to his father Feb. and April 1708, and subsequently spec. service in the estate of Robertland. He was M.P. for Linlithgowshire, 1715-22. In 1733 he bought the estate of Roodlands, in the parish of Ayr. He d. unm. at Edinburgh, 1 and was bur. 5 Feb. 1747, in Greyfriars churchyard there.

(a) See p. 242, note "c."

(b) He is said to be the original of "Sir Arthur Wardour" in Scott's Antiquary. He was an early patron of Burns, his da., Maria (who, in 1803, m. Henry Kerr Cranston), being the heroine of the Lass o' of Ballochmyle.

(c) The 3d Baronet is stated (but apparently in error) by R. R. Stodart (see p. 242, note "c") to have left a surviving son, John Rousselet Whitefoord, who suc. to the Baronetcy, but who d. s.p.m. soon afterwards, before 23 Nov. 1803, when his sisters were served heirs to their father. This, presumably, is a confusion with John Rousselet Whitefoord, who was Knighted in Ireland, 7 March 1811, and whose will was proved March 1846. In the pedigree in the Genealogist (see p. 400, note "h"), but three sons of that Baronet are mentioned, viz., (1) John, who d. 9 Oct. 1788 on board the frigate "Pomona," off St. Thomas; (2) James, to whom his father was served heir, as in the text, and (3) Charles, who d. at Edinburgh, 6 June 1787.

(d) The right to the Baronetcy devolved possibly on Caleb Whitefoord, son (but probably illegitimate son) of Col. Charles Whitefoord (d. in Galway 2 Jan. 1753), next br. to the 2d, and s. of the 1st Baronet. This Caleb was b. 1734, in Edinburgh; was a wine merchant in Craven street, Strand; a wit, and a satirical poet: F.R.S., and F.S.A. He m. in 1800 (late in life) Miss Craven, and d. in Argyll street, Feb. 1810. His somewhat remarkable career is given, at full length, in the Annual Register for 1810, pp. 372-375, and in Anderson's Scottish Nation. Goldsmith, in his Retaliation, speaks of him, as "Thou best humour'd man, with the worst humour'd Muse." His eldest son (b. 1806), the Rev. Caleb Whitefoord, M.A. (Oxford), Rector of Burford with Whitton, co. Hereford (1843), d. 5 Jan. 1890, having had five sons, of whom (1) Caleb Whitefoord, d. v.p. and s.p. in Jamaica, 5 Aug. 1866, and (2) Samuel Charles Whitefoord, of Whitton Paddock, is said [Genealogical Magazine, vol. iii, p. 221, Sep. 1899] to be "now [1899] the direct heir to the title."

(e) See p. 398, note "e," under "MYRTON." In Milne's List, however, the rem. is said to be "to his heirs successive," the word "male" being omitted.

III. 1747. SIR DAVID CUNYNGHAME, Baronet [S. 1702], of Milncraig and Livingstone aforesaid, br. and h., b. 1 Aug. 1700; an officer in the army, being Lieut.-Col. of Crawford's Foot, subsequently, Col. of the 57th Infantry in 1757, and, finally, 1761, Lieut.-Gen. in the army. Family Estates.—These, in 1883, consisted of 164,680 acres in Ross-shire, worth £9,344 a year. Principal Seats.—Conan House and Gairloch, co. Ross.

(*) Presumably on his account, he having had three bastards by his housekeeper. The divorced wife is sometimes called Christian, da. of James Cochrane, of Fingland.

MACKENZIE :^(a)cr. 22 Feb. 1702/3 ;^(b)dormant, Sep. 1839 ;but assumed, 1900 to 1904.

I 1703. ALEXANDER MACKENZIE, of Darien, only s. and h. of George MACKENZIE, by Janet, da. of the Rev. (—) LINEEN, Minister of Fairnby^(c) (which George was 4th s. of John MACKENZIE^(d), of Ord, co. Ross, was b. in Scotland in 1663 ; took an active part in the Darien expedition (1698-1700) and is stated to have been cr. a Baronet [S.], 22 Feb. 1702/3,^(b) and described as "of Darien."^(e) He was implicated in the Jacobite rising of 1715, and, though never attainted, appears to have discontinued the use of the title. He settled in Jamaica and obtained an estate situated in Clarendon there, which he named Farenough. He m. there, in Jan. 1709/10, Mary, da. of Arthur JENNERS, by Grisell his wife. He d. in Jamaica, 20 Dec. 1744, aged 81. His widow, who was b. in Jamaica, 26 April 1688, and bap. 8 Aug. 1690, d. there 25 Nov. 1759.

II. 1744. SIR GEORGE MACKENZIE, Baronet^(b) [S. 1703], of Farenough aforesaid, as also of Killeets, in Jamaica, only s. and h., b. 23 Sep. 1711, in Jamaica ; suc. to the Baronetcy^(b), 20 Dec. 1744, but appears not to have assumed the title. He m. in 1746, Mary, da. of Paul STEVENS, of Jamaica. He d. before her, about 1780. His widow (b. in Jamaica) d. in England 10 and was bur. 18 Oct. 1798 at Worplesdon, Surrey, aged 73.

III. 1780 ? SIR GEORGE MACKENZIE, Baronet^(b) [S. 1703], of Farenough and Killeets aforesaid, 1st s. and h., b. 28 March 1747 in Westmorland, Jamaica ; suc. to the Baronetcy^(b) on the death of his father ; was Custos Rotulorum of Clarendon in Jamaica, and sometime President of the Legislative Council of that island. He m. 28 Oct. 1773, at Clarendon, Ann, da. of George BURRELL, of Jamaica, and Ann, his wife. She, who was b. 4 Jan. 1757, at Clarendon aforesaid, d. there 4 Aug. 1797. He d. at Spanish Town in that island 21 Oct. 1815, aged 68.

(^a) The information in this article was mostly supplied by Lieut. E. M. Mackenzie who, from 1900 to 1904 assumed the Baronetcy.

(^b) According to a statement (see note "a" above) of Sir James Dixon Mackenzie, 7th Baronet [S. 1703], of Findon, co. Ross (who was considered to have been an acute Genealogist, and who made the history of the Mackenzie family his special study), the Baronetcy of Mackenzie, of Darien, was cr. the same day (22 Feb. 1702/3), as that of Mackenzie, of Scatwell (which had devolved on himself) and that of Mackenzie, of Gairloch. No patent, however, of the creation of Mackenzie, of Darien, exists, neither is there any registration thereof in the Great Seal Register [S.], nor in the Registrum Preceptorum cartarum pro Baronettis Novæ Scotiæ, nor, apparently, is there any docquet or warrant thereof. The name also does not appear in Milne's List. The remainder was presumed (as above), to have been "hæredibus quibuscumque."

(^c) Douglas' Baronage [S.] p. 417.

(^d) See tabular pedigree, p. 410, note "a," shewing his descent from the house of Mackenzie, of Kintail.

(^e) Of the vast number that formed the Darien expedition, only 36, of which this Alexander Mackenzie was one, survived to return to their native land, this this extensive Colonial enterprise, the greatest that had ever been undertaken by Scotland, having disastrously collapsed.

IV. 1815. SIR ARTHUR MACKENZIE, Baronet^(a) [S. 1703], of Farenough aforesaid, 4th but only surv. s. and h.,^(b) b. 6 Sep. 1782, in Jamaica; was an officer in the Jamaica militia; suc. to the Baronetcy,^(a) 21 Oct. 1815. He sustained great losses by the Slavery Emancipation Act, 1833-34. He d. 2 Aug. 1836, at Kingston in Jamaica, and was bur. there, aged 53. His widow, who was b. 13 March 1784, d. 20 Dec. 1838, and was bur. at Roswell's estate, Jamaica, aged 54.

V. 1836, SIR GEORGE MACKENZIE, Baronet^(a) [S. 1703], of Frankfield estate, in Clarendon, Jamaica, s. and h., b. 1839. 17 Feb. 1811, on the Dry River estate aforesaid; sometime Capt. in the St. Andrew's Reg. of Jamaica Infantry Militia; suc. to the Baronetcy,^(a) 2 Aug. 1836, but, apparently, never assumed the title. He m. in Jamaica, 1838 or 1839, Susanna, da. of William EWBANK, of Mountain Spring, Clarendon, Jamaica, by Elizabeth, da. of (—) BURKE. He d. s.p.m., Sep. 1839, in New York, America, when the Baronetcy became dormant.^(c) His widow m. [The Baronetcy however, after having been dormant for about fifty years, was assumed as under.]

VI. 1900, SIR EDWARD-MACKENZIE MACKENZIE, Baronet to [S. 1703],^(d) formerly Edward Mackenzie THOMPSON 1904. maternal grandson of the above, being 1st s. and h. ap. of Georgina Susanna (b. at sea, off the coast of Jamaica, 2 Nov. 1839), posthumous da. and h. of the above, and presumably heir of line to the 1st Baronet,^(e) by Sir Edward Maunde THOMPSON, K.C.B., to whom she was m. 28 May 1864, in Jamaica. He was b. 8 March 1865, at Isleworth, Midx.; assumed the name of MACKENZIE, in lieu of that of THOMPSON in 1900, in which year also he assumed the Baronetcy, to which he claimed to have had a right at his birth, 8 March 1865, as "heir successive to the first Baronet."^(f) After, however, a lengthy correspondence with the Lyon office, he (on finding that his right to the dignity was not therein recognised), ceased, on and after 1 Oct. 1904, to assume the Baronetcy which, apparently, he had previously adopted, under a misapprehension that (inasmuch as Baronetcies generally devolve in the male line) he (as a male), and not his mother, was (even in her lifetime, as her heir apparent) the representative and "heir general" of her father. He, however, resolved, at the same time, to pursue his mother's claim to the Baronetcy.

(a) See p. 413, note "b."

(b) He had three elder brothers, of whom (1) George d. in infancy, (2) Alexander emigrated to the United States and "disappeared," (3) Peter d. s.p.m.

(c) Male issue, however, of the younger sons of the 1st Baronet is, presumably, still (1904) existing.

(d) According to the assumption of the Baronetcy in 1900.

(e) Presuming the extinction of the issue of any daughters of the elder brothers of the 4th Baronet. See note "b" above.

Infantry Brigade Victorian Military forces, afterwards 6th Australian Infantry Regiment (being therein described as a Baronet), was Lieut. Reserve of Officers in the military forces there, 1903. He m. 13 April 1887, at Melbourne, in Victoria, Australia, Helen Victoria, 2d da. of James Edmund JONES, of Lady Bellegate House, Gloucester, by Caroline Matilda, da. of Thomas BREWER, of Whitminster Lodge, co. (a) In Playfair's Baronetage (1811) (where, however, it is noted that the author was not "favoured with any communication from this family") it is stated that the 2d Baronet "was succeeded by his son, Sir John Reid, the 3d Baronet, of Barra, who did not long survive his father, but dying at London, 9 Nov. 1773, left a son Sir John Reid, the 4th Baronet, now a Lieut. (a) The estates of Melgund and Kynynmound passed to his cousin (of the half blood) Hugh Dalrymple, afterwards Dalrymple-Murray-Kynynmound. This Hugh was 2d s. of the Hon. Sir David Dalrymple, 1st Baronet [S. 1700], of Hailles, by Janet, relict of Alexander Murray and mother of the 1st Baronet, da. of Sir James Rothead. His da. (a) According to the service, “by the Sheriff in Chancery in Edinburgh,” 4 Aug. 1863, which service, however, at that date would, presumably, not affect any right to a Scottish dignity. See also note “b” below.

(b) It is to be observed that the male issue of James Murray, of Deuchar (d. 1649, aged 69), the great grandfather of the 1st Baronet, any of which, if existing in 1863, would take precedence of the line of Philiphaugh in the succession to the Baronetcy, is by no means shewn to be exhausted. WARRENDER :

A Baronetcy [S.] is said to have been conferred in 1705,^(c) or in May 1705, on "GEORGE WARRENDER, of Lochend," in East Lothian, but this statement is apparently a mistake, for the Baronetcy [G.B.] conferred on him, 2 June 1715.

(a) Of his two children, both by his 1st wife, John Notley Sinclair, the only son, d. young, and Jane, only da., m. Patrick Wallace of the East India Company's service and d. Oct. 1892.

(b) John Sinclair, Capt. 30th Madras North Infantry, the 1st son, d. unm. and v.p., being killed 5 April 1858, in his 36th year, at the capture of Jhansie.

(c) In Beatson's List (edit. 1788, vol. ii, p. 56) this appears as a Scotch creation of "1705" and in Miede's List (edit. 1716 and 1723) as one of "May 1705." These, however, are very questionable authorities, and it is not mentioned in Chamberlayne's List, nor in the much more reliable one of Milne.

His scriptural devotion is shewn by his taking the Hebrew words "Jehovah—Jireh" as a motto when, 17 May 1720, his arms and supporters were registered at the Lyon Office.

(b) Dict. Nat. Biog.

(c) Playfair's Baronetage (1811), in which there is a great deal in praise of this Baronet, who, however, it is there stated, "did not escape without his share of public censure, which all seemed to centre in this, that he was of a very projecting genius and most enterprising." His agricultural improvements of the Monymusk estate are, at great length, also commemorated.

(a) The estate of Goodtrees was acquired by the second wife (Marion, only da. of David Macculloch, of Goodtrees aforesaid) of the grantee's father, to whom, however, she was not the mother, though she left female issue, who appear not to have inherited the estate.

(b) This James was yr. br. of Thomas Steuart, of Coltness, cr. a Baronet [S.] 29 Jan. 1698, and elder br. of Robert Steuart, of Allanbank, cr. a Baronet [S.] 15 Aug. 1687.

(c) There is a good deal about him in Bishop Burnet's James II [Oxford, 1852, pp. 242-249], where the character given to him by Lockhart, of Carnwarth, in his Commentaries [vol. i, p. 458] is quoted, viz., "that he was a great man, profound lawyer, the chief support of Presbytery, and a most virulent enemy of the Royal House of Stuart." He was lavishly rewarded for that virulence by the succeeding Government.

(d) See p. 242, note "c."

(e) Another son, Sir James Wishart, was Admiral of the White, 1703, and a Lord of the Admiralty, 1708-14. He d. s.p., 30 May 1723. Will pr. 1723. His widow d. 24 Jan. 1737, aged 65.

II. 1722? SIR WILLIAM STUART Baronet [S. 1706], of Colinton, co.

Edinburgh, grandson and heir male of the heir general of the grantee, being only surv. s. of Daniel STUART, (e) a Commissioner for the Union [S.], by Margaret, 1st da. and heir of line. (f) of the late Baronet by 1st wife. He was,

(a) Riddell's Scottish Peerage Law, vol. i, p. 67.

(b) R. R. Stodart, Lyon Clerk Depute [1863-86], writes, 21 Jan. 1878, as follows—"My view as to the Wishart title is this: Sir George, when the patent in his favour passed, was an old man with three daughters and no prospect of having a son. To gratify his wish to perpetuate his honour the patent has the remainder, failing heirs male of his body [ad hæredes quoscunque eorumque hæredes masculos]. Perhaps it may not be well expressed, but I take it to mean that when the male line of Mrs. Stuart [the 1st da.] failed, the male line of Mrs. Lockhart [the 2d da.] is to succeed, otherwise why 'masculos' at all. If the Baronetcy had been [meant] to go to the heirs general in the direct line of Margaret [the 1st da.] till every descendant of her body had died out, then the limitation should simply have been to the heirs whatsoever of Sir George's body. I do think the title became extinct on the failure [4 Aug. 1802] of the male line of the Lockharts. Of course, I see that there is, looking only at the words of the remainder, a great deal to be said for the view that the title vests in Lord Clinton's son, but then I rest my view on the masculos. Taken in conjunction with the fact that Baronetcies only descend to males, this rule is much strengthened by exceptions, because, when such are made, it is in cases of a man who is either childless or has no male issue, and then for once the title is made descendable through a female. I argue, therefore, that what is meant is the heirs male of the bodies of the daughters; ill expressed, as so many clauses of limitation in Scottish patents are, but still capable of that interpretation, which is, I think, almost forced upon us by the nature of the title. The object certainly was to perpetuate the Baronetcy. Suppose the second daughter to have had a line of direct male descendants, the eldest to have had daughters, the eldest of whom had only a daughter, and that this occurred again; surely this is a reductio ad absurdum, as the title would fall, on the death of the patentee, into abeyance, an abeyance from which it would not emerge for perhaps 150 years."

(c) Fergusia, da. most probably by the 2d wife, Fergusia, and, if so, b. after 1708, m. 15 March 1727, George Lockhart, of Carnwath, co. Lanark. Their son, James Lockhart, was served heir of entail and provision general to his maternal grandfather, Sir George Wishart, the 1st Baronet [S. 1706], and assumed the name of Wishart. He, a Lieut.-Gen. in the Imperial service and a Baron of the Holy Roman Empire, d. 6 Feb. 1790, leaving (besides two daughters) one son Charles, Count Lockhart-Wishart, who d. s.p., 4 Aug. 1802, when the male issue of his grandmother, Fergusia, became extinct.

(d) Of his three daughters (1) Margaret, da. by the 1st wife, m. Daniel Stuart, and was mother of the 2d Baronet; (2) Fergusia, m. 1727, George Lockhart, see note "c" above; (3) Cordelia, m. William Sinclair, of Rosslyn, co. Edinburgh, but d. s.p.

(e) This Daniel, who d. 8 April 1708, was the 2d s. that left issue of Sir Archibald Stuart, 1st Baronet [S. 1668], of Castlemilk.

(f) If this Margaret survived her father, she herself (see note "b" above) as heir general of the grantee (and not her son) would, apparently, have had the right to the Baronetcy, on his death.

17 April 1719, served heir of entail and provision spec. of his br., George STUART, of Colinton, who d. a minor, June 1713. He suc. to the Baronetcy, on the death of his maternal grandfather, under the spec. rem. in the creation thereof and resided chiefly at Venice. He m. a Venetian lady, but d. s.p. at Paris, 6 Dec. 1777.

[On his death the issue male of the 1st da. of the 1st Baronet became extinct, and it has been held (see p. 436, note "b") that the dignity should, in Dec. 1777, have passed to James LOCKHART, s. and h. of the 2d da. It was, however, allowed as under.]

She m. in 1752, her cousin, William BELSHES abovenamed, who d. Oct. 1753, aged 36. She apparently was entitled to succeed to the Baronetcy^(a) as heir general of the grantee, 6 Dec. 1777. She was served, 17 July 1797, heir general of her uncles, George STUART, and Sir William STUART, the 2d Baronet [S. 1706]. She d. 1807.

 BELSHES, and suc. to the Baronetcy in 1807, on his mother's death,

He took the name of STUART only in 1797, on succeeding to the estate of Fettercairn; was Baron of the Exchequer [S.], 1807. By the death of his mother in 1807, he became heir of line to the Baronetcy, which had been allowed to him in 1797. He m. 9 or 19 Nov. 1775, at Melville House, co. He d. s.p.m., 5 Dec. 1810, since which date the Baronetcy has remained dormant.^(c) His widow d. 28 Oct. 1829.

^(a) On the theory that the limitation of the Baronetcy was equivalent to a remainder to heirs whatsoever. See, however, p. 436, note "b" as to a contrary view.

^(b) According to the allowance in 1797 by the Lyon office of the Baronetcy to John Belshes-Wishart, although, at that date, he was not (though his mother was) heir of line to the Baronetcy, and who, certainly (as nemo est hæres viventis) was not, till his mother's death in 1807 (though her heir apparent; her actual heir. This allowance disallows the right in 1777, as to the Baronetcy of James Lockhart, s. and h. male of the second da. of the grantee, at which date the heir of the first da. was a female. See p. 436, notes "b" and "c."

^(c) The heir of line would be his grandson, John Stuart Forbes, s. and h. ap. of his only da., Williamina (who d. v.p.) by Sir William Forbes, 7th Baronet [S. 1626], of Pitsligo. The Baronetcy was, however, assumed, as under :—

He m. Marjorie DOUGLAS. In 1760 the estate of Gairsay was, presumably on the failure of his male issue, in the possession of William HONYMAN, s. of James, s. of William HONYMAN, of Gairsay, and the name of CRAIGIE was assumed by that family.

He m. firstly, 20 Oct. 1685, Violet, da. of Archibald HAMILTON, of Rosehall, by Elizabeth, da. of John JARDINE, of Edinburgh, Merchant. She was bur. 1 Feb. 1690 in the Greyfriars, Edinburgh. ^(b) In 1709 he resigned his gown in favour of his nephew, Dugald Stewart of Blairhall.

^(c) This creation was no less than seventy-nine years after his father had, similarly, been cr. a Baronet [S.].

^(d) "My Lord Tillicultrie dyd 1st Oct." [1710]. See Masterton Papers [Scot. Hist. Soc. Miscellany, p. 484].

^(e) Presuming there was no issue male of the 2d Baronet, and that his two brothers, Hugh Stewart and Col. James Stewart, d. unm. or s.p.m. (no wife is assigned to either of them in Wood's Douglas's Peerage [S.] under "Bute"), the Baronetcy would become merged (as was also the Baronetcy [S.] conferred 18 March 1627 on the grantee's father) with the Earldom of Bute [S.], and since 1796 with the Marquessate of Bute.

[On 1 May 1707 the Union with Scotland took place, after which date the creation of Baronetcies of Scotland (as well as of England) ceased, and that of Baronetcies of Great Britain began.]

Notwithstanding that Scotland had after 1707 ceased to exist as a separate kingdom, the following anomalous creation was alleged:—

BANKS:

1831 to 1854.

THOMAS CHRISTOPHER BANKS, a member of the Inner Temple, London, and a Genealogist of considerable note, having in 1830 assisted Mr. Humphreys, alias Alexander, in his claim to the Earldom of Stirling [S.], received from him (who alleged himself to be such Earl) a grant of a Baronetcy of Nova Scotia, dated 14 July 1831, together with a grant (in anticipation) of 16,000 acres in Canada. As to this creation the grantee remarks, "I consider the same to be perfectly as legal and as efficacious as if it had been conferred on me by the Crown itself." However, notwithstanding this assertion, he appears, in 1837, to have considered that a Baronetcy some 200 years more ancient, whose creation was of the more usual stamp (viz., the Baronetcy of Norton [S.], cr. 18 June 1633) would be preferable. Accordingly, in 1837, he petitioned Queen Victoria (a few months after her accession) for the lands, or for lands of like value, assigned to his "ancestor," viz., "Sir Walter BANKS, then bearing the name of NORTON," whose heir, he states, he is "by family settlements" [sic], alleging that the Baronetcy conferred on Sir Walter in 1633 was to heirs male and assigns whatsoever. It is not quite clear whether he considered the Norton Baronetcy (though the estates had been lost) to be already vested in him as such heir, but it is presumed that he did. Anyhow, the petition met with no success.

He was 1st s. of Thomas BANKS, one of the Gentlemen Pensioners, by (—) da. of (—) SHUTER, of Gough square, London; was b. in 1765; served on board H.M.S. the "Renown" (of which his relative Francis BANKS, who d. 12 Sep. 1777, was Captain), but soon afterwards studied the law and pursued genealogical studies, practising at Lyon's Inn, 1813-20, and subsequently at the Dormant Peerage Office, in John street, Pall Mall. The last and most valuable of his many works (one which displays considerable research and acumen (and which was published when he was nearly 80 years old), is the Baronia Anglica, or Account of the Baronies in fee, 2 vols., 4to, Ripon (1844). He was also author of a Dormant and Extinct Baronage of England, 4 vols, 4to (1807-09 and 1837), and of many other genealogical works. He m. (—), da. of (—) WESTON, of Kensington.

After a long and active life of literary labour, interspersed with vehement vituperation against his fellow genealogists and complaints against Government, he died in poor circumstances at Greenwich, 30 Sep. 1854, in his 90th year, having previously been an inmate of Tancred's Almshouses in Yorkshire. It is stated that "when the documents on which Humphreys founded his claims [to be Earl of Stirling] were discovered to be forgeries, Banks ceased to make use of his own title, but in his obituary notice he is styled a Baronet of Nova Scotia and Knight of the Holy Order of St. John of Jerusalem." (a) Anyhow, on his death, 30 Sep. 1854, the assumption of this Baronetcy ceased.

(a) Dict. Nat. Biog. See also a memoir of him in the Gent. Mag. for Feb. 1855; also, Notes & Queries, 5th S., iv, 87, 150 and 377, where many interesting particulars (by "H.S.G.") are given of him.
